

Local and Personal

The local merchants report an exceptional holiday business Saturday with many rural shoppers joining those of Medford. The holiday season was slow in starting this year.

Everybody will be lucky next Saturday—watch Reddy's windows, 232. Good crop head machines $19. Singer Co., 115 W. Main, 231.

George Iverson was granted building permit today for the erection of an 11800 residence on Clark street, while Cornelius Hiltzer was given permission to build a 115 fence for what is to be dog protection.

The shop of thoughtful little gifts, Swem's, 227. We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc., 17.

All Eds are avoiding any other engagement for next Thursday night in order that they may be sure of attending the Elks lodge annual Christmas tree for the benefit of the poor, on that evening.

Don't miss our special 50c chicken dinner at Franklin's. Every Tuesday and Thursday, 229. Nice large thin skinned oranges $1.50 per 100 box. Delivered to your door. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, Phone 97.

Miss Althea Hubbard was a week end visitor in Klamath Falls at the home of Miss Alleen Morford, a former Medford resident.

An unusual opportunity for you Saturday. Watch Reddy's windows, 232. Special bargains in second hand machines this week. Slinger Machine Co., 115 W. Main.

Included among hotel guests here from a distance are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. White of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Maurice and Walter and Lucy Maurice of Vancouver, B. C., Sam Sobel and Sid Simon of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wallin of Piles, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rose of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moore of Colind Almad, Idaho.

A framed picture from Swem's will please. Shingles and roofing at Wallace Wood's Lumber Yard, Cor. E. Main and Bessies, 230.

The Crater Lake O. A. C. club will hold its regular meeting tonight at the home of Miss Frances Perry, 604 West Main street. Nomination of officers will be held, and there will be card games and dancing.

Annual 50c chicken dinner at Franklin's every Tuesday and Thursday, 229. The Daisy Shop for dressmaking and Christmas gifts. Hand made, Phone 1067 Palm Block, 233.

A large truck, belonging to the Medford Fuel Oil company, is in the ditch near the Savage Rapids dam as a result of an accident which occurred Saturday morning. The truck was coming to Grants Pass when a chain came off and locked a wheel, turning the truck off the road and into the mud at the side.—Grants Pass Courier.

Those ladies of Medford who filled to visit the Baptist ladies' bazaar on Saturday, will be able to buy some of the things that were left over, at McDonald's Grocery, Wednesday, December 16th, after 10 a. m., 227. Fancy white beans, new crop 25 lbs. $2. Beans are all hand cleaned. We deliver. Johnson Produce Co., Phone 97, 241 N. Fir street, 229.

The stolen spotlight recovered from two local youths, now serving 10 day sentences each on their plea of guilty to petty larceny, has been claimed by Dr. E. H. Porter.

A gratifying gift for a man or woman is a desk set from Swem's Gift Shop, 227. Large cotton rags wanted at Mail Tribune office.

Due to the increased work in the city treasurer's office, C. C. Sater has accepted a position there.

Every day a special 40c merchants lunch at Medford, 229. Fresh lime $2.75 per barrel. Medford Lumber Co., 209.

All unions in the state have been asked to contribute gifts needed in the W. C. T. U. Children's Farm Home at Corvallis for Christmas.

Unique and interesting gifts at Swem's Gift Shop, 227. Fancy white beans, new crop, 25 lbs. $2. Beans are all hand cleaned. We deliver. Johnson Produce Co., Phone 97, 241 N. Fir Street, 229.

C. Q. D'Albini, who has been doing accounting and bookkeeping in this city for several years, announces the opening of a general accounting and income tax service office in room 423 Medford building, on January 1st. Mr. D'Albini is a certified public accountant and is admitted to practice before the United States board of tax appeals.

The Johnson Produce company will receive dressed turkeys on till Saturday night, December 13th. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir St., Phone 97, 231.

If you have a real bargain in a house on a paved street, we have some cash customers. See Thomas Realty & Insurance Co., 225.

The survey crew under Hugh Cowgill, surveying the route for the new city water system are now at the 401 Oregon, several miles north of the city. It is expected they will reach the city tomorrow, before Christmas. The work will be completed in considerable re-routings, said to be necessary.

We have reduced our price on those fancy onions to $2.25 per 100 lbs. Delivered. Have about 100 sacks left.

When cold weather comes potato shippers are unable to open their pits. For this reason we advise buying potatoes now, $2.50 per hundred delivered any place in city. Quality guaranteed. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, Phone 97, 215.

Mc and Mrs. William Lyman will leave this week for Emmet, Idaho, to spend the holidays with relatives.

Large stock of Victor records at Palmer's music store, 17. Alcohol for radiators, Cheap and best. Jones & Kirkpatrick, 17.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Skinner leave tonight to spend Christmas with their children at their former home in Fort Worth, Texas. They will be gone until February.

We have a market for any quantity of veal weighing under 150 pounds, must be fat and have liver attached. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, Phone 97, 175.

Try that big milk shake at DeVos's, 17. An interesting exhibit in the windows of the California Oregon Power company is attracting considerable attention. The display consists of the Inall medal and certificate recently presented to Howard Dymann of this city, superintendent of electrical construction for the Copco concern.

Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, Phone 97, 175. Beautiful aprons stamped to be embroidered, requires such a little time to transform them into tokens that will be cherished. See our display at the Handicraft Shop, 230.

The Washington Parent-Teacher circle will meet December 18, at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the First Methodist church. A special Christmas program is planned for the entertainment of the fathers and mothers of the school or any one interested in child welfare.

Don't forget the special sale of hand made gifts and children's clothes 410 N. Ivy, 227. New patterns for the hooked rugs. Priced from 75c to $1.95. Handicraft Shop, 230.

Californians registered at local hotels include E. R. Patch of Alameda, H. H. Noel of San Diego, R. J. McDevitt of Chico, G. W. Wernick of Berkeley, A. L. Nelson of San Rafael, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Danford of Sacramento, Ted Simpson, J. A. Quinn and P. G. Hamilton of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lery, B. H. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins of San Francisco.

Handkerchiefs—a personal gift for everybody—in new and attractive boxes. Men's handkerchiefs in the newest patterns, from 35c to $2. Handicraft Shop, 230.

Wrought iron lamps and fern stands. Sheddier Shop, 230. Joe Market of Oakland, Calif., was fined $15 in Judge Glenn O. Taylor's court today on his plea of guilty of speeding on the city streets.

For those who can not shop during the day Jarmis and Woods Drug Store will be open evenings this week. Opposite Economy Groceries, 232.

Architectural drafting, W. N. Jewett, 206 First National Bank Bldg, 231. That it is imperative that some definite action be taken toward the support of the Ashland Fruit and Produce association. It is understood that the operation of the warehouse here, was the stand taken yesterday afternoon by the directors of the association, at a meeting of the directors with E. H. Kipp of the marketing department of the Portland Chamber of Commerce. Kipp was here yesterday, conferring with the directors as to the advisability of continuing the activities of the association. It is understood that the association has lost money during the year. Last season, it is reported the association lost $2500 on the year's activities, while this season, while the loss has not been so large, there is a deficit, which the directors feel may be taken up by the December business.—Ashland Tidings.

Delicious new electrically broiled steaks and chops at Crowson's, 225. Our shop is a bower of beautiful gifts, all of which are new and different at prices that are reasonable. See our fine assortment at the Handicraft Shop, 230.

Snow is two feet in depth at the entrance of the Crater Lake National park, according to Leo Glascock, who with a party of friends left yesterday morning to go to the lake rim. The snow is of a powdery nature and is very loose and commences a mile beyond Union creek.

A cut little kitchen commodity with all orders from now until Christmas. Ask for yours. Valley Fuel Co., Phone 76.

All our hand embroidered models going at one-half price and less. A host of pieces for your choosing, including gowns, combinations, runners, towels, centers, aprons and etc. Handicraft Shop, 230.

The Loyal Women Bible class of the Christian church Sunday school will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Einkoff, 509 North Riverside. All members and friends are requested to be present.

Fluff rugs make good Christmas presents, made from your worn out carpet. Rug Works, 706 Pine street, Phone 510-M, 228.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc., 17. Last night and early today were quite chilly with a minimum of 24.5, following a fine sunny but cold day Sunday with a maximum of 47. "Cloudy and rain" is the official prediction for Tuesday's weather.

What is more useful than glass towels—4 for $1, stamped for a little touch of embroidery which can be quickly done. Handicraft Shop, 230.

Dr. H. Axley, physician and surgeon, 420 Medford Bldg., Phone 607, 243. Fishing is poor and water is high in the Rogue river, according to Al Piche, local sportsman who spent an unproductive day of fishing yesterday near Grants Pass. He believes that with continued frosts, which tend to lower the water level, the fishing will improve.

Calendar's blotters.—Insurance real estate, loans and services. J. W. Wakefield Agency, Palm Block, 222.

Based on figures just issued by the bureau of census, Oregon made a gain of 5703 in number of farms from 1920 to 1924. The gain was made in Western Oregon, fourteen counties in Eastern Oregon having fewer farms than five years ago.

Persons given in oil painting, water colors or china decoration. Call Mrs. Vivian Norman Barto, at Palmer's Studio or 821-7.

Wilbur Walker, formerly connected with the Woolworth store here, left this forenoon for Santa Rosa, Calif., where he intends to locate permanently.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Holland Bldg., Phone 953, 17.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Finch arrived this forenoon from Salem to spend the holidays with relatives here.

Radio Wet A. and B. batteries recharged, called for and delivered. Williams & McCarty, 17.

Jack Milton, operator of Jackson Hot Springs, and E. P. Merrick, owner of the Merrick Motor Inn and Camp Ground in Medford, were elected members of the board of directors of the newly organized Oregon Campground association it was learned this morning upon their return from Portland. More than 300 of the leading camp ground owners and operators in the state were present at the gathering in Portland, which was held for the organization of an association for the betterment of camp grounds in the state.—Ashland Tidings.

Most any variety of apples, good quality, 41 per box delivered. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, 215.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sanderson left this forenoon for San Francisco to visit friends and relatives over the holidays.

Many beautiful new designs in tea sets, $3.85 to $16.50. Jap Art Store, 228.

State of Washington residents in the city temporarily include Lieutenant and Mrs. A. A. Wolf of Vancouver Barracks, E. C. McAllister of Tacoma, A. S. Wright of Chehalis and the following from Seattle: William Curran, J. S. Lombard, G. L. Purkin, W. R. LeBond, I. M. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hull and children, Mrs. E. Smith, H. F. Holt, Maurice D. Teshey, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jenner, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Casey and son and Pat J. Lynch.

With our eastern connection we are able to pay the trappers St. Louis prices for furs, Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, 17.

Dan Bowerman of the Jackson County News was among the local visitors in Jacksonville over the week end.

The business of receiving Christmas parcels for mailing out of the city and of parcels from distant places for delivery at homes of the city greatly increased today at the local postoffice and is expected to grow from now on.

There will be an open meeting at the theological lodge room on Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Based on figures just issued by the bureau of census, Oregon made a gain of 5703 in number of farms from 1920 to 1924. The gain was made in Western Oregon, fourteen counties in Eastern Oregon having fewer farms than five years ago.

Persons given in oil painting, water colors or china decoration. Call Mrs. Vivian Norman Barto, at Palmer's Studio or 821-7.

Wilbur Walker, formerly connected with the Woolworth store here, left this forenoon for Santa Rosa, Calif., where he intends to locate permanently.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Holland Bldg., Phone 953, 17.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Finch arrived this forenoon from Salem to spend the holidays with relatives here.

Radio Wet A. and B. batteries recharged, called for and delivered. Williams & McCarty, 17.

Jack Milton, operator of Jackson Hot Springs, and E. P. Merrick, owner of the Merrick Motor Inn and Camp Ground in Medford, were elected members of the board of directors of the newly organized Oregon Campground association it was learned this morning upon their return from Portland. More than 300 of the leading camp ground owners and operators in the state were present at the gathering in Portland, which was held for the organization of an association for the betterment of camp grounds in the state.—Ashland Tidings.

Most any variety of apples, good quality, 41 per box delivered. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, 215.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sanderson left this forenoon for San Francisco to visit friends and relatives over the holidays.

Many beautiful new designs in tea sets, $3.85 to $16.50. Jap Art Store, 228.

State of Washington residents in the city temporarily include Lieutenant and Mrs. A. A. Wolf of Vancouver Barracks, E. C. McAllister of Tacoma, A. S. Wright of Chehalis and the following from Seattle: William Curran, J. S. Lombard, G. L. Purkin, W. R. LeBond, I. M. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hull and children, Mrs. E. Smith, H. F. Holt, Maurice D. Teshey, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jenner, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Casey and son and Pat J. Lynch.

With our eastern connection we are able to pay the trappers St. Louis prices for furs, Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street, 17.

Dan Bowerman of the Jackson County News was among the local visitors in Jacksonville over the week end.

The business of receiving Christmas parcels for mailing out of the city and of parcels from distant places for delivery at homes of the city greatly increased today at the local postoffice and is expected to grow from now on.

There will be an open meeting at the theological lodge room on Tuesday evening at 7:30.

WEDDING BELLS

Dwayne Leland Reed and Miss Ruth Collins, formerly of Long Beach, Calif., were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Collins, 1105 W. 4th street Saturday evening. Friends and relatives only were present. D. J. Howe officiating. Mr. Reed is an employee of the Medford Ice & Storage Co., and they will reside in Medford.

OBITUARY

FRY—Jennie Fry was born at Sourestown, Pa., April 15, 1843, and passed away at her home one and one-half miles north of Medford, Sunday morning, at the age of 82 years, 7 months and 28 days. She had been a resident of Medford and vicinity for the past 20 years and was loved by all who knew her. Death was due to

Insurance OF EVERY KIND

NOT A COMMODITY, BUT A SERVICE. A responsible insurance agent is ever alert in defending the fruits of human endeavor against the destructive forces of chance and nature. His life-work is to safeguard life, property, and the products of labor. To this end he draws upon the accumulated knowledge of all professions—law, medicine, engineering and the technical sciences. His efforts are devoted to securing for his clients adequate indemnity of the highest type. He should be consulted as one would consult a lawyer.

McCurdy-Daniels Medford's Leading INSURANCE AGENCY

Phone 123 Medford Nat. Bank Bldg.

Natwick, Inc. Cooley Building

Reduction Sale. Linens. Brass. Chinese Embroideries Handkerchiefs Etc.

months three days and was born at Albany, Oregon. The family moved to Medford two months ago. Julia was the youngest child. She leaves her parents and one brother, William. The funeral service will be held at the First Baptist church Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. Rev. Temple officiating. Interment in Medford cemetery.

WEST—Blanch West, wife of Arthur West of 113 Vancouver avenue, passed away at their home at 2 o'clock this morning following an illness of one week. Mrs. West was born in Medford in 1884 and had resided here all her life. She was a graduate from the Medford high school and was married in 1916 to Arthur West. She leaves besides her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Maule, her husband and two children, Billie and Betty, aged 8 and 6, respectively. There is also one sister and three brothers. Miss Eleanor Maule of Medford, Azariah Maule of Los Angeles, Roy Maule of Portland and John Maule of Centralia, Wash.; also one half-brother, Jay Maule of Illinois. A private funeral will be held in charge of Conger funeral parlors, probably Wednesday. However, final arrangements will be made upon the arrival of the brothers.

McCABE—Elmer Justin McCabe passed away at the Sacred Heart hospital, Saturday afternoon, December 12th. Elmer was born at Weston, Oregon, August 13, 1909 and was 16 years, three months and 29 days old. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCabe of Eagle Point. The funeral services were held this afternoon from the First Baptist church. The Rev. Lawrence officiated and interment was made in the Central Point cemetery.

LARSEN—Julia Ellen Larsen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larsen, passed away at the parents' home, 917 S. Central, December 12, after a short illness of about 24 hours. She was aged five years, 5 months and 11 days.

If It's Insurance Ask Fortune Tellers We Protect It R.A. Holmes The Insurance Man Since 1909 Phone-444

Haas Candy ALWAYS FRESH. Not shipped from the east, but made in San Francisco and received each week by express. Take Home a FRESH BOX OF HAAS CANDY from the WEST SIDE PHARMACY

Money to Loan On improved city property or for building purposes NO COMMISSION CHARGED Costs You Less Gets You Out of Debt Redden & Company Room 2 Davis Bldg. 32 N. Central Medford, Ore Phone 720

FORD TOURING With $100 Worth of Extra Equipment $250.00 The Busy Corner Motor Co.

Notice of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Jackson County Building and Loan Association will be held Monday evening, January 4th, 1926, at 7:30 p. m., at the office of the Secretary, 30 North Central Avenue, Medford, Oregon, for the election of officers, for the amendment of the By-Laws, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. G. C. ROGGS, Secretary and Attorney.

BAPTIST CHURCH BAZAAR A SUCCESS

The recreation hall of the First Baptist church was the scene of great activity on Saturday last. At the west end of the hall there was a large booth, decorated with pink and white streamers, and in the booth was a fine display of beautiful aprons, children's dresses, towels and other useful articles, which the Ladies' Auxiliary was selling. There was also an abundance of most delicious home-made candy. At the noon hour the ladies served, cafeteria style, a good home-cooked lunch, consisting of hot soup, hot roast beef sandwiches, mashed potatoes, pie and coffee. The auxiliary is divided into five circles, each circle being responsible for some part of the menu. The proceeds from the bazaar and lunch exceeded expectations of those in charge and the ladies were well pleased with the results.

Some things, mostly aprons, were left over and these articles will be on sale at McDonald's Grocery, W. Main street, Wednesday, December 16.

I. O. O. F. Encampment. An adjourned meeting of I. O. O. F. Encampment will be held Wednesday evening, December 16, to confer R. P. degree. Refreshments served. Full attendance desired. 228.

STARTS THURSDAY VON STROHEIM'S "The Merry Widow" WITH MAE MURRAY as the Widow and JOHN GILBERT, the Prince CHUNT'S CRATERIAN

Wednesday VAUDEVILLE Thursday "The MERRY WIDOW" CHUNT'S CRATERIAN

Christmas Blooms! Flowers, colorful and fragrant, help immeasurably to make a cheery Christmas! They are symbols of true friendship! What more appropriate than a bright, potted plant or fresh cut flowers for sweetheart, sister or mother! What more cherished by the invalid!

Flowers will effectively carry the message of a "Happy Christmas" to any friend or loved one! Put in your order today!

Monarch Seed & Feed Co. 323 E. Main St. Phone 260

FORD TOURING With $100 Worth of Extra Equipment $250.00 The Busy Corner Motor Co.

Gingerbread for the kiddies Christmas. See our windows. The COLONIAL So. Oregon's Finest Bakery