

DOROTHY CHITWOOD TO HEAD HUMANE DRIVE AT J'VILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Mar. 29.—The past noble grands of Esbekah lodge were entertained Tuesday by Mrs. Zola Flick. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Harriet Roe, Martha Dunnington, Lizzie Cronmiller, Katherine Wendt, Emma Van Mulkey, Ray Schaefer, Mamie Norris, Mary Smith, Georgia Cody, Mamie Nelson, Bessie Miller and the hostess.

Miss Dorothy Chitwood is now a member of the Jackson County Humane society, and was appointed a representative of the Jacksonville for a membership drive. The work which this society wishes to carry out is to obtain a humane officer and establish a hospital for dogs and cats at some location within the county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Page and son of Fort Klamath, who have been visiting Mrs. Page's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Smythe of this city, have returned home.

Mrs. T. E. Dunnington and mother, Mrs. Lella McKee, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

C. H. Dunnington went to Grants Pass Tuesday to take charge of the Sanford Jones meat market for a while. Hugh Combs is taking his place on the Sanford Jones truck that went to Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Mrs. M. E. Vocum and daughter,

Mrs. C. E. Stouder, and grandson, Elmo Welch, were visitors at the S. E. Dunnington home Tuesday. Mrs. Vocum has just returned from Aleso, Ore., where she has been visiting her three sons, Fred, Granville and Mack, and her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Stouder, who returned home with her for a short visit.

Mrs. Henrietta Flick had the misfortune to injure her shoulder last Saturday. She is now improving under the doctor's care. She is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Wilson.

Last Friday, March 23, the Winema Campfire Girls held their regular meeting in which two very important decisions were announced. The first was the awarding of first prize to Marjorie French for having the most artistic and well planned count book of any of the contestants. Mrs. Larson, the guardian, having the pleasure of presenting a first aid kit to her. The count books might be further explained as a history of the Campfire Girls' life as far as she has gone, including the honors she has won and different periods of interest.

Two non-Campfire mothers were asked to judge these. Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Earl White, both of Jacksonville. The second decision was the date for the campfire play which was set for Friday, May 11th, this being an open date and considered best.

W. J. Rice, president of the State Normal school at Billingham, Wn., was a visitor in Jacksonville and Medford this week, relative to the state adoption of the Rice system of penmanship. While here he called on former Kentucky friends, Mrs. J. N. Williams and Mrs. Frank J. Sherry.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Norris are the parents of a nine and a half pound girl, born Tuesday, March 27. The little miss has been named Emil Sammerence.

Mrs. Nick Bishop and son Jerry and Miss Vera Dunsan motored from Gold Hill to our city Thursday and were guests at Amy's Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hayes and son of Archer, Iowa, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Dyng of Roseburg have been in our city for several days attending their son Henry, who is ill at the Rogue River sanitarium.

Mrs. Abbott, former resident of Jacksonville, died at Medford Sunday. The funeral services were held at Conger's funeral parlors and she was laid to rest in the Jacksonville cemetery by the side of her late husband, Charles Abbott.

Mrs. Lizzie Cronmiller was calling on friends here Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Cronmiller also attended the annual church meeting at the Presbyterian church here Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hyde of Medford was a guest of Mrs. George Maxwell Monday night, returning to Medford Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Anna Coffman, who has been quite ill at the Rogue River sanitarium for some time, is now improving. She was able to leave the sanitarium Tuesday and is now staying at the home of Mrs. Alpha Hartman.

Mrs. Fred Flick, Miss McCully, Mrs. Henry Gallup, Mrs. Bertha Keegan, Oscar Lewis and Alfred Norris were among the Jacksonville people who attended the funeral of Mrs. Abbott at Medford Wednesday.

Mrs. George Maxwell entertained the Bridge club at her home Monday evening. The following members and guests were present: Mrs. Hyde of Medford, Mrs. Harold Crump, Mrs. Oscar Lewis, Mrs. Howard Baer, Mrs. G. N. McKay, Mrs. Fred Flick, Mrs. Vivian B. White and the hostess.

Mrs. Fred Flick, Miss McCully and Mrs. Henry Gallup visited Mrs. Hudson at the Sacred Heart hospital during the week.

Presbyterian Church, Jacksonville. On Tuesday evening, March 27, about 80 people gathered in the basement of the Presbyterian church to partake of a bounteous dinner and to hold the annual business meeting.

Reports of all the activities of the church were given, showing that every branch of the church work had been well taken care of the past year, both financially and otherwise.

With the exception of a very few, all of the old officers were re-elected.

It was unanimously voted to re-appoint Rev. Elmer McVicker as minister for another year.

An excellent program of musical numbers by Geneva Dorothy, accompanied by Marjorie Lindley, and Grace and Frances Wakefield, and humorous readings by Mrs. Frank Salsberry, was given during the evening.

Toward the close of the meeting Reverend McVicker gave a short talk, explaining several parts of the work and complimenting the church as a whole on the efficient way, and in such a spirit of unity, that the work had been done the past year.

Program for Sunday, April 1st: Sunday school, 10 a. m.

Preaching, 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. m. There will be no service at 7:30 so that all who desire to do so may attend the evening services at Phoenix, which is the day that their new church is to be dedicated.

Bible study, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Senior choir practice, Tuesday, 8:15 p. m. Junior choir practice, Wednesday, 7 p. m.

We will be pleased to welcome you at all the services.

Elmer E. McVicker, Pastor.

BUTTE FALLS

Helen Simerville, student of the Ashland normal, spent her spring vacation visiting relatives of this place.

There were 54 at Sunday school Sunday, the largest attendance we have had for some time. Mrs. Marian acted as superintendent in the absence of Mr. Nee, who was ill with flu. Mrs. Nee is substituting for Mr. Nee this week at school.

George Simerville and Harold Hildreth, students of the U. of O., who spent their vacations visiting with relatives and friends, returned to Eugene Saturday.

The concert given Friday evening by the Girls' Glee club of Willamette university was greatly enjoyed by everyone who attended.

"The Spy," a play to be put on here Friday night by the Eagle-Point grange, is being sponsored by the Girls' club.

A large crowd from here attended the funeral of George Barger in Medford Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Hughes has been quite ill. Dr. Holt was called to attend him Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nee had as dinner guests Wednesday evening Mrs. Earl Hoover, Miss Naomi Van Groos and Mrs. Frank Hoover.

Mr. Treffern, who has been ill, is reported as being much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith spent a few days last week, transacting business in Klamath Falls. They returned home Wednesday. Lester left for Klamath Falls again Monday morning and will be fire warden on the Indian reservation near there this summer.

Several children have been absent from school lately with colds and flu.

Mrs. Taylor, who has been ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

Elmer Hoef's got his knee hurt at camp Tuesday by a falling log, and Mr. Clark got a piece of steel in his eye. Both went to Medford Monday afternoon for medical attention.

Beverly Jackson poked a piece of jagged glass about a quarter of an inch square up her nose Saturday and it was necessary to take her to Medford to a doctor to have it removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Driskell, who have resided here for many years, moved Sunday to Ashland, where Mr. Driskell has secured work as a truck driver.

Members of the American Legion from here who attended the meeting in Medford Monday night were Charlie Patton, I. Koehn, Ray Parker, Earl Hoover and Clyde Smith. Several of these also attended the prize fight.

The funeral of Sam Krietzler's sister was held Sunday at Grants Pass. The Krietzler family, from here attended.

Mr. Stoddard spent Monday and Tuesday in Medford.

Mrs. Earl Hoover directed the music at the local institute held in Jacksonville Saturday.

Earl Hoover and Mrs. Alberta Hoover transacted business in Medford Wednesday.

WAGNER CREEK

The Wagner Creek school board held their annual meeting to elect school teachers and janitor, last Saturday evening. As teachers they selected Miss Dorothy and Miss Blossom Head of Applegate. They also selected Howard Work, Jr., as janitor.

Joseph Williams returned this week from the Shasta valley in California, where he had been working with sheep for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Savage moved last Sunday to Hill, Calif., where he will work in the future. They intend to make that place their home.

Mr. and Mrs. John of Phoenix spent last Saturday with their daughter, Mrs. Floyd Bell of Yank Gulch.

H. H. Goddard spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. Dean, in Phoenix. Mrs. Dean is well known on this creek as a former resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Barr of Neil creek spent last Thursday evening with Mrs. Barr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolanost. G. Crossman of Neil creek, an old time acquaintance of the Wolanost family, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Barr on their visit.

Mrs. F. E. W. Smith called on her daughter, Mrs. Howard Boyd, in Medford last Saturday.

Arthur Eastland of Dorris, Calif., came over last Tuesday and will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Briner.

Among those calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Green last Wednesday evening were W. L. Bradley, P. W. Warden, Charles Lockwood, Elroy McGrew, Arthur Eastland and M. E. Bradley. The evening was spent playing cards and enjoying radio music.

E. W. Combs and daughter Bernice were in Medford last Tuesday afternoon shopping.

Mrs. H. H. Purves, son, Clyde, Robert and James, had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burnette last Sunday.

James Purves, who has been seriously ill in his home for the past

MANY of us know the delightful difference in the freshness of peas picked from our own garden with the dew of early morning on the pods.

AND at the Frye packing plant we have learned from Nature in our time-honored process of slow curing by wood fire and in planning our distribution methods so that these delightful Frye's "Delicious" Brand Hams come fresh from the smokehouse to your table with the least possible loss of time.

There are scores of appetizing ways to prepare this tasty, energizing food, and you'll find them all in Frye's "Meat Guide." Send 3c to Frye & Co., Portland, to cover postage.

Frye's Delicious BRAND ham

three months, is now able to attend school. He has to be taken down and back by a member of the family, as it is too far to walk.

Wm. Gleims and C. D. Purves were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Single last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goddard of this creek.

Grants Pass—County's $60,000 hospital plans are nearly finished. Hood River—California capitalist buys 112-acre Beulah land orchard.

dance!

TOMORROW NIGHT
With Jack Bowring and His Music

Hilarity Hall

DANCING FREE
ADMISSION 25c

The Orchestra That Guarantees Plenty of Fun

See our New Fight Arena, the place where "Bull" Montana and Al Karasick will do their bone-crushing Friday night, April 6.

DODGE BROTHERS

Announce

A DASHING COMPANION TO THE BRILLIANT VICTORY AND SENIOR SIXES

the

STANDARD SIX

$875

F. O. B. DETROIT

THE FASTEST AND FINEST PERFORMER UNDER $1000

Here is the fastest car under a thousand dollars! . . . With the fastest acceleration of any car under a thousand dollars! . . . And the greatest flexibility! And the greatest motor! And the highest ratio of power to pounds!

In fact, the basic secret of Standard Six performance is the car's extraordinary ratio of power to weight . . . 1 horsepower to every 47 pounds! . . . And built to supply this tremendous power safely and dependably.

In other words, a car of remarkable ruggedness, designed and balanced to accommodate the most spectacular engine ever provided in a Six of low price. . . . Fit companion to Dodge Brothers brilliant Senior and Victory Sixes!

Big, roomy, comfortable . . . Beautifully designed and lacquered in a variety of smart and enduring colors . . . Midland internal expanding steeldraulic four-wheel brakes, and complete equipment.

A Six that you can buy with a remarkably small down payment and drive for years with genuine pride and satisfaction.

So astonishing a performer that your immediate investigation is more than warranted!

On display throughout America today.

STANDARD SIX SUPERIORITIES

Modern 6-cylinder engine without torsional vibration—7-bearing crankshaft—Light alloy pistons with Invar steel struts—Largest bearings of any engine of its size—Improved type cooling system, with thermostat—Improved full-pressure oiling system—Silent timing chain—Exhaust-heated intake manifold—Finest type of single-plate clutch—Standard type transmission with chrome vanadium steel gears—Special rear axle with chrome vanadium steel gears and shafts—Finest ball, roller and flexible bearings throughout chassis—Easily operated steering gear with ball thrust bearings in spindles—Midland steeldraulic four-wheel brakes, internal expanding, protected from dirt and water—Extra long alloy steel chassis springs

Clear Vision Bodies—Handsome Lacquer Colors—Adjustable Drum-Type Headlamps—Windshield Wiper with Automatic Return—Adjustable Instrument Board Lamp—Ignition Switch with Theft Lock—Coke Ventilation—Rear View Mirror

- STANDARD SIX
- The Coupe $875
- The 4-door Sedan $895
- The Cabriolet $945
- The DeLuxe Sedan $970
- VICTORY SIX $1045 to $1170
- SENIOR SIX $1570 to $1770
- All prices f. o. b. Detroit

EAKIN MOTOR COMPANY

16-18 South Fir Street

Telephone 304