

Events of the Week in Pictures

IN WORLD'S ENDURANCE TEST

Enough fuel to keep their plane in the air for 60 hours, 575 gallons of gasoline and 20 gallons of oil, were put into the Stinson monoplane, below, on which George Haldeman, left, co-pilot with Ruth Elder on a transatlantic hop, and Eddie Stinson, right, veteran Detroit pilot, pinned their hopes of shattering the world's endurance record. The plane is shown above, staked to the ice on Lake St. Clair, near Mt. Clemens, Mich., prior to the take-off.

BALKS AT WIFE-LESS BASEBALL

Harold McKain, 19-year-old rookie acquired by the Cleveland Indians, who refused to report at training camp unless a rule barring wives is canceled. With McKain is his wife, for whose companionship he is willing to sacrifice a big league career. The pair live in Council Bluffs, Ia.

GLIDER BOAT UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Work is well under way on the new glider boat, above, being constructed by the French engineer, Adrien Remy. He plans to use it in crossing the Atlantic between Cherbourg and New York, via the Azores. According to his calculations, the 17-ton craft can make the trip in 84 hours. The fuselage is cigar-shaped and will contain the motor and cabins for passengers. Two floats, 70 feet long, will contain gasoline and oil tanks.

TOWN GUARDS AGAINST FLOOD

As spring approaches and with it the flood season, one river city, Beardstown, Ill., on the Illinois river, is counting on a new sea wall to protect it. The wall, pictured above, is 3,076 feet long and 22 feet high. It has just been completed. Earth levees, two miles long, connect the wall at each end.

LATTER DAY SAINTS BUILD TEMPLE

Covering a block of ground on the site of the original Mormon settlement at Independence, Mo., when the Latter Day Saints moved west from New York, this great temple, now under construction by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will be even larger than the Mormon auditorium at Salt Lake City. The temple is to have a depth of 272 feet, will be 250 feet wide, and is designed for a seating capacity of 6,700 with an auxiliary hall seating 3,000. It is to be dedicated in October, 1922.

PIONEER'S GIFT TO POSTERITY

The opening of the Huntington library and art gallery at Pasadena, Cal., has consummated the wish of the late Henry E. Huntington, millionaire California pioneer and railroad builder, that his priceless collection of books, historical documents, manuscripts, art objects and famous paintings be forever held intact as his gift to posterity. The surrounding grounds of the Huntington estate will become a public botanical garden. Above, the front of Mr. Huntington's former home, which now is the art gallery.

Masonic Leader

Samuel S. Forstner, of Schenectady, N. Y., is the newly elected grand high priest of the New York chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

Solon May Resign

Persistent rumors, in Washington, herald the resignation of Rep. William R. Green, of Iowa, chairman of the house ways and means committee, to accept a federal judgeship in New York. He has refused to confirm the rumors.

Cotton Queen

Girls from virtually every county in Oklahoma vied for the honor of being chosen Cotton Queen of the state in an annual cotton exposition, but Alpha Perwell, 18, of Norfolk, Okla., was voted the most beautiful and attractive girl of them all.

Seek Darrow's Aid

A group of Pittsburgh women, opposed to capital punishment, have organized to enlist the aid of Clarence Darrow, famous criminal lawyer, for the defense of Andy Dyken, 15, above, of St. Clairsville, O., who goes on trial March 12 charged with the murder of his mother.

Calls Smith Weak

"Al Smith is the weakest possible man the Democrats can give the presidential nomination," declares Dr. F. Scott McBride, successor to Wayne B. Wheeler as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, snapped above, while attending the southern convention of the league at St. Petersburg, Fla. He also contends the Democrats will wreck their party if they nominate an avowed wet.

NEW BRITISH SEA MONSTER ON FIRST COMMISSION

Here is a view of the new British battleship Rodney, snapped as it departed from Plymouth, England, on its first commission. The huge ship presents a radically different aspect from the present type of dreadnaught.

SCHOOL CLAIMS HIGHEST RECORD TWIN ENROLLMENT

With twelve and a half pairs of twins of a total enrollment of 275 pupils, the consolidated and high school of Logan, Ia., claims the highest percentage of twins for schools of its size in the United States. The mate of the odd twin of the thirteenth pair is working on a nearby farm. This photo shows twin population of the school.

BUTTONS SWELL DEMO COFFERS

These two young women, employed in a railroad office, are doing their bit for Houston, Tex., scene of the Democratic national convention, by selling booster buttons to swell convention funds. Above, they are "selling" Clem Shaver, chairman of the Democratic national committee, left, and Jesse Jones, Houston publisher, chairman of the finance committee, right.

FIGHT FOR INDIANA'S DELEGATES

Here are the principal figures in the fight between Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, and Senator James E. Watson for Indiana's delegates to the Kansas City Republican convention in June. Hoover, left, above, is supported by Harry S. New, postmaster general, center, above; James P. Goodrich, former governor, who represented President Harding and Hoover on missions to Russia, center, below, and Will Hays, former Republican national chairman, right. Watson, left, below, has as his chief ally his junior colleague, Senator Arthur R. Robinson, right.

TEXAS HONORS ALAMO DEFENDERS

Governor Dan Moody, of Texas, left; National Commander Edward E. Spafford, of the American Legion, with wreath, and Judge Ernest A. Crockett, of Yankton, S. D., a great-grandson of the famous scout, Davy Crockett, snapped as they participated in the ceremonies honoring the valiant Texan band who lost their lives in the defense of the Alamo at San Antonio, Tex., against a vastly superior Mexican army. The Legion's national convention is scheduled for San Antonio in October.

TWINS PICKED AS POPULAR "MAN"

Jim and Gerald Anderson, twin freshmen at Brigham Young university, Provo, Utah, look so much alike that they have been chosen as the most popular "man" at the institution in an annual celebrity contest. No one but their mother is sure which is which.