TERRY TALENT PROMINENT IN PORTLAND RAID

Terry Talent, local federal prohibition officer, figured prominently in the raids by federal and state officers in Portland Wednesday night. One of the several places raided was a beer garden. In gaining entrance to the place, which was located in the upper floor of a two-story wood frame store building, the arresting officers had been held at bay for some little time by a heavy door set in the stairway. Entrance finally was forced by reaching over a small transom with a hook and slipping the bolt. Later the door was torn from its hinges, but so securely had it been fastened that it refused to wield until the supporting sills had been entirely chopped away. Terry Talent did the chopping.

Mr. Talent, who has been on official duties in Seattle and Portland for a few weeks, returned to Medford last night, accompanied by W. K. Newell of Portland, deputy federal prohibition administrator, who will spend two or three days in Medford and southern Oregon.

With the Eagle Point help and the good live officers chosen, the organization will be a great help to the community in general, but each member will need to help, for officers can not work alone to any great advantage.

Some of the Sams Valley Grangers will attend the Grange organization meeting at Central Point Thursday when, from the present prospects, a good livewire Grange will be organized, taking in territory around Central Point, Tolo and Willow Springs.

With the orchards, as well as the many fragrant wild flowers in full blossom, there could be no lovelier or sweeter place found than our own little precinct is now.

The Ladies' club met Thursday with Mrs. Mary McKinnis, where a good attendance and a profitable day was had. The home demonstrator, as well as Mrs. Satchwell, a Medford representative of the Federated Women's clubs, were present. FOOTS CREEK NEWS

Mrs. Emma Colby, after a short illness, is again at work in our school. We feel honest, faithful teachers deserve great credit for their work, and we surely have two good teachers in Foots Creek.

Mesdames Kettle and Jones presented Hallie and Jean Vieaux with Easter bunnies.

The new owners of the Black Channel mine had three carloads of the best Douglas fir lumber shipped here to build a dredge. While unloading this lumber, Fred Drahm, the caretaker, had his collar bone and shoulder blade broken and two ribs broken loose from the spinal column. A doctor and ambulance were called from Medford and the injured man hurried to the Sacred Heart hospital.

Miss Emma Gaunyaw of Medford, is spending the week on the creek wtih her sister, Mrs. George Lance.

Just now the southern Oregon country is showing off all the beauty nature has bestowed upon her. The blossoming pear orchards are a sight for sore eyes.

Last Saturday Foots Creek people had their first food sale. Many nice things were bought and sold as soon as put on the table. The sale netted $20, which was given to the parent-teachers to apply on the new piano. Mesdames Lamb, Ferry, Putnam and Miss Dorothy Lamb and John Ferry gave a musical program which was a rare treat. Little Hallie Vieaux, aged four years, recited a poem of 30 lines, speaking so she was heard and understood by all. Marjorie Barbara Skelton gave an Easter poem, while Master Johnnie Short, accompanied by his teacher, Mrs. Putnam, made his debut as a violinist. And last but not least, Mrs. Elliott, accompanied by Mrs. Ora Smith at the piano, gave us two selection on the harp, which was once called a mouth organ. Several ladies hid colored eggs and then the children were sent in search of them. Elizabeth Ferry received the prize for finding the most eggs. Mrs. Lance then passed candy, eggs, chickens and bunnies to all the children present. Mrs. Lance is deserving of great praise for making a success of our first food sale. While too much praise cannot be given to those who made the musical program a success.

The Jim Childers family are the proud owners of a new piano. They gave an informal dance on Saturday night to help celebrate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Carle spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Ashland, attending the meetings of the Presbytery of southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lance were entertained at dinner on Easter Sunday at the Champlin home.

Rev. Iverson preached for us Easter morning. Fifty persons were present. Mesdames Lamb, Buldoc, Putnam, Miss Dorothy Lamb, John Ferry and Warren Evans gave a fine Easter program with song, violin and piano.

After listening to reports from various churches and Sunday schools for two days, we came home feeling our children are doing good work in Sunday school, and that our teachers measure up well with the teachers in other Sunday schools.
