

Local and Personal

Paul R. Schuler will spend $1000 for a dwelling on Williamson street, and C. C. Lemmon will spend $150 for an addition to a family garage, while T. C. Harry will construct a garage on Jackson street at a cost of $125, according to building permits which were issued by the city today and yesterday.

Notice! In order to help stamp out the trouble caused by non-sufficient fund and no-account checks, every person receiving one is requested to notify Southern Oregon Credit Bureau, 32 North Central Ave., Phone 729.

Mrs. John Gwin, who has been visiting her sister, Elsie Hashaw, left yesterday for Los Angeles.

Mr. Sharp is permanently located in the Hotel In Beauty Shop in the Santa Bldg. Hair-cutting and permanent waving is his specialty. Phone in your appointments.

The Ashland Elks' officers will come to Medford Thursday night to have charge of the lodge session. The officers of the Ashland lodge will occupy the chairs during the lodge session, and a social meeting will follow.

12-in. oak chunk wood, $2.50 per tier. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Lee Wolfert, M. M. Mayer, Dave Rolla of New York City; Donald Dean of Chicago, Mrs. E. Kitchin of Vancouver, H. C. Barney Melrich of Lewiston, Idaho; M. L. Machwiez and E. E. Ponti of Dubuque, Iowa; William MacDonald and family of Alberta, Can.; Mrs. V. M. Whitham of Belding, Ill.; Fred Mayhugh of Baley, Idaho, and A. O. Lord of Prince Rupert, B. C.

Walnut top grafting, by experienced, successful walnut grafted.

Falling small showers of rain at various times today, rain is predicted for tonight and Thursday, and also continued mild temperature. The maximum of yesterday was 67 and this morning's minimum was 48.

Good sugar pine shakes at Big Pine Lumber Company.

The number of out of state cars daily registered in Medford at the local auto traffic bureau greatly decreased yesterday, in comparison to the number which has been registering for the past week and a half, only 10 such cars registering.

A pernicious wave? See Mr. Sharp at the Bob-In Shop, Phone 819.

The Golden Link Bible class will hold its afternoon meeting at the home of Mrs. H. F. Cope, 18 Quince street, Thursday, March 22, at 7:30. All members are urged to come.

Every man and woman over 21 years old who has resided in the state six months prior to the primary, May 18, is entitled to vote, but must register at once. Anyone in the county can register at county clerk's office. Medford residents register at Chamber of Commerce or county clerk's office.

Among the state of Washington hotel guests in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. F. D. White of Spokane; Fred Newman of Walls Walla, and J. S. May, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McKean, M. J. Warneke, Milton Watson and F. G. Henry of Seattle.

Special for First Aid Week, a 10c tube of shaving cream, a 5c tube of skin balm and a 25c can of talcum powder for men, all at the price of $1.00. Heath's Drug Store.

A marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office today to William Bassett, 48, and Grace Morris, 26, both of Sonoma, Calif.

Perennial Plants, We have them. The price is right. Come and see or write for price list. S. F. Chapman, near Owen-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2.

In an effort to break into the fighting game in Portland, Budde Thornton, local bantamweight boxer, left for the state metropolis last week to mix with fighters of metropolitan caliber. Thornton appeared in local smelters a number of times and in each won by a knockout, and by local fans is rated fairly good. However, his fighting style can be improved considerably as far as his science is concerned.

If you are contemplating changing your truck tires from solid to pneumatic tires, see Lewis Super Service Station for a complete change over of wheels.

All vehicles crossing main line railroad tracks in Pendleton must come to a complete stop beginning tomorrow, in accordance with a city traffic ordinance recently adopted. The ordinance was adopted as a safety measure in an endeavor to reduce traffic accidents on railroad tracks.

Good sugar pine shakes at Big Pine Lumber Company.

A. C. Nininger stated this morning that a meeting of baseball fans will be held at Yicks Wednesday evening when the question of a baseball league for northern California and southern Oregon will be discussed. Medford, Klamath Falls, Weed and Yreka are ready to enter the league, according to reports, but the promoters desire two other teams, if possible. Dunsmuir may enter. It has been proposed that Grants Pass, Gold Hill and possibly Ashland form a combination to make the sixth team. Mr. Nininger will attend as the representative of the baseball league organization which functioned in this region last year.—Ashland Tidings.

For interior and exterior painting and papering, Phone 665-867.

Sailor Jack Wood, local wrestler, will leave tomorrow forenoon for Klamath Falls, where he will meet Battling Burke in the main event of a wrestling card there tomorrow night. Wood will return immediately to his home here to practice for his match with Bill Montana at Hilarity hall next Monday night.

Colvig Drugs, next to the Rialto theater, open every night and Sunday. Phone 816. Free delivery.

Filled with interesting news articles concerning the California Oregon Power Company, Forum Flashes, monthly publication of the company, came off the press yesterday. This month's issue is eight pages and is edited by Seth Bullock.

Chester A. Arthur Relief Corps No. 34 will have a social Friday afternoon, March 23, at Mt. E. T. Wood's 105 North Oakdale.

Business matters of a purely routine nature were taken up at today's regular weekly meeting of the county court.

If you are contemplating changing your truck tires from solid to pneumatic tires, see Lewis Super Service Station for a complete change over of wheels.

G. T. Caspar and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bray are visitors in the city from Klamath Falls who arrived yesterday.

Green sash wood at summer prices. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Lee Wolfert, M. M. Mayer, Dave Rolla of New York City; Donald Dean of Chicago, Mrs. E. Kitchin of Vancouver, H. C. Barney Melrich of Lewiston, Idaho; M. L. Machwiez and E. E. Ponti of Dubuque, Iowa; William MacDonald and family of Alberta, Can.; Mrs. V. M. Whitham of Belding, Ill.; Fred Mayhugh of Baley, Idaho, and A. O. Lord of Prince Rupert, B. C.

Walnut top grafting, by experienced, successful walnut grafted.

Falling small showers of rain at various times today, rain is predicted for tonight and Thursday, and also continued mild temperature. The maximum of yesterday was 67 and this morning's minimum was 48.

Good sugar pine shakes at Big Pine Lumber Company.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Sam Jennings and Velma Whitelatch, both of Medford, and Walter Benson Pollock and Hazel Neil Schulz, both of Yreka, Calif., by County Clerk F. L. Coetz.

Grants Pass Courier.

Colvig Drugs, next to the Rialto theater, open every night and Sunday. Phone 816. Free delivery.

16-in. manzanita wood, $4.50 per tier. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miller arrived last evening from Oakland, Calif., to spend several days here with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Crowell while en route by motor to Seattle, Wash.

You'll like our evening dinners, 50c and 65c. Jackson Hotel Cafeteria.

16-in. laurel wood, $4.50 per tier. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

George Blucher of Bates City, Mo., accompanied by his daughter Ethel, followed their arrival in Medford yesterday to visit relatives in Medford, their permanent home, according to present plans.

Frank Lindley of the Brown Hardware company is a nephew of Mr. Blucher.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Co.

Twenty-two students will complete their work at the Southern Oregon Normal school this week. Final examinations will be ended Wednesday noon, at which time the school will be closed until the following Monday when registration for the spring term will start. Students completing their work this week include Esther Barrett, Marie Botham, Jane Creager, Vida Davis, Cecile Field, Annette Fisher, Iris Woodell Fries, Leona Fries, Esther Gardner, Lester Gardner, Athene Juan, Clarence Haan, Elsie McKinney, Hazel Martin, Joe Meyer, Vida Rees, Wilma Shiley, Dorothy Short, Florence Timmons, Florence Updegraff, Priscilla Webb and Alvina Watherell.

That good coal. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 223.

E. E. Price, irrigation and drainage expert of the O. A. C., who was to have been in Ashland and vicinity yesterday, will be there Friday instead. He will be accompanied by County Agent L. P. Wilcox and it is planned to spend the forenoon in the Valley View District, and the afternoon in the Pendleton section.

Coal $18.50 per ton. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Only two bounty warrants for predatory animals were issued at the county clerk's office here yesterday. One was issued to Bertha E. Charley of Clifmax for two bobcats, and the other was issued to Dan Hammill of Talent for two bobcats.

Following a short time in Berkely, Calif., at the bedside of his father, who is reported to be seriously ill, Dr. L. D. Inkopke returned yesterday to duties at the county health unit. The condition of the sick man, who visited his son here last August, is said to be somewhat improved.

Red Utah Coal, Hansen Coal Co., Phone 223.

Vernon Rockwater, well known aviator of the northwest, whose headquarters has been at the Vancouver airport, has transferred his planes to Chehalis, where he will operate for the St. Johns Motor company there.

Hot coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 223.

Following its theft here last night, the Buick sedan of Hob Deitel, as located in Yreka, Calif., last night and its two alleged thieves will be returned here this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Paul Jenkins. The suspects were arrested after the machine had been parked, according to information received by local officers.

Dr. W. W. Howard has returned and will be in his office.

G. W. Milam has sold his service station and home at Rogue River and will move to Medford.

W. N. Rice was attending to business matters in Grants Pass yesterday.

See Minor Hanley Bush for cleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay. 526 E. Main, Phone 882.

Al Baroufai of Jacksonville, following arrest Monday by State Traffic Officer O. D. Nichols, was fined $10 in the local justice court when he pleaded guilty. Yesterday before Judge Taylor on a charge of operating a motor vehicle with improper license plates.

You must register to vote at the primary May 18. The men live puts to swatting in votes on election day. Register at once with L. C. Garlock at the Chamber of Commerce or at county clerk's office in Medford.

After having been closed for over nine months, the gate which blocked the entrance of automobile into the city reservoir yard on the east side has been opened and cars may now drive on in the evening to take advantage of the show that can be had from this point. Seven high candlepower lights have been installed to illuminate the reservoir yard nearly as brightly as day. The gate was installed last year to prohibit "parking" which was prevalent before the lights were put in.

Green silk wood at summer prices. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Despite the threatening weather, a number of Medford fishermen left for the Rogue river this morning to fish for salmon, of which a good run is reported to have started last week. Several good catches have been reported.

Hospitalizing and smoking. The Phoenix Shop, 424 Medford Rd.

A large number of complaints having been received by the police during the past fortnight, Chief of Police McCloskey today warned Medford quality stores to keep chickens from scratching in gardens of neighbors by keeping the chickens in pens. If this is not done, it is probable that arrests will be made.

See Minor Hanley Bush for cleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay. 526 E. Main, Phone 882.

Mrs. Margaret Kennedy of Seattle, formerly of this city, stopped off here Monday en route to Los Angeles. Mrs. Kennedy visited the Justice of the Peace L. A. Roberts Monday and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of speeding. Meadows was charged by State Traffic Officer C. P. Talent with traveling 70 miles an hour on the Pacific highway Saturday night. Officer Talent pursued him in his new Buick coupe which was "wide open" before Meadows finally stopped, after he had outrun the officer for four miles. Unable to pay his fine, Meadows was ordered committed to the county jail. Officer Talent guaranteed the payment of the fine within 30 days and the young man was released.—Ashland Tidings.

Samuel L. Meadows of Medford was ordered to pay a fine of $15 and costs when he appeared before Justice of the Peace L. A. Roberts Monday and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of speeding. Meadows was charged by State Traffic Officer C. P. Talent with traveling 70 miles an hour on the Pacific highway Saturday night. Officer Talent pursued him in his new Buick coupe which was "wide open" before Meadows finally stopped, after he had outrun the officer for four miles. Unable to pay his fine, Meadows was ordered committed to the county jail. Officer Talent guaranteed the payment of the fine within 30 days and the young man was released.—Ashland Tidings.

Mrs. Porter J. Neff will leave to-night for Portland on a pleasure trip, joining a group of local people at the performances of the Chicago Grand Opera company.

D. T. Heter, west coast representative of Minco Motor Oil company, and well-known baritone artist Constantine KOUL at Council Bluffs, Iowa, is in the city this week on business and pleasure. Mr. Heter will be heard over KMED at 8 o'clock tonight in a courtesy program sponsored by the local chamber of commerce.

The regular weekly meeting of the Legion convention commission will be held on Wednesday night in the future instead of Thursday, to avoid conflict with lodge meetings of the D. P. O. E. Tonight's session, which starts at 7:15 p. m., will be an important one, and a 100 per cent attendance is requested by Chairman McDonald.

Dance Is Postponed

Although the dance was announced to take place tomorrow night, another announcement was made this afternoon that the regular bi-monthly party of the Masonic Dancing club has been postponed for one week. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the event, and the Masonic and Eastern Star Lodge members are promised one of the best parties of the season, with music furnished by a local orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fluhler and daughter, Miss Louise, left this morning for a few days on business and pleasure in Portland. They will take in one or two of the Chicago grand opera performances while there.

Ed Clemens spent several hours at the sheriff's office today investigating the business of the Klamath highway this morning.

Miss Elizabeth Burr, superintendent of rural schools in Jackson county, is spending today visiting the Debener Gap and Central schools in the northern end of the county.

Hemstitching 8¢ per yard. Buttons covered at Handicraft Shop.

Mrs. L. R. Robinson, mother of Gain Robinson, left yesterday evening for her home in Howard City, Mich., after having spent the winter here.

Californians registered at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Maklin and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Helmick of Pasadena, D. P. Coolidge and E. C. Knight of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nieland of Chico, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Matchen of Hollywood, J. O. Green of Sacramento, M. C. Hunter of El Dorado, A. H. High of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fisher, F. E. Bacon, O. E. Dustman, L. A. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schoenfeld and Willard Boggs of San Francisco.

Ed Barron motored down from Ashland yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frederic were seen at Portland Saturday and drove back a new six-cylinder, two-ton International truck to be used in the Valley Fuel yard.

William Vawter left for Portland this morning to attend the Chicago grand opera held in that city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pierce are the parents of boy and girl twins, born at the Community hospital Monday night, one weighing six pounds and three ounces, and the other five pounds and 15 ounces.

Mrs. Walter Dieckey, mother from the Kent orchards yesterday on a shopping and visiting trip.

Secretary C. T. Baker of the local Chamber of Commerce was an attendant at the annual state meeting of Oregon chamber of commerce secretaries being held at Eugene this week.

Walter Dieckey, mother from the Kent orchards yesterday on a shopping and visiting trip.

Spring is here. You can make the money to pay for this place this year.

See Peebler at Swenson & Peebler Furniture Store.

FOR SALE—Piano in first-class condition. 212 Crater Lake Ave.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished apt. A. W. 16th and Lincoln. $25.

FOR RENT—Small furnished modern house, cor. W. 16th and Lincoln.

WANTED—Pedigreed chinchilla rabbits 3 to 8 months old. Write R. Hegner, Gold Hill.

BABY CHICKS—Golden Buff and White Leggs. Thick-necked, Tasseled straills. Black Minnows. 32, 1/2 lbs. Queen. 32, 1/2 lbs. Crested Rocks and Parrot. French Crows. Siberian Chick.

FOR SALE—Willys-Knight Sedan, 1927, mechanically perfect. $75.

FOR RENT—Apartment, partially furnished. Call after 8:30 p. m. 511 Oakdale.

FOR SALE—Boston ball terrier pup. Phone 148, Central Point.

FOR SALE—Silent portable electric sewing machine, reasonable price. Phone 1214 or call 242 N. Front. Before 1 p. m. Thursdays.

FOR SALE—I acre, small, flat, level, gravelly, water, good location. $100. Call or in. Cash or terms. Ed Gleason, Eagle Orchard. Tel. 227-512.

FOR SALE—Boston ball terrier pup. Phone 148, Central Point.

FOR SALE—Silent portable electric sewing machine, reasonable price. Phone 1214 or call 242 N. Front. Before 1 p. m.