

PORTLAND HIGH SCHOOL GIRL IS SOME DETECTIVE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 9.—Two men are under arrest, charged with receiving stolen goods, and officers have recovered a large amount of property which they believe stolen in recent burglaries in Portland, as a result of detective work done by Marian Lafave, 15, Grant high school girl.

Noticing another Grant high school girl wear a tie and a blouse stolen along with clothing and other articles from her home some time ago, Marian struck up an acquaintance with the girl and visited the house where she saw some of the things that had been stolen from her home.

EASTER SERVICES IN MEDFORD WERE WELL ATTENDED

Easter is the most popular church-going day in the year, if yesterday's attendance record means anything. Beginning with the young people's sunrise prayer meeting conducted by Rev. C. E. Mell of the Christian church at 7 o'clock yesterday morning near Phoenix, and ending with evening services in the various churches in the city, capacity congregations were reported by all churches.

Special programs of music, and sermons embodying all the sentiment and beauty of Easter, were heartily enjoyed by the crowds who turned out for church in large numbers.

A special program of music in the Baptist church, including Easter hymns from old and new collections, the double quartet with Mrs. Frank Isaacs as soloist in the Presbyterian church, a program of music and drama depicting Christianity in the South American cities in the Zion Lutheran church were all heartily appreciated by the congregations.

The First Presbyterian church also had beautiful special features and a charming music program. The annual Easter services for the Elks were conducted by Rev. Wm. E. Hamilton at St. Mark's last night, and the Elks turned out in a body.

The First M. E. church services were broadcast in the morning by KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, for the benefit of those who could not attend.
