

GALLISON GIVES CREDIT TO SCRUB MEMBERS OF TEAM

By Mary McKendree.
An assembly was held in the high school auditorium this morning as the result of much agitation on the part of the seniors and juniors. Yells of "we want assembly" and "we want Conkle" went up at 9 o'clock and in view of the recent victory over Salem, Mr. Conkle called an assembly. Speeches were given by Mr. Conkle, Prink Callison and the members of the team. Mr. Conkle said in part: "In the last ten years I've seen many football games. I've seen California stage some very spectacular games, and I've seen the University of Oregon stage equally spectacular ones, but in all the games of either high school or college, I've never seen a better game nor a better brand of football than was put up Saturday on Van Scoyoc field by our football squad. We all feel the same about our team, and as a result of this game we feel we have a just claim to the state championship of Oregon."

Mr. Callison said in part: "It's funny to hear all this—of course it's all very nice. It makes me wonder sometimes—there are difficulties out there in practice, the fellows sometimes take a change in heart—in fact I think that at some time or other that they all have thought that I was the last friend that they ever would have. It takes real men to go through the practice that those boys go through. But not all of the credit goes to the first string men. Some credit is due the men who went out at every game, dressed in football togs and sat on the bench. Every night these men went out to practice and went through the same practice that the others did. It takes some boys to go out every night and play the scrub. Some time these boys will be on a first team. They may not make it their first year, or maybe their second or third, and barring accidents these boys will make a first string. And credit goes too to the Medford high school student body who were behind the team so well all season."

The members of the team seemed all to be of the same opinion—that "Prink" Callison deserved all the credit, for it was he that made them fight and it was he that coached them, and taught them how to play football. Their game last Saturday was a hard one, is admitted by all, and the boys seemed all to be of the opinion that the old Medford fight was all that saved them—and as Clarence Dunn and Bernard Bean said—"Prink" put that fight into them.

The football squad were the guests of the Kiwanis club this noon.

POLICEMAN K. O.'S BATTLING SIKI

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—"Battling" Siki knocked out by a policeman, is out $5 as a result. His conqueror was Leonard Smith, a Times Square policeman, whom he attacked, limiting the penalty to a fine at the request of the pugilist's wife, the police magistrate warned the battler that he would go to the workhouse next time.

LUTHERANS PLAN TO BUILD NEW CHURCH

The people of the Lutheran church are planning a church building program for the near future. They have long felt the need of an adequate church plant. It is also felt that the church must measure up to the progress of the city. The ladies have taken a lively interest in trying to provide some of the funds. The many friends of the church will be interested to know that the Ladies' Aid are sponsoring a bazaar and chicken dinner next Wednesday the 9th, at the old American Legion hall. The bazaar begins at 2 p. m. and the chicken dinner will be served from 5:30 to 8 p. m. All proceeds from this sale to be applied to the church building.

WAR THEATRE IN SYRIA RESEMBLES SOUTH CALIFORNIA

BEIRUT, Syria, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—The main theater of the operations in the Druse rebellion against the French in Syria is southern Lebanon, in a country which Americans have found strikingly similar topographically to southern California.

Looking toward Los Angeles from the foothills of Riverside and then over Mount San Bernardino to the desert and the Colorado river is much like crossing the slopes of the Lebanon to the plain of Merjeum and then over Mount Hermon to the desert and the Euphrates river.

Like California's San Bernardino, the mountain of the Transfiguration separates the Delicel Druses in the east from Syria's riverside plain or southern Lebanon on the west. The rebel area extends from the desert across Mount Hermon to Merjeum, watered by the sources of the Jordan in the west, a territory 100 miles long and fifty miles wide.

The principal fighting is in and around the obtuse angle formed by the town of Hushyia at the apex and fifteen miles from the towns of Jedideh and Hashebia, which are 25 miles apart at the base.

By the capture of Hashebia after three days' bombardment, the French now occupy all three points of this triangle. Their objective is to envelope large Druse forces within this area which still has many exits.

The French has 7000 troops for these operations, and the Druses have less than 5000. The French forces, composed of Frenchmen, Algerians and Senegalese are equipped with rifles, artillery, airplanes and tanks and in addition have picturesque Spahis, cavalry from Algeria. The Druse equipment consists of study little Arabian horses, a few captured machine guns, rifles, revolvers, long curved knives and spears.

Today the Druses are distributed within this area and outside of it between Hashebia and Mount Hermon. Tomorrow, owing to their superior mobility and during the Druses may suddenly appear in other localities.

In this war of movement, which has none of the characteristics of the trench warfare of the World War, the French are obliged to employ forces considerably superior in number against an enemy superior in mobility.

The Druse tactics are to draw the French into the difficult hills for hand to hand fighting, in which they excel. In the open country they are no match for modern weapons. The total Druse force is less than 1000. In addition to those in the Hashebia region of Djebel Druse a few bands are operating outside of Damascus and along the railroad to the north in the direction of Aleppo.

U. S. C. PROBABLE CHOICE TO PLAY ON NEW YEARS

EGENE, Ore., Dec. 7.—Neither Washington, Stanford nor California will accept an invitation to play in the east-west football game at Pasadena on New Year's day as representative of the west, even should an invitation be proffered them, it was indicated here this morning by Professor H. C. Howe of the University of Oregon, president of the Pacific coast intercollegiate conference, this morning.

Professor Howe has received telegrams from all three schools to that effect, he said. Washington State cannot play, since a game is scheduled at Hawaii on Christmas day and another at the same place on New Year's day. This leaves U. S. C., Idaho, O. A. C., Montana and Oregon to be considered. Of this group, U. S. C. is held to be the most likely team. The choice of an eastern team, according to reports, is in as great a muddle as the choice of a western aggregation. Alabama, from the southland, seems to be the best bet from the east at present.

What a Scout Master Should Be

Scouting with its outdoor craft and life, its co-operation and service, its lofty code of personal and civic honor, needs men.

Real live men—red-blooded and right hearted men, big men are summoned to this national service, the leadership of the nation's boys.

The key-man in the organization of the Boy Scouts of America is the scoutmaster—his is the key job. It challenges and demands the best any man has in him. Boys demand 100 per cent leadership.

Being a scoutmaster has come to be known as a badge of quality—an emblem of real manhood. His ideals, his inspiration, his help in directing scout activities, his companionship, have made scouting the accepted program for boys over the nation.

The scoutmaster is the organizer, he plans, encourages and aids those in his group and helps them to form habits of being trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.

A scoutmaster is a citizen of the United States, 21 years of age or older, of good moral character and proved worker in boys; he is a volunteer interest, commissioned by the national council, Boy Scouts of America, and directly responsible to the institution sponsoring the troop. He is the administrative and executive head of his troop.

He executes the scout program by means of properly planned and conducted troop meetings, hikes, camps and other activities; he becomes the boys' ideal in that he gives them the opportunity to take part in the program enjoyed by 800,000 scouts in the United States as conducted by over 42,000 scoutmasters and assistants. —A. QUASHING FALL OIL INDICTMENT UPSET BY COURT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(A. P.)—The Fall-Doheny bribery indictments which were quashed several months ago in the lower courts here, were held to be valid today by the District of Columbia court of appeals.

A plea in abatement, filed by former Secretary Albert B. Fall, Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate and his son, Edward L. Doheny, which the lower court granted was overruled by Chief Justice George E. Martin on motion of the government's special oil counsel, Altee Pomeroy and M. J. Roberts.

Two indictments were covered by the court's decision, one charging Fall with receiving a bribe of $100,000 to influence his official action respecting certain oil leases and the other charging the Doheny with giving the bribe.

The appellate court held the act of congress taking the prosecution of the oil cases out of the hands of the department of justice meant only to deprive the attorney general of "charge and control" of the litigation, and did not interfere with the right of the special counsel to make use of the assistance of district attorneys. The defense had argued the presence in the grand jury room of Oliver C. Pagan, a special assistant to the attorney general, violated the sanctity of the proceedings and nullified the indictments. This view was accepted in the lower courts.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(A. P.)—Constructive operations were carried forward in all departments of the stock market today bringing about another broad upward movement of prices. President Coolidge's recommendations for the economic improvement of the agricultural industry were favorably reviewed by Wall Street and provided the incentive for the accumulation of stocks.

The closing was strong. The upward tendency continued unchanged through the final hour despite scattered profit-taking induced by a rise in call money to 5 1/2 per cent. Woolworth, United States Cast Iron Pipe and United States Industrial Alcohol encountered selling pressure but additional gains of two to five points were scored by such issues as DuPont, Mack Trucks, United States Rubber and Fisher Body, several of which sold at the year's highest prices. Total sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

BELGIUM BLOCKS BRITISH PLAN OF MILITARY HELP

GENEVA, Switzerland, Dec. 7.—(A. P.) The disarmament council of the League of Nations has failed to reach an agreement concerning the wisdom of having a study made of the plan to insure prompt military help to any nation which is the victim of aggression. Belgium and France had fought for this as a feature essential to the preparation of the proposed international disarmament conference.

Subsequent to the adverse vote, Belgium today filed a strong reservation declaring a system of prompt assistance more effective than disarmament. The problem was referred to the main council of the league for settlement.

The Belgian reservation is virtually a warning that Belgium will find it difficult to participate in the disarmament conference unless some importance is attached to the subject which in the Belgian view, is of first magnitude if the nations are to weaken their power of defense.

France backs the Belgian demand, but Great Britain and Sweden oppose it.

The disarmament council which is known as council number two, reached agreement on other points in the program of study to be undertaken by the special commission which is to prepare for the international disarmament conference.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)
