

Local and Personal

This is Easter day with all its sacred memories, and with special services, music and decorations in all the churches. It is the day on which many non-church members are sure to attend the services. The Easter egg hunt this morning at 9 o'clock of the children's playground will probably attract many older folks to the scene to watch the youngsters search for the eggs, which will be hidden by girls of the junior high school. The hunt is open only to children under 13 years of age and participants are reminded not to arrive on the hunting scene until nine o'clock.

Della Stevens Meyer, county clerk, says that in order to accommodate the working people, she will keep the office open for registration of voters during the noon hour of April 13, 14 and 17. 17*

A. C. Allen of this city will be in attendance at the meeting of the State Board of Horticulture, of which he is a member for this district, which will be held tomorrow in Portland, and at which the standard pear box and nut grades will be discussed. Fletcher Fish will also attend the session.

Attention, M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors! Dance with refreshments, April 12th. Ladies 25c, gents 50c. 21*

News has reached Medford that Rev. John W. Sharp, former well known Medford and southern Oregon Free Methodist church minister who is in his eighties, is seriously ill from a complication of infirmities, due to old age, at his home at Hawthorne, Calif., about thirty miles out of Los Angeles.

Extra special bargains at the Emma Lou Hat Shoppe in M. M. Store. We invite you to take advantage of this amazing offer for one week only. See the smart, pretty new hats, special $1.98, $2.98, $3.98 and $4.98. Kiddie hats 98c up to $2.98. Green trading stamps given here. You can't afford to miss these bargains. 18*

Miss Frances Pratt and Miss Margaret McCoy, both of Ashland, have been selected to teach in the Talent high school next year, the former being commercial teacher, and the latter, home economics—Ashland Tidings.

Why not scatter Easter joys throughout the summer, by planting gladioli by the hundred? Pendleton, Grandeur, Halley, Cromwell, Shayer and Prince of Wales, available by post, $2, $2.50 and $3 per 100. Send orders to Mrs. E. F. Story, Wolf Creek, Ore. 17*

Mrs. Ford Hubbard and son Howard, are starting today at Crescent City, having motored to that place early in the morning.

Wells Taxi, 25c. Phone 25. *14

Mr. Roy Elliott, who for some time has been connected with Medford's fire department, and who several days ago decided to attend the Wilson-Kelley bungalow at Salem on April 13, has changed his mind again and decided not to go. This latest change came when he discovered that the 13th comes on Friday.

"Here dwells youth," attractive booklet. Get one free at Colvig Drugs, next to Hlatto theater. Open every night and Sundays. 20*

Konter LeRoy of Jarridge, Nev., arrived last week to visit his brother, Harry B. LeRoy, manager of Cargill Court. The brothers had not seen each other for 26 years and the visitor has plans of making his permanent home in Medford.

If you want a good building loan on a low rate of interest, see Redden & Co. 1217*

The young people's societies of the churches of Grants Pass will attend a sunrise service at Riverside park at seven o'clock this Easter morning.

Best Utah coal. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Wallace Singleton, special agent for the Standard Oil company in Medford, is in the Veterans' hospital at Portland, for a major operation.

Frank C. VanDyke, who is a Medford sophomore student at the Willamette university, has been elected manager of May day, which is an annual feature event of the university student activities.

This stormy weather has made it difficult for shoppers; however, the sale of pianos, Victrolas and radios, now going on at Palmer Music House has been very successful. The sale will continue all this week. If you have been wanting a bargain in a radio now is your time to get it. Several six-tube sets are being offered at one-third to one-half off. These sets have been used as demonstrators and are fully guaranteed. Special terms are in effect during the sale. 17*

Wm. N. Simpson, the well known wholesale drug house traveling representative of Portland, and who formerly made his headquarters in Medford, was in the city yesterday for a few hours yesterday with his wife, while they rested up at the Hotel Medford from an auto journey from Bend and other cities in that territory. They then continued on their journey home to Portland.

See Elmer Hanley Bush for recleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay, 824 E. Main. Phone 992. 3321*

Following an operation at the Community hospital for the removal of his tonsils, Chris Barker was removed to his home on West Second street yesterday.

"Here dwells youth," attractive booklet. Get one free at Colvig Drugs, next to Hlatto theater. Open every night and Sundays. 20*

Joe Jerome is the first one to be arrested for not observing the stop rules. This accounts for Mrs. Jerome's worried look.—Medford Hi-Times.

County warrants were issued yesterday at the county clerk's office to Anton Ring of Ashland for one coyote and Harvey Torrance of Jacksonville for one bob-cat. Torrance trapped the bob-cat on Jackson creek above Jacksonville near the city dam and reported last evening the cats are scarce in his section.

You must register to vote at the primary May 18. The new law puts a stop to swearing in votes on election day. Register at once with L. C. Garlock at the Chamber of Commerce or at county clerk's office in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Collins of Salem and former well known residents of Jacksonville and Medford were visitors in Roseburg over last Thursday.

"Be kind for a year for a dollar," said to Jackson County Humane Society, Medford. 26

The highways leading from Medford in all directions are now free of snow and are open to travel, according to the state highway department district office at Grants Pass. All the snow has melted from the highways over the Shiskyou and Green Springs mountains.

Miss Janecek will be at Shields' store all next week, giving hooked rug demonstrations. 17*

Circuit Judge O. M. Corkins of Lakeview, who is well known here through having presided in the local court during Judge Thomas' incapacity, is doing relief duty work in the Multnomah county circuit court, and was trying cases in Portland all last week.

Select your new spring suit at the Men's Shop, from the M. Horn and Ed V. Price lines. All the new weaves from $25 to $50. We guarantee fit and satisfaction. 3261*

It was just by accident that Stanley Rodgers, wrestler who formerly made his headquarters at Grants Pass, arrived in Medford Friday evening to see the Bull Montana and Al Karasick wrestling match. Rodgers had been in Los Angeles and was en route to Eugene, when at Ashland he noticed an advertising card announcing last night's match. He stopped off here and as a result was matched with Sam Chapman, the British Lion, for a bout in Medford April 16. Rodgers left yesterday morning for Eugene, but will be back early in the week.

Wells Taxi, 25c. Phone 25. *14

Walnut root grafting by experienced, successful walnut grafter. Call at address, 437 So. Fir. 20*

Echo Parvise, student of this city, has been appointed a vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. cadet at the Oregon Agricultural college.

You'll like our evening dinners, 55c and 65c. Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2941*

The annual military training camp for Oregon and part of Washington will be held this year at Vancouver, Wash., June 13 to July 15. The quota for Jackson county for the 1928 camp has been raised to six students.

That good coal. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Fish egg taking by the Oregon state game commission has started at seven hatcheries with excellent prospects for a larger take than last year, according to Matt A. Reikyman, superintendent of hatcheries, who expects to supervise personally the taking of rainbow trout eggs at Diamond Lake this spring and expects to snowshoe in to the hatchery in April, about a month earlier than last year due to the lighter snow. A record of 18,000,000 eggs was made last year at Diamond Lake and Reikyman expects to see that record fall this spring in the face of excellent conditions said to exist at the lake.

Sportsmen attending the game banquet at Ashland, April 11th, with extra room for passengers, please report to Chris Gottlieb, Chamber of Commerce. Likewise, those that have no means of transportation.

Fletcher Fish will leave for Portland today to attend the state board of horticulture meeting held in that city Monday.

See Charles A. Wing to buy your home. 29*

Ashland's city water supply will be normal next summer, according to City Water Superintendent David Hosler of that city. Prospects for a sufficient water supply were poor a week ago, but the recent heavy snows have increased almost by a half the depth of drifts on Ashland Butte, Hosler reports.

Beautiful Gaze and Monogram eastern capesux, featured exclusively at the Hand Box, 223 East 6th St., first door east of Groceries. Also more popular priced millinery. We invite you to our new shoppe. 18*

"Gee, it takes me a long time to get any place," sighed D. Hoover Bowerman yesterday afternoon as he stepped out of the new coupe he purchased last week. "You see," he explained, "I can only go 20 miles per hour and I used to go at least 40 wherever I went, but I understand that my new car can go a lot faster and even if I do say it, as soon as she's broken in, I'll show a lot of people real speed." And now state and city traffic officers are watching him constantly.

A license was issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to W. A. Mullen, advance man, for the Abner K. Kilne Shows to appear here at the fairgrounds from May 25 to June 2. The shows, which have been wintering in southern California, appeared here last year and left a favorable impression.

Della Stevens Meyer, county clerk, says that in order to accommodate the working people, she will keep the office open for registration of voters during the noon hour of April 13, 14, 16 and 17. 17*

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huffman and Georgianna Huffman, who had been visiting relatives at Ashland, Ore., have returned to their home here.

Easter lilies, hydrangeas and choice cut flowers, Medford Green House. Phone 274. Downtown sale at Colvig's drug store. 111*

Mr. and Mrs. Mark True, who reside on a ranch east of Ashland, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting with friends in Medford.

See Elmer Hanley Bush for recleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay, 824 E. Main. Phone 992. 3321*

Medford residents returning from Los Angeles recently relate that the other day they saw Stanley Sherwood of the local post-office at the Venice sea shore eating peanuts and watching the Mack Bennett bathing beauty girls in the Casino Division in the Elks building last Monday on his annual vacation of two weeks, for a visit with his brother Russell, of Los Angeles. Much money has been wagered here since that Russell will be lucky if his Oregon brother calls on him any longer than to say "Hello Russ, will be back in an hour or so, as the Medford postoffice which has so many friends, girls and boys, especially girls, in that city and surrounding territory.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Hotel Holland. Phone 993. 17*

The members of the Elks lodge will march from the Elks temple this evening to St. Mark's Episcopal church to attend the evening Easter services there at 7:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton, chaplain of the lodge. N. B. Newcomb Jr., has accepted a position with the Valley Fuel company.

Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Best Bates of the Roseburg News-Review, arrived in Medford yesterday afternoon to take part in the welcome and general reception of National Commander E. E. Spafford of the American Legion, who is to arrive this afternoon by airplane from Reno, Nev. Hemstitching 8c per yard. Buttons covered at Handcraft Shop. 17*

Gene Laymon and Charles Doney of the H. L. Pictures company, which filmed a comedy here this week, returned Friday evening from Klamath Falls, where they had spent the day on business. The two men, together with members of their company, will probably be in Medford until the middle of next week, according to present plans.

Which of these pianos do you know? A. B. Chase, Dush & Geriz, Wellington, Kingsbury, Monark, Baldwin, Meuller, Cumberland and Story & Clark, all these are on sale at the Palmer Music House. "We Sell Happiness." 17*

V. W. King of Salem is spending the week-end in Medford visiting friends.

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday forenoon to two brothers and two sisters, for whom a double wedding was held last evening at Cargill Court. The licenses were issued to Charles Coghill, 29, and Emma Simmons, 29, and to William Coghill, 24, and Sadie Simmons, 17. All are Medford residents. Licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to Frank Morris, 26, of Weed, Cal., and Ethel Hengan, 50, of Stockton, Cal., and to Primo Clark, 34, and Opal Marie Clemenson, 29, both of Medford.

Try our non-odorous merchants' lunch, 40c and 50c. Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2941*

After having been incapacitated for several months as the result of an airplane crash at Shasta Springs, Cal., while en route from Medford to San Francisco with the regular morning air mail, Arthur Starbuck resumed duties Friday as pilot of the San Francisco to Medford run. He declared last evening that he is back to normal and ready to fly air mail indefinitely.

Think of the gift importance of hooked rugs. They last a lifetime. All instructions free. Shields'. 17*

Robert Quick, Grants Pass boxing promoter, was among the visitors in Medford Friday evening and reports that preliminary preparations for the smookey to be held there next Friday are progressing. Joe Gorman will fight Middle McIntyre of Portland in the main event, which will be preceded by several preliminaries.

W. E. Carpenter, superintendent of the American Railway Express company out of San Francisco and Campbell, route agent out of Eugene, spent yesterday in the city making preliminary arrangements for the establishment of Medford as one of the principal landing points in the American Railway Express transcontinental route, which will go into effect April 15.

Attorney Frank J. Newman and George W. Nelson are home from Portland where they were representing the plaintiff in the damage suit in the United States district court of M. S. Kennedy vs. the California Oregon Power Co. The case was settled after the trial had commenced. Lonh-Neidmeyer accompanied Messrs. Newman and Nelson.

Be sure and see these elegant hooked rugs on display in our show window, Shields'. 17*

The page ad of the California Oregon Power company, designed by Herb Grey, the Mail Tribune advertising manager, and printed in the News-Review edition of this paper is reproduced in the Elks by Magazine of March, as a sample of high class ad writing and artistic arrangement and mechanical work.

Every man and woman over 21 years old who has resided in the state six months prior to the primary, May 18, is entitled to vote, but must register at county clerk's office. Medford residents register at Chamber of Commerce or county clerk's office. J. E. Partridge, civil engineer of the California Oregon Power company, has an illustrated article in the March number of Byllesby's Management, a monthly magazine on "The Cascade Divide in Oregon." It's a very well written article describing the counties and grandeur of that vast stretch of God's out-doors, that is possibly unexcelled anywhere in the United States.

The new Earlchild building on North Central avenue is gradually nearing completion, with workmen engaged for the past week laying the concrete floor, leaving only minor details to be completed before the building will be ready for occupancy, after having been in the course of construction for the past two months.

Notice. All persons desiring lots in I. O. O. F. cemetery taken care of, notify sexton at once. 17*

Sheep Owners, Attention! We are in position to pay you more than anybody for wool-mo-hair. See us before you sell. MEDFORD BARGAIN HOUSE, Phone 1062. 27 N. Crane St. 3291*

Victor McKenzie of Salem and Bert Bates of Roseburg were among the delegations of Legionnaires from various points throughout the state, who arrived in Medford yesterday to welcome Commander Spafford, who will arrive here at noon today.

Easter lilies, hydrangeas and choice cut flowers, Medford Green House. Phone 274. Downtown sale at Colvig's drug store. 111*

Miss Alice Takahira, an employee of the Jewel Cafe, is reported to be steadily improving at the Sacred Heart hospital, where she has been suffering from diphtheria.

Attention, M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors! Dance with refreshments, April 12th. Ladies 25c, gents 50c. 21*

Mrs. Merle Clasey, a former Medford junior high school teacher, was a visitor in Medford Friday with friends. Mrs. Clasey is a member of the Marshfield school faculty and spent yesterday with friends in Grants Pass.

The Fashion Shop adviser on wardrobe will call at your home. Appointment by telephone. One day a week. Phone 1341. 131*

DIAMOND WEDDING RINGS

Accurately cut, selected Diamonds of matched color and weight, perfectly set in platinum or white gold make these rings best selections.

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1910

Larry Schade
The Jeweler
Next to Craterian Theatre

FOR SALE

Beautiful Residence, 610 South Oakdale Ave.

Containing large living room, dining room, sewing room, kitchen, four bedrooms, one sleeping porch, two bath rooms; wood shed, hot water heating plant; lot 64x160 feet. House is in splendid condition. Price $10,000.00. Reasonable terms.

Phone 220-L for appointments to inspect.

Dahlia and Gladiolus Bulbs

We have a choice stock of home-grown Dahlia and Gladiolus bulbs for sale at reasonable prices. These bulbs are all our own raising and are prize-winning stock. Send for list of varieties and prices.

Hosler's Flower Gardens
ASHLAND, OREGON
Phone 341-J

Wm. N. Simpson, the well known wholesale drug house traveling representative of Portland, and who formerly made his headquarters in Medford, was in the city yesterday for a few hours yesterday with his wife, while they rested up at the Hotel Medford from an auto journey from Bend and other cities in that territory. They then continued on their journey home to Portland.

See Elmer Hanley Bush for recleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay, 824 E. Main. Phone 992. 3321*

Following an operation at the Community hospital for the removal of his tonsils, Chris Barker was removed to his home on West Second street yesterday.

"Here dwells youth," attractive booklet. Get one free at Colvig Drugs, next to Hlatto theater. Open every night and Sundays. 20*

Joe Jerome is the first one to be arrested for not observing the stop rules. This accounts for Mrs. Jerome's worried look.—Medford Hi-Times.

County warrants were issued yesterday at the county clerk's office to Anton Ring of Ashland for one coyote and Harvey Torrance of Jacksonville for one bob-cat. Torrance trapped the bob-cat on Jackson creek above Jacksonville near the city dam and reported last evening the cats are scarce in his section.

You must register to vote at the primary May 18. The new law puts a stop to swearing in votes on election day. Register at once with L. C. Garlock at the Chamber of Commerce or at county clerk's office in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Collins of Salem and former well known residents of Jacksonville and Medford were visitors in Roseburg over last Thursday.

"Be kind for a year for a dollar," said to Jackson County Humane Society, Medford. 26

The highways leading from Medford in all directions are now free of snow and are open to travel, according to the state highway department district office at Grants Pass. All the snow has melted from the highways over the Shiskyou and Green Springs mountains.

Miss Janecek will be at Shields' store all next week, giving hooked rug demonstrations. 17*

Circuit Judge O. M. Corkins of Lakeview, who is well known here through having presided in the local court during Judge Thomas' incapacity, is doing relief duty work in the Multnomah county circuit court, and was trying cases in Portland all last week.

Select your new spring suit at the Men's Shop, from the M. Horn and Ed V. Price lines. All the new weaves from $25 to $50. We guarantee fit and satisfaction. 3261*

It was just by accident that Stanley Rodgers, wrestler who formerly made his headquarters at Grants Pass, arrived in Medford Friday evening to see the Bull Montana and Al Karasick wrestling match. Rodgers had been in Los Angeles and was en route to Eugene, when at Ashland he noticed an advertising card announcing last night's match. He stopped off here and as a result was matched with Sam Chapman, the British Lion, for a bout in Medford April 16. Rodgers left yesterday morning for Eugene, but will be back early in the week.

Wells Taxi, 25c. Phone 25. *14

Walnut root grafting by experienced, successful walnut grafter. Call at address, 437 So. Fir. 20*

Echo Parvise, student of this city, has been appointed a vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. cadet at the Oregon Agricultural college.

You'll like our evening dinners, 55c and 65c. Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2941*

The annual military training camp for Oregon and part of Washington will be held this year at Vancouver, Wash., June 13 to July 15. The quota for Jackson county for the 1928 camp has been raised to six students.

That good coal. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Fish egg taking by the Oregon state game commission has started at seven hatcheries with excellent prospects for a larger take than last year, according to Matt A. Reikyman, superintendent of hatcheries, who expects to supervise personally the taking of rainbow trout eggs at Diamond Lake this spring and expects to snowshoe in to the hatchery in April, about a month earlier than last year due to the lighter snow. A record of 18,000,000 eggs was made last year at Diamond Lake and Reikyman expects to see that record fall this spring in the face of excellent conditions said to exist at the lake.

Sportsmen attending the game banquet at Ashland, April 11th, with extra room for passengers, please report to Chris Gottlieb, Chamber of Commerce. Likewise, those that have no means of transportation.

Fletcher Fish will leave for Portland today to attend the state board of horticulture meeting held in that city Monday.

See Charles A. Wing to buy your home. 29*

Ashland's city water supply will be normal next summer, according to City Water Superintendent David Hosler of that city. Prospects for a sufficient water supply were poor a week ago, but the recent heavy snows have increased almost by a half the depth of drifts on Ashland Butte, Hosler reports.

Beautiful Gaze and Monogram eastern capesux, featured exclusively at the Hand Box, 223 East 6th St., first door east of Groceries. Also more popular priced millinery. We invite you to our new shoppe. 18*

"Gee, it takes me a long time to get any place," sighed D. Hoover Bowerman yesterday afternoon as he stepped out of the new coupe he purchased last week. "You see," he explained, "I can only go 20 miles per hour and I used to go at least 40 wherever I went, but I understand that my new car can go a lot faster and even if I do say it, as soon as she's broken in, I'll show a lot of people real speed." And now state and city traffic officers are watching him constantly.

A license was issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to W. A. Mullen, advance man, for the Abner K. Kilne Shows to appear here at the fairgrounds from May 25 to June 2. The shows, which have been wintering in southern California, appeared here last year and left a favorable impression.

Della Stevens Meyer, county clerk, says that in order to accommodate the working people, she will keep the office open for registration of voters during the noon hour of April 13, 14, 16 and 17. 17*

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huffman and Georgianna Huffman, who had been visiting relatives at Ashland, Ore., have returned to their home here.

Easter lilies, hydrangeas and choice cut flowers, Medford Green House. Phone 274. Downtown sale at Colvig's drug store. 111*

Mr. and Mrs. Mark True, who reside on a ranch east of Ashland, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting with friends in Medford.

See Elmer Hanley Bush for recleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay, 824 E. Main. Phone 992. 3321*

Medford residents returning from Los Angeles recently relate that the other day they saw Stanley Sherwood of the local post-office at the Venice sea shore eating peanuts and watching the Mack Bennett bathing beauty girls in the Casino Division in the Elks building last Monday on his annual vacation of two weeks, for a visit with his brother Russell, of Los Angeles. Much money has been wagered here since that Russell will be lucky if his Oregon brother calls on him any longer than to say "Hello Russ, will be back in an hour or so, as the Medford postoffice which has so many friends, girls and boys, especially girls, in that city and surrounding territory.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Hotel Holland. Phone 993. 17*

The members of the Elks lodge will march from the Elks temple this evening to St. Mark's Episcopal church to attend the evening Easter services there at 7:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton, chaplain of the lodge. N. B. Newcomb Jr., has accepted a position with the Valley Fuel company.

Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Best Bates of the Roseburg News-Review, arrived in Medford yesterday afternoon to take part in the welcome and general reception of National Commander E. E. Spafford of the American Legion, who is to arrive this afternoon by airplane from Reno, Nev. Hemstitching 8c per yard. Buttons covered at Handcraft Shop. 17*

Gene Laymon and Charles Doney of the H. L. Pictures company, which filmed a comedy here this week, returned Friday evening from Klamath Falls, where they had spent the day on business. The two men, together with members of their company, will probably be in Medford until the middle of next week, according to present plans.

Which of these pianos do you know? A. B. Chase, Dush & Geriz, Wellington, Kingsbury, Monark, Baldwin, Meuller, Cumberland and Story & Clark, all these are on sale at the Palmer Music House. "We Sell Happiness." 17*

V. W. King of Salem is spending the week-end in Medford visiting friends.

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday forenoon to two brothers and two sisters, for whom a double wedding was held last evening at Cargill Court. The licenses were issued to Charles Coghill, 29, and Emma Simmons, 29, and to William Coghill, 24, and Sadie Simmons, 17. All are Medford residents. Licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to Frank Morris, 26, of Weed, Cal., and Ethel Hengan, 50, of Stockton, Cal., and to Primo Clark, 34, and Opal Marie Clemenson, 29, both of Medford.

Try our non-odorous merchants' lunch, 40c and 50c. Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2941*

After having been incapacitated for several months as the result of an airplane crash at Shasta Springs, Cal., while en route from Medford to San Francisco with the regular morning air mail, Arthur Starbuck resumed duties Friday as pilot of the San Francisco to Medford run. He declared last evening that he is back to normal and ready to fly air mail indefinitely.

Think of the gift importance of hooked rugs. They last a lifetime. All instructions free. Shields'. 17*

Robert Quick, Grants Pass boxing promoter, was among the visitors in Medford Friday evening and reports that preliminary preparations for the smookey to be held there next Friday are progressing. Joe Gorman will fight Middle McIntyre of Portland in the main event, which will be preceded by several preliminaries.

W. E. Carpenter, superintendent of the American Railway Express company out of San Francisco and Campbell, route agent out of Eugene, spent yesterday in the city making preliminary arrangements for the establishment of Medford as one of the principal landing points in the American Railway Express transcontinental route, which will go into effect April 15.

Attorney Frank J. Newman and George W. Nelson are home from Portland where they were representing the plaintiff in the damage suit in the United States district court of M. S. Kennedy vs. the California Oregon Power Co. The case was settled after the trial had commenced. Lonh-Neidmeyer accompanied Messrs. Newman and Nelson.

Be sure and see these elegant hooked rugs on display in our show window, Shields'. 17*

The page ad of the California Oregon Power company, designed by Herb Grey, the Mail Tribune advertising manager, and printed in the News-Review edition of this paper is reproduced in the Elks by Magazine of March, as a sample of high class ad writing and artistic arrangement and mechanical work.

Every man and woman over 21 years old who has resided in the state six months prior to the primary, May 18, is entitled to vote, but must register at county clerk's office. Medford residents register at Chamber of Commerce or county clerk's office. J. E. Partridge, civil engineer of the California Oregon Power company, has an illustrated article in the March number of Byllesby's Management, a monthly magazine on "The Cascade Divide in Oregon." It's a very well written article describing the counties and grandeur of that vast stretch of God's out-doors, that is possibly unexcelled anywhere in the United States.

The new Earlchild building on North Central avenue is gradually nearing completion, with workmen engaged for the past week laying the concrete floor, leaving only minor details to be completed before the building will be ready for occupancy, after having been in the course of construction for the past two months.

Notice. All persons desiring lots in I. O. O. F. cemetery taken care of, notify sexton at once. 17*

Sheep Owners, Attention! We are in position to pay you more than anybody for wool-mo-hair. See us before you sell. MEDFORD BARGAIN HOUSE, Phone 1062. 27 N. Crane St. 3291*

Victor McKenzie of Salem and Bert Bates of Roseburg were among the delegations of Legionnaires from various points throughout the state, who arrived in Medford yesterday to welcome Commander Spafford, who will arrive here at noon today.

Easter lilies, hydrangeas and choice cut flowers, Medford Green House. Phone 274. Downtown sale at Colvig's drug store. 111*

Miss Alice Takahira, an employee of the Jewel Cafe, is reported to be steadily improving at the Sacred Heart hospital, where she has been suffering from diphtheria.

Attention, M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors! Dance with refreshments, April 12th. Ladies 25c, gents 50c. 21*

Mrs. Merle Clasey, a former Medford junior high school teacher, was a visitor in Medford Friday with friends. Mrs. Clasey is a member of the Marshfield school faculty and spent yesterday with friends in Grants Pass.

The Fashion Shop adviser on wardrobe will call at your home. Appointment by telephone. One day a week. Phone 1341. 131*

These Drug Stores are open nights this week:

Jarmin & Woods
James McNair Pharmacy
West Side Pharmacy

THE HOTEL JACKSON

Dining Room

Union News Company Coast to Coast

Easter Menu

SOUPS
Broth of Chicken or Chicken Gumbo

SALADS
Crab Salad, Shrimp Salad, Combination

CHOICE OF
Roast Young Leg of Lamb with Fresh Mint Sauce
Baked Young Oregon Capons, Sage Dressing
Baked Hormel's Ham, Virginia Style

VEGETABLES
Fresh Peas in Cream
Mashed Potatoes
Hot Bread

DESSERTS
Apple Pie Mince Pie
Custard Pie Ice Cream
Baked Apple

DRINKS
Coffee, Cocoa, Tea, Milk
Postum

THOMAS O'NEIL
Local Chef-Manager

Investors

Dividends on the 7% PREFERRED stock of this Association are guaranteed by the earnings of over $1,000,000.00. This is an ideal investment

Jackson County Building & Loan Association

The Place to Invest Your Savings

Wm. N. Simpson, the well known wholesale drug house traveling representative of Portland, and who formerly made his headquarters in Medford, was in the city yesterday for a few hours yesterday with his wife, while they rested up at the Hotel Medford from an auto journey from Bend and other cities in that territory. They then continued on their journey home to Portland.

See Elmer Hanley Bush for recleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay, 824 E. Main. Phone 992. 3321*

Following an operation at the Community hospital for the removal of his tonsils, Chris Barker was removed to his home on West Second street yesterday.

"Here dwells youth," attractive booklet. Get one free at Colvig Drugs, next to Hlatto theater. Open every night and Sundays. 20*

Joe Jerome is the first one to be arrested for not observing the stop rules. This accounts for Mrs. Jerome's worried look.—Medford Hi-Times.

County warrants were issued yesterday at the county clerk's office to Anton Ring of Ashland for one coyote and Harvey Torrance of Jacksonville for one bob-cat. Torrance trapped the bob-cat on Jackson creek above Jacksonville near the city dam and reported last evening the cats are scarce in his section.

You must register to vote at the primary May 18. The new law puts a stop to swearing in votes on election day. Register at once with L. C. Garlock at the Chamber of Commerce or at county clerk's office in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Collins of Salem and former well known residents of Jacksonville and Medford were visitors in Roseburg over last Thursday.

"Be kind for a year for a dollar," said to Jackson County Humane Society, Medford. 26

The highways leading from Medford in all directions are now free of snow and are open to travel, according to the state highway department district office at Grants Pass. All the snow has melted from the highways over the Shiskyou and Green Springs mountains.

Miss Janecek will be at Shields' store all next week, giving hooked rug demonstrations. 17*

Circuit Judge O. M. Corkins of Lakeview, who is well known here through having presided in the local court during Judge Thomas' incapacity, is doing relief duty work in the Multnomah county circuit court, and was trying cases in Portland all last week.

Select your new spring suit at the Men's Shop, from the M. Horn and Ed V. Price lines. All the new weaves from $25 to $50. We guarantee fit and satisfaction. 3261*

It was just by accident that Stanley Rodgers, wrestler who formerly made his headquarters at Grants Pass, arrived in Medford Friday evening to see the Bull Montana and Al Karasick wrestling match. Rodgers had been in Los Angeles and was en route to Eugene, when at Ashland he noticed an advertising card announcing last night's match. He stopped off here and as a result was matched with Sam Chapman, the British Lion, for a bout in Medford April 16. Rodgers left yesterday morning for Eugene, but will be back early in the week.

Wells Taxi, 25c. Phone 25. *14

Walnut root grafting by experienced, successful walnut grafter. Call at address, 437 So. Fir. 20*

Echo Parvise, student of this city, has been appointed a vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. cadet at the Oregon Agricultural college.

You'll like our evening dinners, 55c and 65c. Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2941*

The annual military training camp for Oregon and part of Washington will be held this year at Vancouver, Wash., June 13 to July 15. The quota for Jackson county for the 1928 camp has been raised to six students.

That good coal. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Fish egg taking by the Oregon state game commission has started at seven hatcheries with excellent prospects for a larger take than last year, according to Matt A. Reikyman, superintendent of hatcheries, who expects to supervise personally the taking of rainbow trout eggs at Diamond Lake this spring and expects to snowshoe in to the hatchery in April, about a month earlier than last year due to the lighter snow. A record of 18,000,000 eggs was made last year at Diamond Lake and Reikyman expects to see that record fall this spring in the face of excellent conditions said to exist at the lake.

Sportsmen attending the game banquet at Ashland, April 11th, with extra room for passengers, please report to Chris Gottlieb, Chamber of Commerce. Likewise, those that have no means of transportation.

Fletcher Fish will leave for Portland today to attend the state board of horticulture meeting held in that city Monday.

See Charles A. Wing to buy your home. 29*

Ashland's city water supply will be normal next summer, according to City Water Superintendent David Hosler of that city. Prospects for a sufficient water supply were poor a week ago, but the recent heavy snows have increased almost by a half the depth of drifts on Ashland Butte, Hosler reports.

Beautiful Gaze and Monogram eastern capesux, featured exclusively at the Hand Box, 223 East 6th St., first door east of Groceries. Also more popular priced millinery. We invite you to our new shoppe. 18*

"Gee, it takes me a long time to get any place," sighed D. Hoover Bowerman yesterday afternoon as he stepped out of the new coupe he purchased last week. "You see," he explained, "I can only go 20 miles per hour and I used to go at least 40 wherever I went, but I understand that my new car can go a lot faster and even if I do say it, as soon as she's broken in, I'll show a lot of people real speed." And now state and city traffic officers are watching him constantly.

A license was issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to W. A. Mullen, advance man, for the Abner K. Kilne Shows to appear here at the fairgrounds from May 25 to June 2. The shows, which have been wintering in southern California, appeared here last year and left a favorable impression.

Della Stevens Meyer, county clerk, says that in order to accommodate the working people, she will keep the office open for registration of voters during the noon hour of April 13, 14, 16 and 17. 17*

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huffman and Georgianna Huffman, who had been visiting relatives at Ashland, Ore., have returned to their home here.

Easter lilies, hydrangeas and choice cut flowers, Medford Green House. Phone 274. Downtown sale at Colvig's drug store. 111*

Mr. and Mrs. Mark True, who reside on a ranch east of Ashland, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting with friends in Medford.

See Elmer Hanley Bush for recleaned alfalfa seed and baled hay, 824 E. Main. Phone 992. 3321*

Medford residents returning from Los Angeles recently relate that the other day they saw Stanley Sherwood of the local post-office at the Venice sea shore eating peanuts and watching the Mack Bennett bathing beauty girls in the Casino Division in the Elks building last Monday on his annual vacation of two weeks, for a visit with his brother Russell, of Los Angeles. Much money has been wagered here since that Russell will be lucky if his Oregon brother calls on him any longer than to say "Hello Russ, will be back in an hour or so, as the Medford postoffice which has so many friends, girls and boys, especially girls, in that city and surrounding territory.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Hotel Holland. Phone 993. 17*

The members of the Elks lodge will march from the Elks temple this evening to St. Mark's Episcopal church to attend the evening Easter services there at 7:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton, chaplain of the lodge. N. B. Newcomb Jr., has accepted a position with the Valley Fuel company.

Utah coal, clean, low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 3371*

Best Bates of the Roseburg News-Review, arrived in Medford yesterday afternoon to take part in the welcome and general reception of National Commander E. E. Spafford of the American Legion, who is to arrive this afternoon by airplane from Reno, Nev. Hemstitching 8c per yard. Buttons covered at Handcraft Shop. 17*

Gene Laymon and Charles Doney of the H. L. Pictures company, which filmed a comedy here this week, returned Friday evening from Klamath Falls, where they had spent the day on business. The two men, together with members of their company, will probably be in Medford until the middle of next week, according to present plans.

Which of these pianos do you know? A. B. Chase, Dush & Geriz, Wellington, Kingsbury, Monark, Baldwin, Meuller, Cumberland and Story & Clark, all these are on sale at the Palmer Music House. "We Sell Happiness." 17*

V. W. King of Salem is spending the week-end in Medford visiting friends.

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday forenoon to two brothers and two sisters, for whom a double wedding was held last evening at Cargill Court. The licenses were issued to Charles Coghill, 29, and Emma Simmons, 29, and to William Coghill, 24, and Sadie Simmons, 17. All are Medford residents. Licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to Frank Morris, 26, of Weed, Cal., and Ethel Hengan, 50, of Stockton, Cal., and to Primo Clark, 34, and Opal Marie Clemenson, 29, both of Medford.

Try our non-odorous merchants' lunch, 40c and 50c. Jackson Hotel Coffee Shop. 2941*

After having been incapacitated for several months as the result of an airplane crash at Shasta Springs, Cal., while en route from Medford to San Francisco with the regular morning air mail, Arthur Starbuck resumed duties Friday as pilot of the San Francisco to Medford run. He declared last evening that he is back to normal and ready to fly air mail indefinitely.

Think of the gift importance of hooked rugs. They last a lifetime. All instructions free. Shields'. 17*

Robert Quick, Grants Pass boxing promoter, was among the visitors in Medford Friday evening and reports that preliminary preparations for the smookey to be held there next Friday are progressing. Joe Gorman will fight Middle McIntyre of Portland in the main event, which will be preceded by several preliminaries.

W. E. Carpenter, superintendent of the American Railway Express company out of San Francisco and Campbell, route agent out of Eugene, spent yesterday in the city making preliminary arrangements for the establishment of Medford as one of the principal landing points in the American Railway Express transcontinental route, which will go into effect April 15.

Attorney Frank J. Newman and George W. Nelson are home from Portland where they were representing the plaintiff in the damage suit in the United States district court of M. S. Kennedy vs. the California Oregon Power Co. The case was settled after the trial had commenced. Lonh-Neidmeyer accompanied Messrs. Newman and Nelson.

Be sure and see these elegant hooked rugs on display in our show window, Shields'. 17*

The page ad of the California Oregon Power company, designed by Herb Grey, the Mail Tribune advertising manager, and printed in the News-Review edition of this paper is reproduced in the Elks by Magazine of March, as a sample of high class ad writing and artistic arrangement and mechanical work.

Every man and woman over 21 years old who has resided in the state six months prior to the primary, May 18, is entitled to vote, but must register at county clerk's office. Medford residents register at Chamber of Commerce or county clerk's office. J. E. Partridge, civil engineer of the California Oregon Power company, has an illustrated article in the March number of Byllesby's Management, a monthly magazine on "The Cascade Divide in Oregon." It's a very well written article describing the counties and grandeur of that vast stretch of God's out-doors, that is possibly unexcelled anywhere in the United States.

The new Earlchild building on North Central avenue is gradually nearing completion, with workmen engaged for the past week laying the concrete floor, leaving only minor details to be completed before the building will be ready for occupancy, after having been in the course of construction for the past two months.

Notice. All persons desiring lots in I. O. O. F. cemetery taken care of, notify sexton at once. 17*

Sheep Owners, Attention! We are in position to pay you more than anybody for wool-mo-hair. See us before you sell. MEDFORD BARGAIN HOUSE, Phone 1062. 27 N. Crane St. 3291*