

ASHLAND LEGION ENTERTAINMENT DRAWS CROWD

ASHLAND, Mar. 24.—(Special.) The armory was filled to capacity on Thursday evening on the first night of the Legion's two-night entertainment. Attractive booths were placed at advantage to show the fine array of goods placed on display by local merchants.

The first number on the entertainment program was a showing of costumes by the Enders company. Misses Ann Fodor, Dorothy Doherty, Betty Slauson and Mary Louise were the models for this attraction.

The J. C. Penney company made a fine display of ready-to-wear, the garments being shown by Misses Lillian Olson, Helen Cole, June Sherard and Mrs. Hilda Vancor. Miller's Togsery was represented by Marion Frost, Barney Miller, Hod Dunn, John Rucker, Fred Katter, Roy Johnson and Donald Gander.

James Store, with hats from the Hargrave Millinery, made a fine showing with Misses Gertrude Ahlstrom, Bessie McMillan, Claudia Gass, and Mrs. Elsie Churchman serving as models.

The J. H. McGee store featured a fashion sheet and hats were shown from the Sage Millinery. Models from out the book were Cleo Witte, Mrs. H. D. McNair, Mrs. W. D. Jackson and Lillian McMillan.

One of the most delightful features of the program was the delightful program of dances put on by the Eve Henson school of dancing at Medford. Too much praise can scarcely be given the young dancers as their work ran close to the professional mark.

Mrs. A. E. Kinney, Mrs. Emma Oeder and daughter, Miss Lynda, were guests on Saturday of Mrs. T. W. Miles of Medford at her summer home on Rogue river.

Mrs. H. H. Gillette on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. L. Wilks of Portland, Calif., who has been visiting here for some time. Bridge furnished the diversion for the afternoon, following a luncheon which was delightfully served with many Easter suggestions.

Mrs. J. A. McGee was hostess of high score. Mrs. Gerald Venter won second place. Mrs. Dean Scott, Mrs. Dora Proctor and Mrs. Elwood Hedberg received baskets of Easter eggs as consolation for holding low scores at the three tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Hill of Hill, Calif., are visiting with Ashland friends for a few days. They have just returned from an extended visit in southern California.

Dr. J. M. Shaw of Marshfield is visiting for a few days in Ashland with his wife, Dr. Martin L. Shaw, of Ashland, and their son, Marvin Shaw, who is visiting here from Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Billings have returned from a visit to Corvallis. The Parent-Teacher council and the Civic club will entertain on the evening of March 30th, honoring the teachers of the Ashland public schools and the Southern Oregon Normal school. The reception was planned for an earlier date in the school year, but was postponed on account of the quarantine for infantile paralysis.

Mrs. E. M. Berg has been general chairman of the committee on arrangements which has planned for a program of varied interest.

Miss Edith Dodge will leave Sunday morning to return to Eugene, where she will enroll for the spring term at the University of Oregon.

Vernor Carson, a major in civil engineering at O. S. C., is spending the spring vacation at the home of his parents on Iowa street.

John Fowler of McMinnville came to Ashland on Thursday to visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Fowler is a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Tilton.

George Love is home from the University of Oregon to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Love in the Valley View district.
