Our B. Y. P. U. meetings at 6:30 p. m. are a source of joy and inspiration to everybody who comes. Meeting in these groups with live leaders, and discussing live topics, all young people up to 99 years or so, find inspiration and pleasure there. The worship services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. will be broadcasted on Sunday. Pastor Eaton will be the speaker at both services, using in the morning the topic, "Adventures in Living," and in the evening "The Homing Instinct." The choir and young people's glee club will co-operate with the church orchestra in making the evening program one of special interest, in addition to the big congregational singing characteristic of this church. Try our welcome.

The Federated Churches of Central Point, Ore. J. M. Johnson, pastor. In the Bible school tomorrow we study the subject "Jesus Proclaims the Kingdom—Review for the Quarter." will be the topic for discussion at the Christian Endeavor society at 8:30 p. m. Miss Georgia Currier will be the leader. The young people of the church are invited to come and enjoy this fine social and devotional hour. On Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock the subject of the study and discussion will be "God as Revealed in the New Testament." Bring your bibles and any version descriptive of this theme.

First Christian Church Ninth and Oakdale streets, Garman E. Moll, minister. Office and pastor's study in the church. Phone 1997. Residence phone 1327.

Last Sunday there were 453 in Sunday school, large crowds for the preaching services and four more added to the church membership. We want 500 in Bible school next Sunday and 600 on Easter. The Christian Endeavor groups are also very much alive and many young people are in these services; others are wanted. "Test our welcome."

Morning worship and communion at 10:55. Sermon subject, "Wearing the Marks of the Master." Popular evening service of worship a 7:30. There will be a "songfest," special music, a happy fellowship, and the sermon subject is "The Walk With God." At the close of the sermon another baptismal service will be conducted.

Mid-week service on Wednesday night at 7:30. The meetings are conducted in an unusual manner and are very interesting and helpful. Come and see.

The union pre-Easter consecration services to be conducted jointly by four churches in the city will be held in this church April 1-3. The Sunday services of that week will be held by the pastors in their own churches, but the week nights union meetings will be held. This will be a week of prayer and consecration by all the members of the participating churches. Complete announcement and publicity will appear later. A leadership training school will also be conducted jointly by the churches, beginning April 18.
