The Josephine county court at its regular weekly meeting appropriated $500 to be used for advertising purposes by the Cave-men. The Cave-men had just abandoned their plan of going to Vancouver, B. C., with the Redwood Empire association the latter part of this month because of the lack of finances. The county court believes that if 15 to 20 of the members of the organization will make the trip, the advertising will be worth many times the amount expended, and therefore declared their willingness to aid in the trip.
