Ye Smudge Pot

The banks of Oregon are reported in A1 condition. Once upon a time there was a fourth hand automobile that was in B3 condition.

We have grown tired of the piffing manner in which the weather man is handling the weather, and will guarantee to have some sunshine on top in time for Sunday, and probably sooner.

YE UNCONSCIOUS KNOCK

HEALTHY. Battle Creek treatments; large practice; must sell on account of ill health; located in Bay City; only one in county; sell or trade for clear property. Box 115775.

Bill Alken, the plumber, is limping from the last time a horse threw the Prince of Wales.

A number of the Galshevskis have swapped boy friends.

A week from tomorrow, unless Providence or the Governor intervenes, two men will hang by the neck until dead, in the death house of the state prison.

The ground is now too wet to plow. When this condition does not prevail it is too dry to plow.

WHY ARIZONA KEEPS STARVING

Mr. Howard of Nebraska, Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from New York (Mr. Fish) and some of the others need a little bit of persuasion, and I am going to give some of it. I know that it does not place a white man in a happy attitude to be apparently objecting to an act of justice in behalf of an alleged charitable organization.

Several women and two or three gentlemen had been sitting thick at my every home hotel, which is said to be the model in any town hotel of the world. My wife and I live there, and we became acquainted with these peripatetic travelers in the interest of this institution.

THORPE CONSTANTINE, Staffordshire, England, April 5.—(P)—The Prince of Wales kept his seat but only finished third while riding his horse, Miss Gips, in a 1/2 mile race today at Atherton. The race was a point-to-point affair and was won by J. Aynsley with Captain Fielden second.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(P)—Democratic members of the senate finance committee decided to fight for a $50,000,000 tax cut of $100,000,000 more than proposed by Secretary Mellon.

QUILL POINTS

Americanism: "Ho hum; let's go somewhere."

Correct this sentence: "I know I'm fat," said she, "but when I see a fat woman I never wonder if I look like that."

The Presidential bee, among Congressmen, is much like pyorrhoea. Four out of five have it.

Financial note: Stocks go down whenever a sufficient number of suckers get aboard a bull movement.

Some wives still have a little money of their own, and some thought their husbands better qualified to handle it.

Temper: Heat generated by friction when an ego rubs against something it can lick.

Daughter thinks she isn't a success unless the boy who wants a date must make reservations a week ahead.

There are two kinds of graduates: Those who continue to think college the greatest thing in life and those who amount to something.

Dad has been using the car too much and walking too little, but the kids will soon be home from school.

There were large families in the old days because it didn't take a specialist, two nurses and $750 to add a unit.

Americanism: Denouncing rich crooks wishing you could think up some safe graft.

South Carolina has a country editor who is well fixed as a result of printing a good paper for ten years and marrying a rich widow.

Another thing needed for the job of turning the rascals out is a non-partisan definition of "rascality."

The ideal of pacifists seems to be a navy big enough to scare everybody but not big enough to lick anybody.

The age of discretion is that at which you begin to realize that the weeping done at a wedding doesn't always express sympathy for the bride.

We know an umpire who spent the winter hunting, and it isn't at all probable his blindness is up to mid-season form.

A hick town is a place where everybody knows Jane couldn't dress so well if Jim would pay his debts.

Perhaps Maryland was afraid Sinclair horses would leave the straight and narrow path and lead the others astray.

Rickard isn't worrying about a knock-down-and-drag-out opponent for Tunney. What he wants is an opponent who can drag 'em in.

The objection to marrying a Maharajah of Indore is that the collection of wives is the chief Indore sport.

Hint to statesmen: A man is least loyal to his party when he is most loyal to crooks.

Careful! Let's not build more battleships than our harbors could hide from submarines in case of war.

Rockefeller coal interests complete the system. If people aren't out burning coal, they're at home burning coal.

Use easy to say: "Turn the rascals out." But who will define rascality, and just where will you draw the line?

"Only the little man is cocksure." That's a fact. A big man on the witness stand always says: "I don't know."

Specialists who think modern life hard on the nerves should have heard the old-fashioned kid doing his lessons on a slate.

The trouble isn't too much power. The horses under the hood wouldn't matter if it wasn't for the asses under the wheel.

Whatever "constructive statesmanship" may be, it doesn't consist wholly in crying: "Hurrah for righteousness."

So many authors seem to think a man can go the rest of the way on his reputation after he gets to first base.

There's always a bright side. The more the public sees of other big business men, the more it thinks of Ohn D. Jr.

The first game is near, and we hope some enterprising printer has the order for snow checks.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

MENTAL DEFICIENCY

It seems well to emphasize and to point out the causes of feeble mindedness mentioned in a preceding talk. Readers who are following this outline of hygiene will remember that feeble mindedness is not a disease.

The saying is that there's no fool like an old fool, but like many old sayings this one is not very accurate. The young fool has it over the old one when it comes to a question of money.

Amateur and professional sociologists have analyzed and explained the flapper, so that no one can misunderstand. My conception of the flapper is that she grades around 10 years of age mentally, that is, the average.

Of course we determine whether an individual is an idiot (mental age not over 2 years), an imbecile (mental age 2 to 7 years inclusive), or a moron (mental age 8 to 12 years inclusive).

VOTERS ROUND-UP BY WOMEN'S CLUB HIT BY HAMMOND

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—(P)—Opposing the "brass band" method of getting the people to the polls, John Hays Hammond today proposed to the National Civic Federation that joint committees on active citizenship be organized in 500 leading cities of the country.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs was said to have agreed to aid in formation of local forums to discuss issues.

He questioned the wisdom of "doubling a vote which takes so little interest in political affairs that it has to be dragged, threatened and bribed into going to the polls, many delinquents declaring that voting is a waste of time, as both parties stand for the same thing, and both are equally corrupt."
