Sheriff Ralph Jennings plans to leave tomorrow for Seattle, Wash., where he is to appear as a witness before the federal grand jury which is to consider the case of James O'Neil, a suspect arrested recently in Seattle for the burglary of the Eagle Point postoffice.

O'Neil is a federal prisoner and was the object of a long search, six months. C. L. Warnock Sr., among the University of Oregon students who will leave today or tomorrow to resume studies at Eugene are Evelyn DeW, Marion Van Seoyoc, Vernon Coverstone, George Lowe, Ned Wold, Joyce Maddox, Jasper Reynolds, Bob Hammond, Kramer Deuel, Clara Green, Margery Kelly and John Hamrell.

Due to the reason that the peak of the season has apparently passed, only two bounty warrants for predatory animals were issued yesterday at the county clerk's office. They were issued to R. N. Conley of Butte Falls for two coyotes and W. W. Swain of Hrowsboro for one coyote and one bobcat.

Following a retirement of over six months, C. L. Warnock Sr., yesterday opened a new sandwich shop on East Main street in the Palm building and throughout the day was receiving the best wishes from friends and customers who knew him when he operated a hamburger stand on South Front.

He sold the stand last summer and ever since has been leading a leisurely life. He claims that "a man can't stay idle all the time" and so opened the new shop.
