PERSONALS

The meeting last night of the local Elks, under the present regime, as the newly elected officers will be installed next Thursday night, was an especially enjoyable one made so by a large delegation of the Ashland lodge of Elks, numbering over 50, being in attendance and putting on an entertainment program of much fun and merit, following the regular session of the lodge, and the whole program being topped off with a good feed in the basement dining room.

Whit Barton and his Idahoans, one of the premier dance orchestras of the coast, are doing considerable broadcast work over the local radio station, KMED, during the present week, and have been secured to furnish the dance music to be given at 7 o'clock on 7-13 to be held by the American Legion at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Attorney A. E. Reames, 26th Bulls and a party of local friends left yesterday for Klamath Falls on business in connection with the California Oregon Power company.

It has not yet been definitely settled as to just what time Floyd Young's daily evening frost prediction will be given by radio over KMED, which Mr. Young at first planned to give out at 7 on 7-13, but not knowing at that time that the local radio broadcasting station, by federal regulation, cannot be on the air between 7 and 8 p. m. An effort is being made to have this rule changed so as to permit of the frost warning being broadcast at 7 o'clock.

Only 40 pupils of 962 examined since November 14, 1927, in the Albany, Ore., schools by Miss Margaret Gillis, city health nurse, were found free from physical defects, Miss Gillis reports. Of the 922 defective children, 489 have had their defects corrected, Miss Gillis says. Bad tonsils headed the list of defects reported, while trouble with teeth and with eyes vied for second place.

Dance Gold Hill Sat. night. 5
Mrs. and Mrs. F. C. Elliott of Yreka, Calif., owners of an auto, were in Medford on business the first of this week.

Mrs. John Vincent has returned to her home, after spending five weeks in Portland, where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, who had a severe attack of scarlet fever. After acting as nurse for a couple of weeks, Mrs. Vincent was stricken with the same disease and was very sick for a couple of weeks. Dr. Buckley, formerly of Medford but now of Portland, was Mrs. Vincent's doctor. They were in quarantine five weeks. Much interest in the outcome of the Medford-Roseburg legion membership contest is being taken in this city not only by legionnaires but all local citizens as well. The Medford veterans are making a fine showing in the contest, and have a good chance to win if new members continue to sign up during the next 24 hours.

Radio Program KMED

- Mail Tribune-Virgin Station
10 to 11 A. M.—People's Music Store.
11 to 11:30 A. M.—The Hotel Jackson Dining Room.
12:15 to 1:15 P. M.—Green Trading Stamp Hour.
6:15 P. M.—The Medford Mail Tribune News Items.

Having set a standard for excellent radio concerts since their debut over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, three weeks ago, announcing their taking over of the Atwater Kent radio as a new line of merchandise, the People's Electric will be heard again tomorrow morning from 10 to 11 with a well selected arrangement of local musical talent. The program of James Stevens, operatic baritone, will be featured in vocal numbers, accompanied on the Baldwin by Miss Alma Lawrence. Stevens will be assisted in the program by Max Fiecl, popular violinist, and Miss Mary Greiner in comedy songs. This same group appeared in the premiere concert up on by the People's Electric company, while last Saturday morning Whit Barton and his seven melody kings were featured.

The growing popularity of Whit Barton's orchestra has manifested itself this week in a steady schedule of engagements by local merchants over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin radio station, and in a continual stream of phone calls and requests coming into the station from fans throughout the valley. Whit Barton and his seven melody kings from Lewiston, Idaho, played last night from 8 o'clock to 9 through the courtesy of Gates & Lydell and Blinn, the butcher, located in the Economy grocery. They were conceived so heartily last night that they went on the air again this morning from 11:30 to 12 o'clock for Trophy, the jeweler, and their schedule is growing rapidly.
