Ye Smudge Pot... By Arthur Perry

A week ago, the justices of the state supreme court, according to reports in the press, announced that if they were properly approached, they would recommend that Messrs. Willos and Kelley, doomed to die at the end of a rope, be instead retained for life within state prison walls.

THE LEPTHAND SLAP (Palo Bee) It is reported that Emil Warbuck is recovering from his recent illness and is able to be up and about.

Considerable complaint is being filed against the weather, which does not seem to know what it wants to do, and your corr. has been asked to call it up on the carpet.

Congress proposes to spend $1,200,000,000 for Mississippi flood relief and control, the relief being for Americans and the money for the perpetually starving Armenians.

IT IS TO LAUGH (NY Evening Post) Well, verily as we are in the exciting hum of prohibition, a new and major contribution seems to us to lie in the visit of federal agents to Kansas City and Houston to ward off bootleggers from the great national conventions which are going to fight so hard for "home-dry" platforms.

A reward of $5 is offered for the apprehension of an autist who pays the slightest attention to the lamp-post decorations, prohibiting reverse turns at prominent corners.

Gas tires are not polluting this spring, either, as plentiful as in years gone by.

At the present time he is stopping at the Ambassador hotel on Park avenue, where povermanians on platinum chains snap at the servants with gold bridgeweaver (Portland Oregonian.) You can't blame the "poms."

FLY-TOX HELPS REDUCE INFANT MORTALITY Every year in the United States 250,000 children under 10 years of age die.

Editorial Correspondence

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—We enjoyed the high honor of seeing the California-Stanford baseball game with President Campbell of the University of California.

In fact it was this kick in the back that induced us to turn around and discover we were in such distinguished company.

The president's eyebrows fell out and down, until in some places they meet the eyelashes—an arrangement somewhat resembling the desert camel's eye-contractance, so useful in a sand storm.

President Campbell was accompanied by another professor who brought his young son, "Bald-win," to see the ball game.

Maldwin was as full of slangy monosyllables as his father was of classical polysyllables.

Professor B.: Yes, the throwing is interesting—such speed and accuracy. The English are always greatly amazed by the ease with which the American ball player gathers in a ball of high trajectory.

P. C.: Yes, it shows a wonderful coordination of eye and hand—I question the accuracy of that decision at first. Of course I am glad to see our boys win but—

P. B.: But you must realize the umpire views such a play from a superior parolax.

P. C.: No doubt. But that spirit of derision, that booping, I can't accustom myself to it. To me it doesn't seem good sportsmanship.

P. B.: Yes, that ends the game, and I am glad our boys won. Come on Baldwin, did you enjoy the game?

Baldwin: I'd say. Keen, gosh those Stanford's are dumb.

P. B.: Bald-win! It was an extraordinary game when one considers it was for the most intercollegiate championship.

Some chain stores count the customers as they come in, but doubtless drug stores wait until night and count the gum wads under the tables.

Funny man. He never worries about things he knows are permanent, but only about things he intends to change.

Few feathered folk are handsomer than the jaybird. Which proves that clothes don't make the man unless he keeps still.

Pullmans have a slot for discarded razor blades, but the commuter's special hasn't yet provided a place for used toothpicks.

Hindenburg wears a crepe de chine night cap, and there's nothing you can do by way of protest except to take an unusually large claw.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D. Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

THE BABY'S FINE BREATH

Whew! I am afraid, euphemistically speaking, though really I don't care a hoot what any old fogey may think, say or do about my teachings, but I'm afraid all the old fogies in and out of the profession—and what a powerful lot of 'em there are in both categories—will be tempted to say something when I state a simple, elementary, unadventurous, scientific fact here, to-wit, that spanking the baby has nothing to do with the beginning of natural breathing.

The Pacific Atlantic fleet is in the bay—quite a sight both in the day and at night. We took a trip to the big airplane carrier Saratoga in a small motorboat, covered with canvas to keep off the spray, and several people, including a small boy on our right, was seasick.

The Saratoga is like a steel office building on the water. We climbed three flights of stairs to the deck, which is 50 feet above the water line.

Physiologists years ago discovered the old theory that respiration is due to stimulation from the skin surface. They have learned that stimulation is due to chemical stimulation of the respiratory center of the brain by carbon dioxide in the blood.

At a right, then, it is about time to leave the spanking business, and the cruel and dangerous custom of plunging the newborn infant in cold water, and all that infernal hum down to the Mrs. Garretts, and try the newfangled gearshift.

On the other hand, New Zealand, short in hundred time millionaires, is the richest country in the world, per capita. New Zealand's AVERAGE wealth is $3,371.70.

That, however, is the fault of the stupid czars. Russia will not remain poor. With such a ruler as Peter the Great, civilized, Russia would be the world's richest country.

Governor Smith, of New York, is warmly welcomed in the south, and is as good as nominated, now. He visits a fire engine house in North Carolina, says "Hello boys" to the men, and they know that he has been in many a fire house before, had understands the work done there.

Many friends offer advice about his campaign, and how to run it. He is advised, here, to put his charming daughter in charge of the campaign speech making. She understands it.

Rippling Rhymes

THE GOOD WORKMAN

I view with admiration the man who does things well, whatever his vocation—it's splendid to excel. The tailor finds much pleasure in his absorbing game, as with his tape-line measure he walks around my frame; I am not an Apollo. I'm hugging here and there, and here and there I'm hollow, and have no beef to spare.

Animals' Friend

Hoboes have a sign system by which their fellows may find the houses where help is most likely to be received. An incredible number of the feline and canine seem to meander up the wide walk to the white door of the Fazenda mansion.

COMPLEXION IMPROVED... QUICKLY

Acid Stomach

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

A new shorthand, called speed writing, translatable by any intelligent operator, makes it possible to send a picture and 2500 words by telephone. The American Telephone & Telegraph company sent a picture and a 2500-word message from New York to Los Angeles in seven minutes.

Mr. Gifford and his associates are to be congratulated on this new saving of time and labor. What ever saves labor and time makes human labor more valuable and higher wages possible.

World-famous characters will be entertained in Medford tomorrow when "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" plays at Hunt's Craterian.

Do you find yourself running down—always tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions scanty, too frequent or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

DOAN'S PILLS, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor 50,000 Users Endorse Doan's!

THE BABY'S FINE BREATH

Abe Martin

A few hot newspaper editorials directed at folks who cross streets without looking right or left, and who deliberately and defiantly walk in front of fast moving cars, might save a lot more lives than hoptin' on careless drivers.
