The Southern Pacific passenger office, 245 Medford National Bank building, has secured a block of 150 reserved seats in the grandstand for the opening game of the Pacific Coast league in Portland April 17th. This will enable fans to secure tickets for the game before leaving for Portland, doing away with delay and the chance of not being able to secure suitable seats upon reaching Portland. Unsold tickets must be returned by Saturday, April 14th as all seating seats should be made up by then. It will also be well for those contemplating making the trip to come early so that sufficient chair car and Pullman spaces will be available.

There will be a rally at the Presbyterian church, Friday the 12th, beginning at 6:30 p. m. All Christians Endeavorers are expected to be present.

BUILDING NEWS ITEMS

To Be Feature of Local Lumber Co. Advertising

Will Bring Public Attention to Special Features of New and Remodeled Homes Buildings.

Of special interest to those who contemplate building a home or other buildings, will be the part of this novel service that brings attention to the modern and new ideas, some of which are brought out in every new structure. The average builder who wishes to embody in his new home every possible modern idea will find many of such in the columns of the "Building News."

Reports Will Be Given of Larger Construction

From time to time news stories will be published giving progress reports on the various larger buildings and calling attention to any special types of construction.

Monthly Summary of Building Permits to Be Part of Service.

The "BUILDING NEWS" will once a month give a summary of the past month's list of the new buildings started and giving comparative figures of the same period of the year preceding.

Stories and Reports Will Be Accurate

Particular attention will be given to insure the accuracy of any statement which appears in the "BUILDING NEWS" Columns. The monthly reports of building will be taken from the city building records and will be as accurate as this source of information will permit.

THE FUTURE OF "BUILDING NEWS"

The display above, entitled "BUILDING NEWS," is printed in this issue of the Mail Tribune as an example of a special service which we will publish on this page in each Monday's issue of this paper. It is our hope to promote an interest in the new developments of home construction and to keep the public, through these columns, informed of such developments as they may occur in the many new residences in and around Medford. Any criticism or suggestions for the improvement of this service will be appreciated.

Yours for Better Building.
