

Local and Personal

All the ranger and other positions in Crater National park for the coming Crater Lake season have been filled, except the labor positions, which will not be filled for about two months yet.

Smudge oil for sale $1.00 per barrel, you furnish container, Ashland Creamery, Ashland, Ore. 11

Work commenced this morning on King street, to prepare for an early paving. The present work includes the building of concrete curbs, grading and the installation of sewer and water connections.

What promises to be one of the social events of the season is the benefit dance to be given by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night. Will Barton and his radio orchestra, who have just completed a tour of California cities, will feature a number of novelty numbers new to southern Oregon dance lovers.

Katherine Fabrick has resumed her studies at the Southern Oregon Normal, after spending the spring vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fabrick.

Special sale prices from now until Easter at the Emory Lou Hat Shoppe in M. M. Store, Marcellous values priced $1.25, 42.95 and 90 cents to select from. Kids hats $1.25 and up. 11

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include P. H. Hotchkiss of Chicago, F. Hamilton of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson of Vancouver, B. C., and A. D. Curtis of Orin, Ida.

Automobile Blue Book, 1928 edition for Pacific coast and National parks, $1.00 at Swen's.

A. C. Hubbard is spending today in the Grants Pass district, transacting business.

Mr. Mills is making his regular call at the Emma Cline Shop, April 5, 6, 7. Your choice of Neale Culline, LeMur, Shalton and Leon oil waves. His work is well known here, so make your appointments early. Only $2.75. Emma Cline Shop, Liberty Hill, Phone 424. 11

That the former element will organize through the various granges of the state to resist any attempt to change the name of Oregon Agricultural college to Oregon State college is the announcement made by A. L. Morris of St. Helens, Ore., member of the Pomona grange of Columbia county, and active in the state organization, who is authorizing for the statement that the Columbia county granges have initiated a statewide movement to balk such a proposal becoming effective by official action of the board of regents. This has been communicated to the various granges of the state and is receiving endorsement.

Much interest is being displayed in the benefit dance to be held at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night by the American Legion. Will Barton and his orchestra, who have just completed a tour of California cities, will feature a number of novelty numbers new to southern Oregon dance lovers.

See Elinor Hanley Bush for re-cleaned alfalfa seed and bulbed hay, 824 E. Main, Phone 502. 2321*

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office to Harry Eversizer, D. H. Newton, Grace Hull, Charles Fisher and William Godfrey of Medford, Lydia Clark of Kenna Valley, E. V. Hollenbeck and Joe Brown of Central Point, W. L. Welch and Guy Good of Ashland and O. C. Dorothy and James Mulson of Jacksonville.

You'll like our evening dinners, 50c and 65c, Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2321*

Deputy State Fire Marshal Clyde Warren arrived here yesterday from Salem to spend several days in Medford and Central Point on special investigation work.

Try our o-o-u-d-a-y merchants' lunch, 40c and 50c, Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2321*

Eugene Masons are planning a country-wide meeting of Masons in Eugene late in April or early in May. It was announced Monday McKenzie River lodge will sponsor the meeting.

Night and day service, Lewis Super Service. 6*

Harry Fellett of Griffin creek transacted business in Medford this morning, and left for his ranch shortly after noon.

Best Utah Coal, Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

All through Lent we are carrying

Hot Cross Buns

as a regular item of our stock of breads and pastries which is the most complete in Southern Oregon.

Fluhrer's
THE COLONIAL BAKERY
300 OREGON'S FINEST BAKERS

California registered at Medford hotels include V. E. Stebbins of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lashoe of San Jose, Mrs. G. E. Temple of Hollywood, Fred White of Los Angeles and P. V. Boyard of San Francisco.

An exceptionally fine floor, superb music and colorful decorations promise to make the benefit dance of the American Legion Saturday night one of the dance events of the season. Other features are being planned by the committee in charge.

Twenty-nine out of the state cars registered here yesterday with the local state traffic bureau in the Chamber of Commerce building.

Special pre-Easter sale at the Emory Lou Hat Shoppe in M. M. Store. A special purchase of hats makes it possible for us to offer these money-saving prices to you.

Joe Gorman is the recipient of many challenges lately. The last is from Bob McIntyre of Portland, who was in Grants Pass last Saturday in person to deliver his challenge. McIntyre, while only 22 years of age, has a list of 51 fights of which he has lost 12 and scored 22 knockouts. He has fought some of the best known men in the game on the coast and as far east as Chicago. McIntyre worked out with Frankie Monroe, one of his sparring partners, Saturday in Bob Quirk's gymnasium. The opinion was that McIntyre was a very worthy opponent of Joe Gorman.

That the former element will organize through the various granges of the state to resist any attempt to change the name of Oregon Agricultural college to Oregon State college is the announcement made by A. L. Morris of St. Helens, Ore., member of the Pomona grange of Columbia county, and active in the state organization, who is authorizing for the statement that the Columbia county granges have initiated a statewide movement to balk such a proposal becoming effective by official action of the board of regents. This has been communicated to the various granges of the state and is receiving endorsement.

The second marriage license issued to a colored couple here at the county clerk's office during the past year was issued yesterday afternoon to James A. Strickland, 42, of Anderson, Calif., and Willie May Hooker, 21, of Redding, Calif. They were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. E. P. Lawrence. Strickland is a farmer and the bride gave her occupation as that of a domestic servant.

Follow the crowd, 56 miles from Medford on the new highway. Family style chicken dinners, $1.00. Log Cabin Inn, 1/2 mile south of Selma, Ore. 234

Bankers of the northern Oregon Bankers association met last evening at the Redwoods Hotel, Grants Pass. Many bankers from the cities included in the association were present. The meeting was given more to entertainment than to business.

Early Sunvale seed potatoes, 2c a pound. C. C. Hartley, Phone 9-P-21. 7

Crater Lake Guild will hold its April meetings on the third and fifth Mondays, because of the pro-Easter services during the first week. The meeting on April 16th will be with Mrs. Elizabeth Burr, call Mrs. M. C. Chapman at 122 1/2 E. Main, where she will see the transportation provided for all. If you are going and give your own car, please call Mrs. Chapman so she will know the number of cars available.

An active committee of men and women from the American Legion and Auxiliary are devoting considerable time and effort in preparing for the benefit dance to be held at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night. Will Barton and his radio orchestra will furnish the music for the gala occasion.

Mrs. C. A. Bennett of Kings highway and her small granddaughter were business and pleasure visitors in the city this morning.

Colvig Drugs, next to the Rialto theater, open every night and Sunday. Phone 816. Free delivery. 2301*

One of the best drills in months was reported today by Captain Carl V. Tengwald, captain of the local unit of the Oregon National Guard, following the regular drill last night, when 32 guard members were present. Captain Tengwald added that a number of new recruits are to be enlisted this week and that indications for a full quota in the unit are good. Following last night's drill, the guard members were surprised at the "chicken feed" at the 21k's temple.

For dance orchestra, call 875. 232*

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schetter, Frank E. Grady, Wm. F. Christ, H. J. Flournoy, A. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Blinn, O. C. Phillips, T. P. Miller, Wm. Swallow, Fred C. Bates, C. L. Lindsay, W. H. Adams, M. H. Smith, J. A. Fossman, Sam E. Lane, W. J. Matthews, J. H. Gould, Fred Jeannette, Robert Harkley, Priscilla Tibbitt, E. E. Tibbitt and Lynn Jones.

Colvig Drugs, next to the Rialto theater, open every night and Sunday. Phone 816. Free delivery. 2301*

E. M. Wilson, expert accountant, left yesterday for Grants Pass where he will spend a couple of weeks, auditing the books of the city and Jacksonville county.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

Several carloads of grapes are still enamped at an auto camp at Central Point, where they arrived last Sunday, and indications are that they will probably spend the remainder of the week there. The grapes are on route south and say they are stopping because of reports of roads being closed in northern California.

A number of out-of-town visitors are expected to attend the public benefit dance which will be held in the Oriental Gardens Saturday night by the American Legion. A special orchestra has been secured by the committee and an exceptionally large crowd is expected to attend.

H. L. Howell, George Wertz, J. R. Kennedy and Mrs. Williams of Grants Pass attended the meeting of the valley poultry association in Medford yesterday.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

A report received this morning by local relatives of Leo Caster, former Medford resident, now in Pasco, Wash., indicates that his condition is growing steadily worse, following a recent operation for gonorrhea and a complication of ailments. His sister, Mrs. J. W. Pruitt of Medford, is at his bedside, having left here over a week ago. A brother, Otto Caster of Eagle Point, is also present.

Every man and woman over 21 years old who has resided in the state six months prior to the primary, May 28, is entitled to vote, but must register at once. Anyone in the county can register at county clerk's office, Medford residents register at Chamber of Commerce or county clerk's office. If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for one coyote.

Someone may be interested in knowing that they can save $105 on their new piano. A Robert M. Cable beautiful burled walnut case, only a short time, has been returned to the Palmer Music House. By acting quickly you can have this month's payments. Call at the store for full details. 7*

"Do the best I can," is the slogan used by J. G. Love, well known Central Point orchardist, when he filed yesterday at the county clerk's office for the republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Love owns the Snowy Butte orchards and has resided in Jackson county for more than ten years.

Plant perennially new, large selection to choose from, reasonably priced. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Phone 452-L-2. 269

Harold Wing of Dodge City, Kans., accompanied by Charles Dotson, is spending a short time on a visit with his brother, Charles A. Wing, of this city. The two visitors were formerly interested in mining and cleaning business in Dodge City and are planning to make permanent headquarters here.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Fred (Doc) Jeanette of Portland, who was in Medford several months over a year ago, is spending several days here on business and visiting old friends. He was connected with Tilly's orchestra, which played here during a summer season.

Films in at 9 p. m. out at 2 p. m. Swen's, master photo finishers. 7*

Orchardists in the Willow Springs district are all ready for the annual spring smudging. The Carson, Hoover, Stevenson, Porter and Hammond orchards have placed new burners for briquets, and Mr. Clements, who lately purchased the Clarke place, unloaded a car of briquets several days ago.—Ashland Tidings.

Three pianos for rent, Palmer Music House. 12*

Although he was entirely prepared to leave this forenoon by train for Seattle, where he was to appear before a federal grand jury investigating the case of James O'Neil charged with the burglary and robbery of the Eagle Post-Office, Sheriff J. W. Jennings postponed before train time that the case had been postponed until next Monday.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

High water in Bear creek is blamed for damage reported to have been suffered by a large rhubarb patch in the Tolo section last Monday. The waters of the creek are reported to have descended through an orchard, overturning a large number of smudge pots and carrying the soil over the rhubarb plants. The ground was also covered with the crude oil, after the waters had receded. The patch is owned by Otto Bohner, who operates two large greenhouses on Portland avenue in this city.

Whit Barton and his orchestra, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMEM, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music for the public benefit dance to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Among the state of Washington guests at Medford hotels are J. L. Tellig of Spokane, Mrs. F. G. Horton of Vancouver, Mrs. James King of Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Bremerton, Miss Elsie Nalty of Hoquiam, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carbery of Aberdeen, E. T. Cleveland of Oak Harbor and Ordelia Work, Mrs. R. Reckie and Miss Garnette St. Germain of Seattle.

Wells Taxi, 23c. Phone 25. 4*

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Warren Hamlin, Kathryn Sweney and Lee Greenleaf are among students at the Oregon Agricultural college who did not return there to resume studies, following the spring vacation.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for one coyote.

Someone may be interested in knowing that they can save $105 on their new piano. A Robert M. Cable beautiful burled walnut case, only a short time, has been returned to the Palmer Music House. By acting quickly you can have this month's payments. Call at the store for full details. 7*

"Do the best I can," is the slogan used by J. G. Love, well known Central Point orchardist, when he filed yesterday at the county clerk's office for the republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Love owns the Snowy Butte orchards and has resided in Jackson county for more than ten years.

Plant perennially new, large selection to choose from, reasonably priced. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Phone 452-L-2. 269

Harold Wing of Dodge City, Kans., accompanied by Charles Dotson, is spending a short time on a visit with his brother, Charles A. Wing, of this city. The two visitors were formerly interested in mining and cleaning business in Dodge City and are planning to make permanent headquarters here.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Fred (Doc) Jeanette of Portland, who was in Medford several months over a year ago, is spending several days here on business and visiting old friends. He was connected with Tilly's orchestra, which played here during a summer season.

Films in at 9 p. m. out at 2 p. m. Swen's, master photo finishers. 7*

Orchardists in the Willow Springs district are all ready for the annual spring smudging. The Carson, Hoover, Stevenson, Porter and Hammond orchards have placed new burners for briquets, and Mr. Clements, who lately purchased the Clarke place, unloaded a car of briquets several days ago.—Ashland Tidings.

Three pianos for rent, Palmer Music House. 12*

Although he was entirely prepared to leave this forenoon by train for Seattle, where he was to appear before a federal grand jury investigating the case of James O'Neil charged with the burglary and robbery of the Eagle Post-Office, Sheriff J. W. Jennings postponed before train time that the case had been postponed until next Monday.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

High water in Bear creek is blamed for damage reported to have been suffered by a large rhubarb patch in the Tolo section last Monday. The waters of the creek are reported to have descended through an orchard, overturning a large number of smudge pots and carrying the soil over the rhubarb plants. The ground was also covered with the crude oil, after the waters had receded. The patch is owned by Otto Bohner, who operates two large greenhouses on Portland avenue in this city.

Whit Barton and his orchestra, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMEM, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music for the public benefit dance to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Among the state of Washington guests at Medford hotels are J. L. Tellig of Spokane, Mrs. F. G. Horton of Vancouver, Mrs. James King of Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Bremerton, Miss Elsie Nalty of Hoquiam, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carbery of Aberdeen, E. T. Cleveland of Oak Harbor and Ordelia Work, Mrs. R. Reckie and Miss Garnette St. Germain of Seattle.

Wells Taxi, 23c. Phone 25. 4*

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Warren Hamlin, Kathryn Sweney and Lee Greenleaf are among students at the Oregon Agricultural college who did not return there to resume studies, following the spring vacation.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for one coyote.

Someone may be interested in knowing that they can save $105 on their new piano. A Robert M. Cable beautiful burled walnut case, only a short time, has been returned to the Palmer Music House. By acting quickly you can have this month's payments. Call at the store for full details. 7*

"Do the best I can," is the slogan used by J. G. Love, well known Central Point orchardist, when he filed yesterday at the county clerk's office for the republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Love owns the Snowy Butte orchards and has resided in Jackson county for more than ten years.

Plant perennially new, large selection to choose from, reasonably priced. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Phone 452-L-2. 269

Harold Wing of Dodge City, Kans., accompanied by Charles Dotson, is spending a short time on a visit with his brother, Charles A. Wing, of this city. The two visitors were formerly interested in mining and cleaning business in Dodge City and are planning to make permanent headquarters here.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Fred (Doc) Jeanette of Portland, who was in Medford several months over a year ago, is spending several days here on business and visiting old friends. He was connected with Tilly's orchestra, which played here during a summer season.

Films in at 9 p. m. out at 2 p. m. Swen's, master photo finishers. 7*

Orchardists in the Willow Springs district are all ready for the annual spring smudging. The Carson, Hoover, Stevenson, Porter and Hammond orchards have placed new burners for briquets, and Mr. Clements, who lately purchased the Clarke place, unloaded a car of briquets several days ago.—Ashland Tidings.

Three pianos for rent, Palmer Music House. 12*

Although he was entirely prepared to leave this forenoon by train for Seattle, where he was to appear before a federal grand jury investigating the case of James O'Neil charged with the burglary and robbery of the Eagle Post-Office, Sheriff J. W. Jennings postponed before train time that the case had been postponed until next Monday.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

High water in Bear creek is blamed for damage reported to have been suffered by a large rhubarb patch in the Tolo section last Monday. The waters of the creek are reported to have descended through an orchard, overturning a large number of smudge pots and carrying the soil over the rhubarb plants. The ground was also covered with the crude oil, after the waters had receded. The patch is owned by Otto Bohner, who operates two large greenhouses on Portland avenue in this city.

Whit Barton and his orchestra, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMEM, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music for the public benefit dance to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Among the state of Washington guests at Medford hotels are J. L. Tellig of Spokane, Mrs. F. G. Horton of Vancouver, Mrs. James King of Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Bremerton, Miss Elsie Nalty of Hoquiam, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carbery of Aberdeen, E. T. Cleveland of Oak Harbor and Ordelia Work, Mrs. R. Reckie and Miss Garnette St. Germain of Seattle.

Wells Taxi, 23c. Phone 25. 4*

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Warren Hamlin, Kathryn Sweney and Lee Greenleaf are among students at the Oregon Agricultural college who did not return there to resume studies, following the spring vacation.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for one coyote.

Someone may be interested in knowing that they can save $105 on their new piano. A Robert M. Cable beautiful burled walnut case, only a short time, has been returned to the Palmer Music House. By acting quickly you can have this month's payments. Call at the store for full details. 7*

"Do the best I can," is the slogan used by J. G. Love, well known Central Point orchardist, when he filed yesterday at the county clerk's office for the republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Love owns the Snowy Butte orchards and has resided in Jackson county for more than ten years.

Plant perennially new, large selection to choose from, reasonably priced. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Phone 452-L-2. 269

Harold Wing of Dodge City, Kans., accompanied by Charles Dotson, is spending a short time on a visit with his brother, Charles A. Wing, of this city. The two visitors were formerly interested in mining and cleaning business in Dodge City and are planning to make permanent headquarters here.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Fred (Doc) Jeanette of Portland, who was in Medford several months over a year ago, is spending several days here on business and visiting old friends. He was connected with Tilly's orchestra, which played here during a summer season.

Films in at 9 p. m. out at 2 p. m. Swen's, master photo finishers. 7*

Orchardists in the Willow Springs district are all ready for the annual spring smudging. The Carson, Hoover, Stevenson, Porter and Hammond orchards have placed new burners for briquets, and Mr. Clements, who lately purchased the Clarke place, unloaded a car of briquets several days ago.—Ashland Tidings.

Three pianos for rent, Palmer Music House. 12*

Although he was entirely prepared to leave this forenoon by train for Seattle, where he was to appear before a federal grand jury investigating the case of James O'Neil charged with the burglary and robbery of the Eagle Post-Office, Sheriff J. W. Jennings postponed before train time that the case had been postponed until next Monday.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

High water in Bear creek is blamed for damage reported to have been suffered by a large rhubarb patch in the Tolo section last Monday. The waters of the creek are reported to have descended through an orchard, overturning a large number of smudge pots and carrying the soil over the rhubarb plants. The ground was also covered with the crude oil, after the waters had receded. The patch is owned by Otto Bohner, who operates two large greenhouses on Portland avenue in this city.

Whit Barton and his orchestra, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMEM, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music for the public benefit dance to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Among the state of Washington guests at Medford hotels are J. L. Tellig of Spokane, Mrs. F. G. Horton of Vancouver, Mrs. James King of Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Bremerton, Miss Elsie Nalty of Hoquiam, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carbery of Aberdeen, E. T. Cleveland of Oak Harbor and Ordelia Work, Mrs. R. Reckie and Miss Garnette St. Germain of Seattle.

Wells Taxi, 23c. Phone 25. 4*

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Warren Hamlin, Kathryn Sweney and Lee Greenleaf are among students at the Oregon Agricultural college who did not return there to resume studies, following the spring vacation.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for one coyote.

Someone may be interested in knowing that they can save $105 on their new piano. A Robert M. Cable beautiful burled walnut case, only a short time, has been returned to the Palmer Music House. By acting quickly you can have this month's payments. Call at the store for full details. 7*

"Do the best I can," is the slogan used by J. G. Love, well known Central Point orchardist, when he filed yesterday at the county clerk's office for the republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Love owns the Snowy Butte orchards and has resided in Jackson county for more than ten years.

Plant perennially new, large selection to choose from, reasonably priced. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Phone 452-L-2. 269

Harold Wing of Dodge City, Kans., accompanied by Charles Dotson, is spending a short time on a visit with his brother, Charles A. Wing, of this city. The two visitors were formerly interested in mining and cleaning business in Dodge City and are planning to make permanent headquarters here.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Fred (Doc) Jeanette of Portland, who was in Medford several months over a year ago, is spending several days here on business and visiting old friends. He was connected with Tilly's orchestra, which played here during a summer season.

Films in at 9 p. m. out at 2 p. m. Swen's, master photo finishers. 7*

Orchardists in the Willow Springs district are all ready for the annual spring smudging. The Carson, Hoover, Stevenson, Porter and Hammond orchards have placed new burners for briquets, and Mr. Clements, who lately purchased the Clarke place, unloaded a car of briquets several days ago.—Ashland Tidings.

Three pianos for rent, Palmer Music House. 12*

Although he was entirely prepared to leave this forenoon by train for Seattle, where he was to appear before a federal grand jury investigating the case of James O'Neil charged with the burglary and robbery of the Eagle Post-Office, Sheriff J. W. Jennings postponed before train time that the case had been postponed until next Monday.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

High water in Bear creek is blamed for damage reported to have been suffered by a large rhubarb patch in the Tolo section last Monday. The waters of the creek are reported to have descended through an orchard, overturning a large number of smudge pots and carrying the soil over the rhubarb plants. The ground was also covered with the crude oil, after the waters had receded. The patch is owned by Otto Bohner, who operates two large greenhouses on Portland avenue in this city.

Whit Barton and his orchestra, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMEM, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music for the public benefit dance to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Among the state of Washington guests at Medford hotels are J. L. Tellig of Spokane, Mrs. F. G. Horton of Vancouver, Mrs. James King of Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Bremerton, Miss Elsie Nalty of Hoquiam, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carbery of Aberdeen, E. T. Cleveland of Oak Harbor and Ordelia Work, Mrs. R. Reckie and Miss Garnette St. Germain of Seattle.

Wells Taxi, 23c. Phone 25. 4*

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Warren Hamlin, Kathryn Sweney and Lee Greenleaf are among students at the Oregon Agricultural college who did not return there to resume studies, following the spring vacation.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for one coyote.

Someone may be interested in knowing that they can save $105 on their new piano. A Robert M. Cable beautiful burled walnut case, only a short time, has been returned to the Palmer Music House. By acting quickly you can have this month's payments. Call at the store for full details. 7*

"Do the best I can," is the slogan used by J. G. Love, well known Central Point orchardist, when he filed yesterday at the county clerk's office for the republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Love owns the Snowy Butte orchards and has resided in Jackson county for more than ten years.

Plant perennially new, large selection to choose from, reasonably priced. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Phone 452-L-2. 269

Harold Wing of Dodge City, Kans., accompanied by Charles Dotson, is spending a short time on a visit with his brother, Charles A. Wing, of this city. The two visitors were formerly interested in mining and cleaning business in Dodge City and are planning to make permanent headquarters here.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Fred (Doc) Jeanette of Portland, who was in Medford several months over a year ago, is spending several days here on business and visiting old friends. He was connected with Tilly's orchestra, which played here during a summer season.

Films in at 9 p. m. out at 2 p. m. Swen's, master photo finishers. 7*

Orchardists in the Willow Springs district are all ready for the annual spring smudging. The Carson, Hoover, Stevenson, Porter and Hammond orchards have placed new burners for briquets, and Mr. Clements, who lately purchased the Clarke place, unloaded a car of briquets several days ago.—Ashland Tidings.

Three pianos for rent, Palmer Music House. 12*

Although he was entirely prepared to leave this forenoon by train for Seattle, where he was to appear before a federal grand jury investigating the case of James O'Neil charged with the burglary and robbery of the Eagle Post-Office, Sheriff J. W. Jennings postponed before train time that the case had been postponed until next Monday.

Beneficial plans to have them. The price is right. Come and see our wigs for price list. S. E. Chastain, near Over-Oregon office, Tel. 452-L-2. 248

Mrs. Roy Peterson of Cape Camb, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Bennett on Kings highway this morning having arrived here from the south a few days ago. Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 228. 2321*

High water in Bear creek is blamed for damage reported to have been suffered by a large rhubarb patch in the Tolo section last Monday. The waters of the creek are reported to have descended through an orchard, overturning a large number of smudge pots and carrying the soil over the rhubarb plants. The ground was also covered with the crude oil, after the waters had receded. The patch is owned by Otto Bohner, who operates two large greenhouses on Portland avenue in this city.

Whit Barton and his orchestra, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMEM, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music for the public benefit dance to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Among the state of Washington guests at Medford hotels are J. L. Tellig of Spokane, Mrs. F. G. Horton of Vancouver, Mrs. James King of Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Bremerton, Miss Elsie Nalty of Hoquiam, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carbery of Aberdeen, E. T. Cleveland of Oak Harbor and Ordelia Work, Mrs. R. Reckie and Miss Garnette St. Germain of Seattle.

Wells Taxi, 23c. Phone 25. 4*

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

Warren Hamlin, Kathryn Sweney and Lee Greenleaf are among students at the Oregon Agricultural college who did not return there to resume studies, following the spring vacation.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Sp. 421*

Walter Lofland and William Smith, transient youths arrested in Yreka, Calif., last week for the theft of a Buick sedan from Hobbs' Dept. left yesterday in custody of Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells for Portland, where they will face federal charges of car theft.

E. Scholinger used piano, $185; $10 down and $10 monthly. Palmer Music House. 12*

William A. Cramer was an Eagle Point visitor in the city yesterday for several hours.

See a day. Books you want to read, circulating library at Swen's.

Snyder's Dairy of Grants Pass will sponsor a broadcast over station KMEM, Medford, Tuesday night, April 3. The program will be on the air between 8 and 9 o'clock, featuring the Grants Pass high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Martin Treppe.—Grants Pass Courier.

Time in KMEM at 8 tonight. 6

When he appeared in the local justice court last Monday, following his arrest Friday evening for the possession of ten gallons of alleged moonshine, Wayne Moore of this city was released on bail of $500. He is to appear again in court this week.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Rolland, Phone 993. 1*

County warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today of Clyde Smith of Jacksonville for