

JANE DIXON STAR OF SENIOR PLAY, CAST IS CAPABLE

Smoothly presented, with the usual minor flaws of amateur productions absent, the presentation of "The Patsy," three-act senior class play, at the Craterian theatre last night was given the stamp of approval of the large audience that witnessed it, emphasizing its approval by bursts of applause throughout the three acts.

Perhaps the outstanding character of the evening was Jane Dixon, who dramatized the part of Patricia Harrington, the Patsy of the Harrington family, who by throwing her entire spirit into the part gave one of the best dramatizations seen in local amateur productions in a long time. The difficult part of William Harrington, father of Patricia, was taken with apparent ease by Amby Fredericks, who is still remembered for the part he took in last year's play given by the junior class.

Fredericks, with his head entirely grey, reminded the audience of the average American father, and his problems with a finicky wife, a petulant daughter and a daughter who, by her mother and sister, was made the "Patsy" of the family. His portrayal of the hesperated father, who finally discovers that he can manage his family, was perfect, his speech and actions being synonymous of advancing age.

Insolence, jealousy and pride were clearly brought out by Camille Clemenson in the part of Grace Harrington, the overbearing sister, whose sharp tongue was not only directed at Patricia but also at her mother, the part of whom was admirably played by Alice Roberts, whose ever ready handkerchief brought realism to the production. Her sharp tongue caused her engagement with Billy Caldwell, played by Robert Stoltz, to be broken, with Billy stomping out of the room in a professional fashion when he had heard enough of his fiancée's shrill chatter.

The quiet Tony Anderson, a successful real estate agent, was well done by Stanford Hiden, who, after falling in love with Grace, discovers finally that it is Patricia who is to be his own, helping her to gain her rightful place in the Harrington family. Sadie Buchanan, a minor part, was taken by Anita Mohr, while Mr. O'Flaherty, who appeared for only a short time, was portrayed by George Silliman. O'Flaherty was a well meaning friend of Patricia. "Trip" Rusty, a wise-cracking taxi driver, was taken by Barry Rodgers.

Mrs. Justin Smith, who for two years past has directed high school plays, also directed last night's production. The setting for the play was effectively designed by Cecil Davis, class stage manager, in conjunction with Thomas Swem, and its good appearance brought forth a burst of applause when the curtain was first raised. The high school orchestra, composed of 18 pieces, played four well received selections under the direction of F. Wilson Waite between acts and before and after the first and final acts.

Gowns worn were furnished by Mann's and Adrienne Stewart.

Leaders of Sports Give Endorsements to Lucky Strike

A page ad for Lucky Strike cigarettes appears elsewhere in this paper, giving endorsements by Frances Alda, Metropolitan Opera star; King Vidor, motion picture director; Willie Hoppe, billiard champion; Vincent Richards, tennis star; "Toxy" of broadcasting fame; and Paul G. Wanner, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, all of whose pictures appear in the page.

They advertise: "They all agree Lucky Strikes give the greatest pleasure, are mild and mellow, made of choicest tobaccos, properly aged, blended with great skill, it's toasted, no harshness, not a bit of bite, no throat irritation, no cough."

Charles Chaplin in "The Circus"

Charlie Chaplin, director and producer of "The Circus," the new comedy, comes to Hunt's Craterian tomorrow. Charlie thinks that not any book can be filmed, that a moving picture made from a book necessarily must be a reincarnation, and that the movie should be judged distinctly from the book.

"I am wild about Thomas Burke's writing," says Charlie, who has known the English writer intimately for many years. "I loved 'Limehouse Nights' and 'The Wind and the Rain,' yet I would not think of trying to express the emotion of either book in films. He writes his pictures in with words, gives the emotion and the feeling with words, and I do it in my own way. I am too much of an egoist to put a book into films, anyway. I would not feel it was my own creation, my own baby. I like to make up my own things. 'You know, I wrote and directed 'The Circus' myself.'"

Love Announces for Co. Commissioner

J. G. Love, owner of the Snowy Butte orchard near Central Point, has filed as a candidate for the nomination for county commissioner on the republican ticket at the May primary.

Mr. Love was a farmer and stockman in Iowa for a number of years and came to Jackson county about eight years ago and purchased the orchard, where he has since made his home.

Mr. Love is a successful and well posted farmer and agriculturist.

BEAVERS NOSE OUT OAKS IN OPENER

(By The Associated Press) Oakland's eighth-inning rally, netting four runs, fell just one short of tying the score, and Portland walked off with the series opener, 7-8. Batteries: French, Warhop and Reso; Cooper and Doel.

Singles by Jolley and Mishkin each driving in a run in the first inning were the only scores registered in the Seals-Missions game, the Seals winning, 2-0. Mitchell kept the Bells' nine hits well scattered. Batteries: Mitchell and Sprinz; Hughes and Baldwin.

Believing Weatherly in the third when Los Angeles' southpaw developed a streak of wildness, Gabler, 18-year-old Angel rookie, shut out Hollywood with five hits for the rest of the contest, and Los Angeles took the first game of the series, 3-2. Batteries: Weatherly, Gabler and Sandberg; Fullerton and Agnew.

Helting two Seattle hurlers for nine runs in the fourth and fifth innings, Sacramento coasted to a 19-to-3 victory over the Indians. Tachac held the northerners safe until forced to retire with an injured hand. Batteries: House, Sunseri, Teachout and Parker; Tachac, Vinci and Koehler.

VALLEY ENTRANT IN DERBY GAINS

(By The Associated Press) CLINTON, Okla., April 11.—(AP)—With a 50-mile trek from Sayre failing to change the status of Andrew Payne and Peter Gavuzzi in the cross country marathon, these leaders today had a 35-mile jaunt to Bridgeport to further test their endurance.

Payne, who hails from Claremore, Okla., retained his leadership by covering the 50 miles yesterday in a dead heat with Gavuzzi in 8:21:24. This gave the Oklahoman an elapsed time of 2:4:54:37 for the 1386 miles from Los Angeles. Gavuzzi, Southampton, England, entry, held second place with a total of 2:36:19:29. Eighty-two runners and walkers remain in the race to New York.

4 PLAYERS LEFT 3-CUSHION PLAY

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, April 11.—(AP)—Only four players, Willie Hoppe of New York, John Layton of St. Louis, Gus Copulos of Detroit, and Otto Reibelt of Philadelphia, the defending champion, were considered in the running for the national three-cushion billiards title today.

Willie Hoppe and Layton were tied for first place with only one defeat in five starts. Copulos was proving the tartar of the race. After a poor start, he has shown a reversal of form, making difficult shots and leaving his opponents difficult ones. Today he was in third place with five victories and two defeats.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press) DEN MOINES, Iowa.—Mike Mandell, St. Paul, knocked out Kenneth Hunt, Des Moines, (4). INDIANAPOLIS.—Jack Kane, Chicago, outpointed Tony Ross, Pittsburgh, (10). ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Alex Hart, Philadelphia, won over Alex Simms, Canton, Ohio, (10). TOLEDO, Ohio.—Panama Al Brown, New York, defeated Steve Nugent, Cleveland, foul, (2).

SPORT BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 11.—(AP)—Labor has joined forces with sports through the sportsmanship brotherhood for a mammoth athletic carnival in this city next Labor day.

At a meeting of the Town Hall club, representatives of labor and sports organizations agreed upon a program whereby members of organized labor will compete in various fields of athletics.

In the event the plan for the metropolitan district is successful, a national sports program by labor is contemplated. The Massachusetts Sportsmanship Brotherhood sponsored a campaign some time ago which sent a select team of American working men to England, while a team of British artisans played a return engagement in this country.

LOS ANGELES, April 11.—(AP)—Howard Jones, football coach at the University of Southern California, today had an idea of what he will have in the way of material with which to fashion his gridiron team, and his verdict was one of satisfaction. Eleven youths pranced—perhaps somewhat stiffly and awkwardly—about the field here in the first Trojan spring workout and, on the whole, the turnout was pleasing to Jones and his assistants, both from the standpoint of numbers and class of material.

Four of last year's regular backs will be available to Jones. They are Russ Saunders, Don Williams, Lloyd Thomas and Harry Edelson. Saunders is to get a chance at the quarterback position, Williams also will hold the signal caller's berth, but he probably will be used principally to outspeed the opposition after someone else has done the necessary battering.

Wanted! A NEW NAME

We Have Decided to Change the Name of the Jackson County Creamery And for the 7 Best Suggestions We Will Give

In Paris!

Now, American girls are showing the French how to wear clothes! Doris Padmore, lovely New York City girl whose home is at 70 Barrow Street, is in Paris, displaying gowns for Jean Patou, the famous French designer.

The girls over there have another trick to learn from her. She says: "Everyone marvels at the lustre and softness of my hair. Many of the girls ask me if I use Danderine. I always delight in telling the easy way we New York girls take care of our hair. All we do is just put a few dashes of Danderine on our brushes each time we dress our hair. The first few times I used it all my dandruff disappeared and every time it gives new sparkle and life to my hair. It keeps it in place, too, just like I arrange it and makes my scalp always feel grand. I don't have to shampoo nearly so often either, now that I'm using Danderine."

Every application of Danderine refreshes and tones your scalp. It removes the oily film and makes every strand gleam with new lustre. It dissolves dandruff and keeps it out of your hair. It isn't sticky or oily. All drug stores have the big 35c bottles.
