

Events of the Week in Pictures

INTREPID SAILOR INTO UNKNOWN

The Hon. Elsie Mackay, who dared to attempt an Atlantic crossing by air, England to America, with Captain Walter Hinchliffe.

Whipping Tangle

Because pretty 16-year-old Lorraine Jones, of Kansas City, Kas., returned to high school one morning covered with bruises, her mother, Mrs. Charles Woodside, has been awaiting sentence for beating her daughter, and police and the probate judge have been wondering what action to take. Mrs. Woodside declares she was exercising her "parental prerogative" in whipping Lorraine for disobedience. Mother and daughter are above.

Desires a Million

Miss Katherine Brightbill, of Hummelstown, Pa., desires three-quarters of a million dollars. She doesn't desire it for herself, but for Sweet Briar college, Sweet Briar, Va., where she's treasurer of a new drive for her alma mater.

Changes Her Mind

because it is a woman's prerogative to change her mind, Miss Frances Hopkins, daughter of Col. Frank E. Hopkins, U. S. A., has announced her engagement to Robert Wickes, of Washington, D. C., is off, and her new choice is Lieut. Irving Arthur Duffy, stationed at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., where her father is commandant.

DIES IN RESCUE OF PASSENGERS

William H. Cashman, acting captain of the Manomet Point coast guard station, was one of those who gave his life in the rescue of passengers on the Robert E. Lee, New York-Boston steamer which went on the rocks off Manomet Point, Massachusetts. Brought ashore after a surf boat capsized, Cashman is shown being given a fur coat by a woman. He died a few minutes later from exposure.

Two-Gun Girl

Myrtle Foust, 34, of Logansport, Ind., is a two-gun girl, but nobody has accused her of being a flapper bandit. Garbed as a man, she was arrested, charged with "sticking up" a Logansport artist, and is now behind the bars awaiting trial. Myrtle is shown above in her dual role.

Sets Loop Record

Lieutenant D. W. Tompkinson, U. S. navy aircraft squadrons, has set a record for outside loops, negotiating four in a row over San Diego, Cal., the first at 10,000 feet.

Killed by Buzzard

Striking a flying buzzard while in a test flight at Octal, Nicaragua; Captain William G. Byrd was killed when his parachute failed to open when he jumped from a height of 250 feet. The buzzard flew against a wing strut of the plane, breaking it and causing the plane to collapse.

Farming Does Pay

To persons who declare that farming is not a paying business, Ed Lopp, 19, of Jones, Okla., rises up in protest. In seven years he has won 460 ribbons and $1,150 in cash prizes for his exhibits at various fairs. He has shown 37 different farm crops, three breeds of chickens, pigs and sheep.

Finds Unknown City

Robert J. Casey, author, explorer and lecturer, told ship reporters upon his arrival in New York, that in his travels through the dense jungles of Indo-China, he discovered the ruins of an immense uninhabited city. Because his native guides deserted him and a deep moat infested with crocodiles surrounded the ruins he was unable to make any observations.

Says He Buried Girl

Wallace Andrews, 23, serving a six-year term in the Oklahoma penitentiary for burglary, says that Myrl Sizer, missing Mount Vernon, Iowa, school teacher, committed suicide following a quarrel with him and that he buried the body near Pierce, Neb. A search has failed to disclose the grave. Miss Sizer disappeared Nov. 5, 1926. Andrews was received at the penitentiary Oct. 16, 1927.

Problem for League

Workers destroying some of the machine guns seized in the little village of St. Gothard on the Austro-Hungarian frontier, and subsequently sold as scrap iron by the Hungarian government against warnings of the League of Nations. The three governments comprising the Little Entente demanded an investigation of the "affair," causing a problem for the league council.

Valuable, Nameless

Bred on a Canadian chicken farm, petted, doctored, fed, massaged, worth $500, and with ancestors high up socially, as far as chickendom goes, this prize rooster, owned by Albert M. Simpson, of St. Clairsville, O., without a name. He's one of three brothers of Masie, world's record egg producing hen of British Columbia. Simpson is casting about for a name for his beauty.

LEADERS IN FIGHT ON DISEASE

Dr. Frank Smithies, left, of Chicago, outgoing president of the American College of Physicians, congratulating Dr. Charles F. Martin, of Montreal, Quebec, new president, at twelfth annual clinical session of the college, held in New Orleans, La.

FORDS AS GUESTS OF THE EDISONS

Two of America's best known families snapped together at Thomas A. Edison's estate at Fort Myers, Fla., where the "electrical wizard" is wintering, and where Henry Ford and Mrs. Ford were recent visitors. Left to right in the photo are Henry Ford, Mrs. Ford, Thomas Edison and Mrs. Edison.

NEW U. S.-MEXICO BRIDGE OPENED

Another new international bridge, crossing the Rio Grande from Presidio, Tex., to Ojajango, Mexico, has been completed. This photo shows a view of the bridge, which is the only span for 250 miles in either direction in the center of the Big Bend country of Texas.

Flu Hits Royalty

An epidemic of influenza, sweeping Japan, is no respecter of persons or rank. In the royal family the Princess Hissa, six-month-old daughter of the emperor, is dead, following an attack, and the emperor himself has been convalescing from the disease. Photos above are the latest of the emperor and the empress, and have just been distributed to schools and government offices.

No Campaign Fund!

Louis J. Wardlaw, Fort Worth, Tex., attorney and ranchman, has announced his candidacy for the state's governorship, declaring that he will pay his own campaign expenses and refusing all contributions from friends. Wardlaw has declared himself in favor of a reward for criminals the same as predatory animals, all the schools money will allow, and reduction of taxes.

Mellon Testifies

Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon is shown testifying before the senate oil investigating committee, at Washington. He was called to shed further light on his refusal to accept $50,000 in Liberty bonds from the Continental Trading company, for the Republican campaign fund in 1923. Directly in back of Secretary Mellon is William M. Butler, Republican national committee chairman, also called before the committee.

Sails Ocean to Dine

Senator Andre Honnorat, former French minister of education and fine arts, now head of the Cito Universitaire Foundation, crossed the ocean just to attend a dinner in his honor in New York and to confer with an American committee that is raising $400,000 to build a dormitory for American students in Paris.

HARDING'S FATHER TOURS COAST

Dr. George O. Harding, eight, father of the late President Warren Harding, snapped at San Diego, Cal., while on a tour of the Pacific coast. He's shown with General M. O. Terry, retired, who was a schoolmate. Dr. Harding now is 84.

Henderson Pennington, 78, of Huntington, W. Va., believes himself to have been the youngest enlisted soldier in the Union army during the Civil war. He was a bugler at the age of 12. Below is a reproduction of an old daguerreotype showing him in his uniform.

Bonnet in Ring

Here is the latest of Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the former governor of Pennsylvania, who, according to an announcement in a Pennsylvania paper, will run for congress from the Fifteenth Pennsylvania district.