 the Free Methodist church gave an inspiring address, taking as his subject God's willingness to hear any answer to true prayer. Rev.
 McDonald closed the meeting with prayer.
 The next meeting will be held April 12th. Mother's meeting April 26th.
 April Fool Party
 Pocatontas Lodge
 The "April Fool" party which the Pocatontas lodge is giving Saturday evening, March 31st at the Redmen hall promises to be one of the gayest and most entertaining parties of the season.
 There will be a three-act comedy in which the characters have been exceptionally well chosen. Features dancing and comic stunts will afford their share of merriment.
 The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing.
 Each one is to come dressed as foolish as possible as there will be a prize awarded the person wearing the funniest costume. There will also be good eats. Come and bring your bag of pennies.
 Celebrate Birthday

 Jackson Co. Council Meeting April 7th.
 Jackson County Council of P. T.
 A. will meet at Jacksonville, April 7. This is the annual meeting with reports from all associations in county membership and election of officers as well as a good program to fill the day. Parents in the association are requested to bring the teachers as their guests to augment the friendly relation ostered by the P. T. A. Delegates should be elected or appointed as one for president or alternate, one for secretary or for parliament or alternate, one for secretary or alternate and one for every ten members having paid state dues. Visitors are cordially invited. The high school mothers of the Jacksonville P. T. A. are furnishing the noon luncheon planning to use the proceeds for beautifying the high school department.

 Willamette Glee Club
 Honored At Luncheon
 Miss Emily Brown entertained at luncheon, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frazer Irwin, on Saturday, honoring the club of the Willamette University glee club.
 Other guests, who are home from the university for the spring vacation who attended this affair included Misses Elinor Palma, Dorothy Young, Mary Jo Wagner.
 The glee club will be presented in concert Monday night at the Methodist church. They appeared in Ashland Saturday evening.
 Miss Brown is a sophomore at the university.
 Copco Forum Party
 Next Saturday
 Members of the Copco Forum, the employes club of the California Oregon Power company, are looking forward to the big Forum party scheduled for next Saturday, March 31. Entertainment for the evening will be varied in character, ranging from a "regal old-time" minstrel show to dancing and cards. There will also be a short business meeting to elect a new president, who will take the place of Don Run-yard, resigned.
 A big attendance from the outside divisions of the company's system, as well as from the general offices in this city, is anticipated by those in charge of the affair.
 Rotary "Charter Night"
 At Oakland
 A large number of local Rotarians and "Rotary Ann" attended the banquet and dance given as a part of the "charter night" celebration of the new Ashland Rotary club last night.
 The evening's program started with a banquet at the Elks temple, followed by the presentation of the charter by District Governor Henry Manny of Seattle.
 Speeches were made by representative of so many Rotary clubs throughout the state, the majority of which were represented at the meeting. Following the banquet dancing was enjoyed in the Elks ballroom until a late hour, the affair continuing until midnight. It is estimated that nearly 500 people attended this big Rotary event.
 Marjorie Hon Hostess
 Triangle Club
 Miss Marjorie Hon was hostess to the Triangle club of the First Christian church at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Heckman on Beal lane.
 The study was proceeded by a short business session in charge of the president.
 The leader, Ed Anderson, presented the subject "Heracles to Japan," stressing the importance of acquiring a knowledge of the pioneer work in the different mission fields. Interesting talks and papers relative to the subject were given by Nevile Hiden, Eleanor Boyd, Thelma Lyons and Dorothy Eads.
 The names of six new members were added to the roll, making the Medford Triangle with a membership of thirty-six, the largest society in the state.
 Jackson Parent Teachers
 Have Meeting Friday
 The regular meeting of the Jackson School P. T. A. was held in room 19 of the building at 3:00 p. m. Friday afternoon.
 The music was provided by the pupils of the four A grade, with their teacher, Miss Jeanne Mac-Niven directing.
 Reports of committees were heard and accepted.
 Then the meeting was turned over to the ladies of the Medford Humane society who explained the necessity, functions and plans of the Medford order. The association voted to support the endeavors of the newly organized society and Mrs. Kroschel agreed to become an ardent supporter of the order if there should be any likelihood of solving the mystery of her garbage can. The silk flag voted to remain in Miss Jessie Mac-Niven's room, also that April was the best month for the Daddy's night and, lastly,
 a plenty of tea,
 for twenty-three.
 Wednesday Study Club
 Have Meeting Wednesday
 "Family Life and Culture of South America" and "Religion of Latin America" were the topics presented at the last meeting of the Wednesday Study club on March 21st.
 Mrs. H. G. Wortman gave a very comprehensive survey of the home life of the people of the different South American countries, especially in its relation to women and children and the improved conditions of the present time. A brief glimpse of social life in the larger cities was also given.
 Mrs. Robert Hammond's concise story of the ancient religions of Latin America was of unusual interest. Vivid word pictures of peculiar rites and customs, used in the various forms of worship, were shown and the origin of different beliefs told. Recent excavations give evidence to the truth of the practice of some of the sacrificial rites.

 The next meeting of the club will be on April 4th at 2:30 o'clock.
 Greater Medford Club
 Luncheon and Lecture.
 In keeping with the delightful spring season now upon us, Medford residents will be given an excellent opportunity to learn of floral and garden culture next Monday afternoon, March 26th, at Hotel Holland, when Prof. A. L.
 Peck, noted authority on these subjects, and professor of Landscape Gardening at Oregon state college, Corvallis will speak on "City Growth and City Planning" before the Greater Medford club, who have been instrumental in bringing Prof. Peck to Medford as a part of their work along civic lines of endeavor.
 There will be the usual 1 o'clock luncheon and business meeting, followed by the lecture. Mr. A.
 J. McDonough, lyric tenor and Mrs. Rawley Moore, concert pianist, will present a short musical program of interesting numbers appropriate for the spring season.
 Mrs. C. C. Furnas is chairman of the day. Phone your reservations for the luncheon before 10 a. m. Monday morning to Mrs. C.
 D. Thompson, 1173-Y. Members may bring guests and the lecture by Prof. Peck at 2:30 p. m., in the hotel parlors is open to the public.
 A large attendance is expected to be present.
 Masonic Dancing Party
 Event of This Week.
 Next Thursday evening the Masonic Dancing club will hold another of its winter-season dancing parties at the Medford Masonic temple. This promises to be one of the most brilliant events of the season. The committee is making arrangements to accommodate a record crowd of Masons, Eastern Star members and their friends and DeMolay members. This week's dance has been planned for Thursday night since it has been found that more dancers affiliated with Masonic and Eastern Star organizations can attend on that night.
 After next Thursday night's party, there will be three more dances under the auspices of the Masonic Dancing club before the summer season. One of these will have a hard time party at the Elks' picnic grounds and another is planned for the Fair Grounds pavilion.
 A committee of Masons will assist the regular Masonic Dancing club committee in distributing tickets for Thursday's dance, which will assure a good crowd.
 The hall will be attractively decorated and refreshments will be served.
 Piano Recital
 Enjoyable Event
 A piano recital was given by some of the pupils of Ida E. Wood and Florence Gray on Tuesday evening, March 20th, at the home 228 North Oakdale avenue. The

 Medford Garden Club
 Special Meeting Wednesday
 The Medford Garden club held its regular meeting at Hotel Medford March 20th. There were twenty-five members present.
 A letter was read from the Better Flowers Magazine stating that Ray Gill of Portland would lecture to the club Wednesday, April 4th.
 As the Garden club is now affiliated with the State Garden club, these lecturers sent out by the magazine will come regularly to southern Oregon the first of the month covering Grants Pass, Kerby and Medford on the one trip.
 Members will please notice this for that reason, in the future all regular meetings will come on the first Wednesday of the month.
 This will avoid the calling of a special meeting and also give us timely garden advice earlier.
 Grants Pass is putting on an all day Daffodil show Monday, March 24th and on the afternoon of that day Herman Bedraff will give a lecture. It is hoped there will be a good crowd of Medford fans present.
 Miss Snedcor, chairman of highway planting reported the hearty support of land owners and of the Realty Boards of Grants Pass and Ashland.

 The rock garden work at the playground will be finished this week by Mr. Palmer, all of the plants being donated by members and others interested. Special thanks is due Mr. Chastain who has been very generous in his contribution.
 Basketball Dinner
 Event of the Week Central Point high school basketball team was honored with a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bolds at Woodlawn orchard Thursday evening. The dining room was gaily decorated for the occasion with the high school colors, red and blue. Over the table hung a basket ball long streamers from the ceiling were caught at the side lights which were covered with red shades. The baskets were marked with tiny basket balls and place cards. The dinner was started with bon bon which furnished a paper cup, fortune, and prize. Yellow candles and flowers filled the center of the table. Toasts, songs and stories were enjoyed during the dinner. A large birthday cake with 50 candles was presented to the host in honor of his birthday, and all joined in wishing him many happy returns of the day.
 After dinner a pleasant evening was spent at 500. Mr. Young had high score and carried off the prize.
 Those who shared the pleasure of the evening were Messrs. Donald Faber, Thoro Brown, George Elden, Carl Coleman, Howard Detrick, George Johnson, Edward Bolds, Coach H. S. Erickson, H. P.
 Jewett, Clyde Young of Ashland, and the host, C. E. Bolds.
 The evening will be remembered by the team as a happy ending to this season of basketball ball at Central Point high school.
 Miss Merle Hedgpeath and Miss Gloria Bolds assisted the hostess.
 Concert Tomorrow
 The Hearse is the title of the special by which carries the Willamette Women's Glee Club from place to place on an 800-mile southern tour. The name of the vehicle does not indicate the temperament of the twenty-three members of the club, but has been given because the big stage, no matter where it goes, always carries a "rough box" of conventional "At every stand," the drivers of the "hearse" carefully hoist the "rough box" to the ground, and the glee club is established, for within the rough packing case is "Mary," the leading lady in the feature number on the program.
 "Mary" is the six-foot marimba which is played by Miss Edith Finley, soloist with the club.
 Miss Finley, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Finley of Salem, and a member of a family of musicians, is fast gaining recognition for her rendition of melodies which are familiar to every audience.
 The program of the glee club will be concluded by the informal presentation by the club of several Willamette songs which have been acclaimed in the Northwest for their exceptional beauty as campus compositions. Each of these songs has been adjudged as the best produced in its year by the flour classes in the annual inter-class song contest, Freshman Glee, which for twenty years has been the climax of every springtime at Willamette.
 The Willamette Women's Glee Club will give a concert at the First Methodist church Monday evening, March 26th.
 O. S. C. Band Concert
 Popular Event
 The Oregon State College concert band presented a verified program of band music of classical, marches and popular numbers the general business session a guessing contest was very much enjoyed. During the social hour, Mrs. Heine assisted by Mrs. J. J.

 Malson served delicious refreshments of fruit salad, cake, coffee.
 The regular afternoon meeting of Golden Link Bible class was held at the home of Mrs. H. F.
 Cope, 16 Quince street, Thursday, March 22nd. After the business session Mrs. W. D. Roberts gave a talk on "The Right Motive." Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. H. F. Cope and Mrs.
 Justin Judy. A large birthday cake was served in honor of several members whose birthdays fall in March. The hostess presented each of them a basket of pansy plants.
 The services of the Baptist church are to be broadcasted today over KMED. Musical numbers of high order will be offered at both morning and evening worship.
 At 11:00 a. m., Mrs. D. V. Platt, who has frequently been heard over the radio, will sing; and in the evening, members will be offered by the choir and glee club and the church orchestra. A duet will also be sung by the Misses "Mary" Norris and Edith Stump.
 Dr. Eaton, the pastor, will speak on "The Homing Instinct." The ladies of the Bible class of the Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors, Wednesday, March 28th for their regular monthly class party and business meeting.
 This being the annual date for the election of officers for the coming year all ladies belonging to the church will be invited to come in time for luncheon at 12:45 bringing a covered dish for the occasion. Let this be a real event in the history of this class and all come prepared to enjoy the blessings of spiritual good fellowship which will prevail.
 The president, Mrs. Dyan and teacher, Mrs. Warner both request a good attendance and announce that much business will come before the assembled class.
 The subjects of sermons both morning and evening at the Presbyterian church today will be in preparation for the Easter session. "The Crosses at the Cross" will be the evening theme at which time Miss Ruth Lawrence who is spending the spring vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Lawrence, will sing a special number, "The Good Shepherd," by Heysler.
 At the morning service, Edna Effert Isaacs will sing the contralto solo "A Voice in the Wilderness," by Scott in addition to the quartet, "The Easter Session." "The Crosses at the Cross" will be the evening theme. "The Suffering Savior" will be the sermon theme. The numbers on the pipe organ played by Miss Auna Lawrence substitute organist, add greatly to the inspiring atmosphere of the services.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Teachers and Workers council of the Methodist church, South was held at the home of Dr. Frank Roberts, 23 North Orange on Friday night.
 The meeting was presided over by Dr. Roberts, Sunday school superintendent. The motive of these meetings are to discuss the business of the B. T. U. class which requires a standard school in every way. The members are all required to study a certain number of books each year. Last year the Sunday school of the Methodist church, South in Medford was the only one in the northwest conference to meet the requirements of the B. T. U. type.
 The spiritual training of the children is the most important consideration of all the teachers.
 At these meetings, R. Roberts always instructs the teachers to keep this consideration foremost at all times. It was decided to purchase an American flag, and a Christian flag for the church. The Sunday school has a novel way of raising a fund to purchase books for a library. Each Sunday each child brings one cent. In the last year a sum of $27 has been collected in this way. A committee was appointed to get advice from headquarters as to the best literature to purchase.
 There was a general discussion as to ways and means of entertaining the pastors, and their wives, and the official delegates that will be here to attend the district conference to be held here in April.
 Several new officers were elected.
 The meeting adjourned. This is a live, wide awake Sunday school.
 New members are always welcome and parents
