HOPE CHEST TO FINANCE CLUB AT BELLEVIEW

BELLEVIEW, March 22.—Mrs. William Grubb and two sons of Reedport, left for their home Sunday evening after spending a few days visiting relatives and friends. The Grubb boys came to Ashland with the Reedport basketball team, of which they are members. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tucker entertained at a dinner Saturday in honor of Mrs. Grubb and her sons. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker of Trail were also guests. After dinner they all attended the old-fashioned dance at the Moose hall.

Miss Mildred Gregory and Miss Flora Collins of Table Rock were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark True on Friday. Miss Mildred is a niece of Mrs. True.

Mrs. Joe Handalls of Belleview has been confined to her home with illness for the past two weeks. She was taken to Medford the first of the week, where she will receive medical attention.

P. S. Anderson and Mrs. Harry Nordwick and two children of Medford were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Merryman on Sunday afternoon.

A jolly picnic party composed of the following named, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gregory of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Scott and son, Stephen, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark True, spent the day on the Klamath highway. The weather was ideal and a pleasant day was enjoyed by all.

Some of the Belleview people who attended the banquet and dance at the Elks temple on Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nell, Mrs. Austin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thomas.

The Belleview P. T. A. met at the school house on Friday evening with a large attendance. A program of the following nature was rendered: March frolic, by Norma Reeder's pupils. Vocal solos by Maxine Emries. Reading by Mr. Bodish, "Why I Love My Flag," reading by Mrs. L. E. Barnes, "Maggie and Jiggy," after the program a social hour was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. John Hesseouer, Mrs. Oscar Martain, Mrs. Bodish and Mrs. Guy Handalls.

The Belleview school was closed on Tuesday in order that the teachers might enjoy visiting day at the Ashland schools.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Barnes entertained at a turkey dinner on Sunday. Those who enjoyed the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wilcox and son, Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hesseouer, Mrs. Vera Pitcher, E. B. Shaw and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, and their daughter, Frances.

Mr. and Mrs. Bench of Medford were callers at the Barnes home on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Parker and her mother, Camilla Owen, were in Medford Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Gilmore and family entertained a crowd of friends at a St. Patrick's party Saturday evening. Games and music occupied the time until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughter, Marie. Those who enjoyed this pleasant affair were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, Miss Maud Simons, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Merryman, Mrs. Richard Sheideler, Roy and Donald Metcalf, Ann Kiel, Helen and Louise Sheideler, W. H. A. and Ellen Merryman, both Metcalf and the Gilmore family.

Edwin Dunn purchased the first new Ford sedan that arrived in Ashland.

The Ashland Kiwanis club has made arrangements with the Community club members to hold their April meeting on ladies' night at the Belleview club house, on April 24, with the ladies of the community serving a dinner at 6:30 o'clock. The remainder of the evening will be devoted to whatever amusement the Kiwanis members see fit.

Committees are being planned to take charge of the making of a hope chest. It was decided at the last Community club meeting that this chest be made and chances sold to help finance the building fund of the club house. It will probably take several months to get the articles all completed that will be in this chest. A number of very elaborate things have already been planned by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wade left for Dunsmuir Wednesday after spending some time visiting friends and relatives in Ashland and Belleview. Mrs. Wade was formerly Miss Bess York.

Oscar Low installed a new surge milking machine in his dairy barn this week and reports very favorable to the splendid work of the machine.

Robert Gordon, who just recently purchased the Tinker farm east of Ashland, is very busy preparing his fields for spring planting of grain, also gladiolus bulbs, which he expects to raise quite extensively. Mr. Gordon has two tractors and plows running long hours in order to get the soil ready for planting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Metcalf of Klamath Falls were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Metcalf on Sunday. After dinner they all went for a drive over to Hornbrook.

A crowd of girls spent Sunday on a hiking trip to Hornbrook. They enjoyed a picnic lunch and gathered wild flowers. Those who made the trip were Ellen Merryman, Ruth Metcalf, Alma Keaton, Irma Crowson, Helen and Dolie Kanasto, Jerry Crowson and Jean Wolcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson, who have been living on the Walker place on Neil Creek, are moving their family to Ashland, where they will make their home.

WAGNER CREEK

Tru-Bake Crackers Fit the Bite—"Eat" Neater

Compare the two kinds of crackers illustrated. The square shape Blue Ribbon Cracker is obsolete — discarded — showers crumbs — is messy.

The slenderized Tru-Bake Cracker fits the bite. Nips off clean. "Eats" neater. Is daintier.

Order from your grocer. Let Tru-Bake Crackers tickle your taste.
