

FOOTBALL SQUAD OF HIGH PERFORM FOR LOCAL MOVIE

"The Reporter," an H. I. L. Pictures production comedy, was completed here today and the film is to be sent to San Francisco laboratories tonight for developing and printing in order to be here in time for exhibition next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Idaho theater. The comedy features with Gene (Fatty) Laxson as the star was made early in Medford, with Medford people taking part in the majority of the scenes.

The developed film will arrive here by air mail and is to be shown here as a pre-view before being released for general distribution.

Yesterday afternoon scenes were taken at the Van Scoyoc athletic field, showing the Medford high school football team in action, with Fatty Laxson playing on a team opposing the high school eleven, the members of which were all dressed in their regular playing uniforms. Today scenes were taken at the city hall, Junior high school, chamber of commerce, and along various locations on Main street.

Among the local residents who took part in scenes shot yesterday at noon was George Maddox, the little colored boothkeeper at Slusser's barber shop. George fitted into the situation well and Director Charles Hovey was enthusiastic over his work. Durrell Adams, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Adams, and Tommy, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Henderson, also took featured parts in yesterday's scenes.

A few street scenes were scheduled to be taken this afternoon. With those taken, "The Reporter" will be entirely completed.

HUBER SHOP FIRE DAMAGE $5000

Damage estimated at approximately $5000 was caused at 11:29 last night when fire of an undetermined origin burned in the rear of the P. J. Huber tailor shop on West Main street, destroying considerable cloth and badly damaging equipment. The fire, which had a good start before the fire department was called, was quickly put under control by the department, which had three lines of hose but used only one.

The shop was closed today, but will probably be re-opened as soon as the fire insurance can be adjusted, according to Mr. Huber, who stated that a fire sale would be held, inasmuch as practically the entire stock was damaged by smoke.

STATE CHIEF OF LEGION IN CITY OVER WEEK-END

George E. Love, state commander of the American Legion arrived here last night and will make Medford his headquarters during the balance of the week. On Friday he will join local Legion officials in welcoming the arrival of National Commander Egan, E. Stafford, who is scheduled to visit Medford by airplane April 30.

Commander George Love is one of the best known and best loved Legionnaires in the state of Oregon.

Geo. E. Love

Love and to him is due the credit of putting Oregon "over the top" in the national membership contest which closed March 31st. At a great sacrifice, Commander Love has given up his personal business since his election and has devoted his entire time to the affairs of the American Legion. His untiring devotion to the state department has resulted in Oregon now being regarded as one of the foremost legion departments in the entire country.

Today Commander Love is visiting Klamath Falls just after having installed a new Legion post at Kerby last night. Tomorrow he will confer with local post officials and Saturday noon will meet with the convention commission at luncheon to discuss final plans for the Medford convention in August. Sunday Commander Love will play a leading part in the reception of National Commander Stafford at the local airport.

SHEEPMEN PROTEST FREIGHT INCREASE

PENDLETON, Ore., April 5.—(AP)—Prominent sheepmen from Oregon, meeting here yesterday, voiced opposition to the proposal of the railroad commission appearing before the interstate commerce commission requesting an increase in rates on livestock at the hearing held recently in Chicago.
The shippers seriously object to what they believe will "bottle up" their markets and point out that approximately 2,200,000 lambs are shipped annually from Oregon, Washington and Idaho. A wide distribution is essential in maintaining the sheep industry, they claim, and with the consumption of their product largely confined to the east, favorable rates are a necessity. If the proposed rates become effective, the price of mutton would be probably advanced in the eastern markets, they stated.

At a public installation to be held next Friday evening at 7:30, officers of the Scottish Rite Masonic lodge, headed by Paul Dymond, venerable master, will install the officers of the DeMolay chapter in the lodge room on the third floor of the Masonic temple. Following the installation, the DeMolay members will put on the majority degree work followed by a dance for DeMolays and friends. The general public is invited to attend the installation work and at the same time gain a view of the palatial surroundings of the Masonic temple, an addition to which was completed a year or so ago.

NEW AMBULANCE HANKOW AROUSED FOR JOHN PERL BY CLAIM FRENCH DRIVEN FROM CHINA AID COMMUNISTS

Frank Perl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Perl, arrived here yesterday with one of the newest and most valuable ambulances ever seen anywhere, having driven the eight-cylinder luxury motor ambulance all the way from Piqua, Ohio, to Medford, a distance of 2,240 miles, since March 10, with but a single mishap, aside the muddy and rutty roads over hundreds of miles of the long journey.

Frank early in March graduated from the Cincinnati, Ohio, school of engineering, receiving a grade of 89 in all of his final examinations. After graduating he went to the factory at Piqua, obtained the new eight-cylinder motor and started for home. He made a stop at Los Angeles after having driven continuously for 12 days, for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Alvin Perl Six, after which he continued on the journey to Medford.

His intimate friend and fraternity brother at the O. A. C. Warren L. Marley of Hollywood, accompanied him, and is now his guest. The new motor coach is luxuriously fitted up and contains all the latest modern improvements, including hot and cold water, electric fan, seats for attendants accompanying the invalid, etc.

KERBY POST OF LEGION FORMED

Several members of Medford Post No. 15, American Legion, went to Kerby, Oregon, last night to assist in installing Oregon's newest legion post. At Grants Pass they were tendered a dinner by the local post officials at which State Commander George Love was the guest of honor.

Following the dinner a caravan of Medford and Grants Pass cars journeyed to Kerby, 28 miles from Grants Pass on the Crescent City highway. The new post was installed by State Commander Love assisted by Grants Pass and Medford post officials, Don Morrison being installed as post commander. BULL IS FAVORITE OVER KARASICK

At Karasick, the Russian lion of Portland, is expected to arrive in Medford tonight for his match at the Hilarity hall sporting pavilion tomorrow evening with Bull Montana, the Hollywood movie star wrestler. Bull will appear tomorrow morning for his home crushing battle with Karasick, who has the reputation of being one of the strongest men on the mat on the Pacific coast.

Further improvements are being made at the wrestling pavilion, which made such a favorable impression last week when Bull wrestled Sailor Jack Wood and defeated him two out of three falls. General opinion of the wrestling fans seems to point toward Bull, who, by his clean way of wrestling, impressed the fans perhaps more than any other visiting wrestler has done.

HEAVY FROST IS PREDICTED TONITE

A heavy frost is predicted for tonight by the San Francisco weather bureau in the regular daily forecast received here this morning, and clearing weather this afternoon seemed to back this forecast.

Although Floyd Young, the government frost expert stationed here annually during the spring season, invariably refuses to make any comment on the frost outlook until he makes his own forecast about 6:30 or 7 p. m. today, he looks the odds that tomorrow's long enough to admit that there would undoubtedly be a frost tonight, according to the weather map of the forenoon, and said that the chances of escaping the frost here were about one in 70.

TONKON, April 5.—(AP)—A woman received at Onondaga today reported the arrival of Lady Heath in a light airplane from Onondaga.

By her flight from the southern tip of Africa to Cairo, Lady Heath is declared to have accomplished three outstanding feats, being the first woman to fly from one end of the continent to the other, the first to make a flight in a light plane from Onondaga to Cairo and the first to make a solo flight over the entire territory.

While flying alone throughout the flight, Lady Heath was accompanied over a portion of the trip by Lieutenant R. E. Bentley who in another plane escorted her across the Sudan when the authorities there declined to permit her to fly alone over that dangerous territory.
