MARINES PURSUE SANDINO REBELS

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Apr. 3. (AP)—American marines vigorously pursued scattered rebels in northern Nicaragua today after a large band had been set upon by the marines in two clashes and routed.

Five rebels were killed and two wounded. Although his name was not announced, one of the slain was known to have been a chief lieutenant of General Augustino Sandino, insurgent commander.

The skirmishes took place about 50 miles north of Jinotepe but marine officers withheld the exact location for military reason. There were no marine casualties.

Twenty-one horses and mules, 16 saddles, two rifles, several machetes and a number of bombs were captured from the rebels. The belief prevailed that the band was the largest encountered in more than a month.

SAY PAIR FORGED NAME OF HEARST

NEW YORK, April 3.—(AP)—Heavy bail was required of both Mr. and Mrs. William Danbridge Bibbs, when they were arraigned in different courts, he charged with forging the name of William Randolph Hearst on a check and she with being a fugitive from Atlanta, Ga., where she is wanted for the larceny of automobiles.

Bibbs was alleged to have realized $6000 by means of a check stolen from Mr. Hearst's Riverside drive apartment. He was held in $25,000 bail.

The couple, according to police information from Atlanta were also known as Dan and Betty Majors. Under that name, indictments have been found in state and federal courts in Georgia against them charging larceny of automobiles. Mrs. Bliss was held in $15,000 bail for hearing on April 9.

20 FT. STANDARD HIGHWAY WIDTH

SALEM, Ore., Apr. 3. — (AP) — Twenty feet is to be the standard width of highway pavement in Oregon hereafter, according to R. A. Klein, state highway engineer. It will be laid in 10-foot units or strips. Heretofore 16 standard width has been 16 feet. The width has been added to at some points in the state. At present no paving is in progress.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Under a suspension of rules, the house today passed a measure extending for one year the life of the War Finance corporation. The time is necessary for liquidation work.
