

COUNTY COUNCIL OF P. T. A. MEETS JVILLE SATURDAY

JACKSONVILLE, April 6.—Miss Evelyn Applegate from San Francisco is spending the Easter holidays with her sister, Mrs. Charles Whitwood of this place and with Mrs. Elsie Miller at Prossitt. Miss Applegate is teaching music in San Francisco.

Mrs. Anna Coffman left Jacksonville Tuesday for a short visit at the M. E. Foreman home on Kings highway.

Mrs. Carl Clifton was a Medford visitor Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Britt who is staying at the Rogue River Sanitarium for treatment is improving.

Mrs. Victory from Klamath Falls, was at the Rogue River Sanitarium for a few days taking treatment, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Caldwell and children of Medford were visitors here Tuesday.

T. E. Dunnington is having an ice plant installed in his meat market.

Mrs. Lella McKee returned to her home on Applegate Monday.

G. N. McKay, principal of our school, has been ill at his home for the past few days.

Hugh Combest returned Wednesday from a trip to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Frank Raulberry transacted business in Medford Wednesday morning.

Miss McCully is recovering from a slight attack of influenza.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer McVicker attended the dedication service and dinner of the Presbyterian church at Phenix Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Pick was a Medford shopper Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thrasher returned this week from Portland where they have spent the past two weeks.

J. R. Hall and Amos Orville, who work at Owen Oregon Lumber Co. camp 2, at Butte Falls, were in our city Friday.

George Merritt was a business visitor in Medford Thursday.

Dr. Inskeep and Miss King, county nurse, will be at our local school Monday, April 9, to examine those students who wish to be examined for the honor roll.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Walton entertained at dinner Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bishop of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Andrews, the occasion being Mr. Walton's birthday.

The county council of the Parent Teacher association will meet at the Presbyterian church here Saturday, April 7. Our local P. T. A. will serve dinner in the church basement. A large attendance of those interested in the work is urged. The P. T. A. intend using the money taken in from this dinner to beautify the scout rooms.

Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville
Easter Sunday is a special day with each congregation and will be with us. At 10:30 a. m. there will be a meeting of the session at the mine, where those who desire to unite with the church either on confession of faith or by letter may meet for examination and presentation of letter and the official action of session and spreading of the name on the records.

At the 11 a. m. service will be the baptismal service and public reception of members, and the meditation and communion service.

May all note the change of the evening service.

Christian Endeavor at 7:15 p. m. and preaching at 8 p. m.

Sunday school 10 a. m. Roy Martin, superintendent.

Bible study Tuesday 7:30 p. m. led by one of the elders.

Senior choir practice Tuesday 8:15 p. m. Mrs. H. K. Hanna leader. Junior choir practice Wednesday 7 p. m. under the direction of Roy Martin.

The Spring Presbytery of southern Oregon will be held at Ashland on next Tuesday and Wednesday. All will be made welcome at every service.

Elmer E. McVicker, pastor.

at the home of Mrs. Mark True on Thursday afternoon.

Geo. Plalsted was in Ashland the first of the week on business, returning to his home at the Cove on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Nealey are living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon. Mr. Nealey is helping Mr. Gordon put in his spring crops. The work is being done by tractor.

The Bellview dance committee gave an old-fashioned dance at the club house on Thursday evening, which was attended by a large crowd. At the close of the dance home made cake and coffee were served to the crowd. A substantial sum was realized from this dance, which will be applied to the building fund.

Mrs. Joe Randall is still confined to her home with illness. She is under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker came down from Trail last Thursday so that Mr. Tucker could play with his orchestra at Belleview on Thursday night, and at the Moose hall Friday night for the screen club dance and on Saturday night the Tucker orchestra always has an old-fashioned dance at the Moose hall. At the close of the dance delicious home made cakes, made by the wives of the men who play in the orchestra, and coffee were served to the immense crowd. These ladies made 24 taken for the occasion. This isn't a usual custom, but as a token of appreciation of the support they have received by the dance goes. They do this about twice a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tucker and daughter, Mrs. Lena Scott, were callers on Friday afternoon. Mr. Gottsche has been confined to his home with illness for the past several weeks, but is now on the road to recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Gottsche have many friends in Belleview, having lived in this community for a number of years before going to Medford to make their home. Mrs. Gottsche was an active member in the Community club.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Merryman and daughters, Wilda and Ellen, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nordwick.

A committee composed of the following named, Mrs. W. D. Jackson, Mrs. Archie Kincaid and Mrs. W. G. Tucker, have taken charge of the plans for the hope chest which the club ladies are sponsoring. At present many nice things have been offered, also several cash donations, which will be applied on materials needed for this chest.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn attended the covered dish dinner Monday evening at the Moose hall, given by the American Legion and auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hush were in Ashland from their Lead Indian ranch on Saturday. They stayed over with relatives until Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark True attended the Fraternal Brotherhood lodge meeting Wednesday evening held in the McCarthy hall. This is the first meeting of this order to meet in this hall, but if conditions are favorable the meeting will probably be held regularly.

The Upper Valley Community club will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday, April 11, in the club rooms. Mrs. C. A. Brown and Miss Florence York, home demonstration agents, will have charge of this meeting. A model meal will be served at 10 o'clock. Miss York will present all of the new and correct ways of arranging a table for such a meal. The ladies of the club will provide the proper food for this meal, and it is hoped that it will be possible for a large attendance.

Mr. Wilton of Shasta City was in this community Saturday on business.

Horace Mitchell expects to leave for eastern Oregon soon.

A group of ladies from the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. T. A. Merryman on Friday afternoon to make Easter decorations for the church.

A birthday party in honor of Mrs. S. K. Barnes and Ralph Atwood was given at the Barnes home on Sunday, April 1. The guests began arriving at 11:30 with well filled baskets of good things to eat, and at 1 o'clock 24 guests were seated at a long table. A lovely birthday cake in Easter colors made a beautiful centerpiece. The guest list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atwood of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Mochell of Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Heinrock, Mrs. Anna Malloy of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cook and daughter, Emma, Mr. and Mrs. Al Sheard and daughters, June and Cleo, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hessenauer and sons, Mr. Pitcher of Chiloquin, E. B. Shaw and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Barnes, and their daughter, Frances. Mrs. Barnes received many lovely birthday gifts.

Mrs. S. K. Barnes attended the meeting of the Yomen lodge Tuesday night at the McCarthy hall. Plans were made to help send the Medford drill team to state convention at Salem soon.

BELLEVIEW

The Nell Creek school children and their teacher, Miss Prescott, gave a splendid entertainment at the school house last Friday to a packed house. This was regular Parent-Teachers' meeting, and after the program refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Gordon HATS
Fit your personality

FIRST AID TO THE CAREFUL DRESSER

Well-dressed men agree that, above all, their hats must be correct. Gordon Hats offer the satisfaction of custom-made headwear. Shapes and models to suit your appearance. In style, material, workmanship, exactly right. Try on a Gordon today!

PRICED AT $5 TO $10

You may well greet the 1928 Zerolene Correct Lubrication Specialist as "Friend!"

He sees you get the ONE right oil your particular motor needs

THE NEW ZEROLENE
the modern oil for every motor car
Ask for it by name 25¢ a quart

MONEY CAN'T BUY A BETTER OIL than THE NEW ZEROLENE

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

To promote safe flying, this company is erecting 2 giant air-bearers—Standard Diablos Light on Mt. Diablo near San Francisco, and Standard-Los Angeles Light on Merced Hills near Los Angeles—each visible more than a hundred miles.

CENTRAL POINT

CENTRAL POINT, April 6.—The yearly meeting at the Federated church held last Thursday evening was well attended, the basement of the church being filled. This being the end of the final year reports from the different departments of the church including Ladies' Aid, Missionary society, Sunday school, cradle roll department, Young People's Endeavor and church board were given.

The new members of the church board elected were J. L. Burger and Chas. Hezmalhalch, the other members of the board consisting of Arthur Webster, Mr. Davidson, Earl Richmond and Dr. Heckman, were re-elected.

Mr. Iverson of Medford, who is Presbyterian moderator, was present.

A nice new comforter made by the Ladies' Aid was presented by a few well chosen words by Mrs. Richmond to Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson.

A cafeteria supper formed one good feature of this evening and this was served from two long, well filled tables, one for the adults and the other for the children.

More missionary work has been accomplished the last year than ever before and it is hoped by all concerned that next year will exceed this.

Mrs. Clyde Hansen left Thursday for Butte Falls to make her husband a short visit. She expects to return Saturday.

Mrs. Hunnigard, the piano teacher, who has been giving credit lessons this winter in town is planning to give a recital in the near future in Medford, in which she plans to combine her Central Point and Medford classes.

Mr. Cummings has been seriously ill at his home the last few days with Dr. Sweeney in attendance. He is some better at this time.

Mrs. Grace Malone spent Tuesday night visiting at the O. C. Turkeppile home.

Mrs. Roy Jones who has been very ill for several weeks is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burger were Sunday evening dinner guests at the Paul Martin home.

Mrs. A. L. Huyek was calling in town last Sunday.

Allen Henderson has been suffering from an attack of the flu but is much better.

The Ladies' Bible class of the Federated church will hold their next class party Wednesday afternoon, April 11th, at the home of the class president, Mrs. Roy Nichols, east of town.

Recent Medford visitors at the Ernest Scott home were: Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stinson and son Lester, and Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fay and family, Earl May, and Dr. Sweeney.

Ethelyn Scott spent Friday and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Ray Anders, at Klamath Falls.

A baby clinic will be held in the public library Tuesday of next week. Any mother wishing to bring a child and having no way to come will have transportation furnished.

Rodney Hagsdale spent the week end in Medford having dental work done.

FRESH TO YOU

STRAWBERRIES — if you've ever picked them from the plants in the garden you know the added deliciousness of their perfect freshness.

AND so, when Frye's "Delicious" Brand Hams come from the smokehouse in all their ripened mellowness and matured quality, we get them to your table with the least possible loss of time.

WITH the great Frye curing plant within a few hours' distance of every section of its market, perfect control of the daily supply is made possible — an important factor in your fullest enjoyment of this perfectly flavored Ham.

BOIL it, grill it, bake it, fry it — it's sure of a rousing welcome at whatever meal it appears.

Frye's Delicious BRAND ham

BOIL BROIL BAKE