BANQUET PLANNED BY CITY CHURCHES FOR NEXT MONDAY

As an addition to the Christian workers' school being held under the auspices of five of the churches of the city, plans are being laid to have a great men's banquet and program for the men of these co-operating churches next Monday night at 6:30 p. m. The main speaker of the evening will be Rev. Henry M. Campbell, D. D., of San Francisco, who is field secretary for the men's work department of the Presbyterian church on the coast. He has addressed thousands of men all over the coast in their great Christian gatherings and the men of Medford will consider it a worthwhile hour spent with him and in splendid Christian fellowship. The place of the banquet and program will be announced soon. The men of the churches are urged to save this night for this purpose.

COMMENCEMENT SENIOR CLASS TO BE HELD JUNE 1

Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall will be the speaker of the day at the high school commencement this year, the date of which has been set for Friday, June 1. This announcement was made by City School Superintendent E. H. Hedrick, who, in co-operation with high school officials, faculty members and class officers and committees, is rounding out the final plans for the largest commencement program ever held in Medford.

Both these exercises and the baccalaureate services will be conducted at Hunt's Craterian theater, the latter to be held the evening of May 29, with Rev. W. H. Eaton of the local Baptist church delivering the baccalaureate sermon. The former custom of holding the baccalaureate services one week before commencement, was broken this year for the first time, on account of the date falling upon Memorial day. Mr. Hedrick said that he was not in favor of having the high school program conflict with, or detract from the observances of Memorial day.

D'MOLAY CONTEST FOR QUEEN CLOSE

Competition is becoming keener as the contest draws nearer the close. Miss Stearns still leads with 1869 votes. Miss Edna Mae Wells is a very close second with 1700. The rest of the contestants' standings are as follows: Misses Elvora Hulander, 1155 votes; Olive Lantis, 1115; Edith Stump, 1069, and Dorothea Kiddell, 1016.

Votes will be sold for one week longer, and the leading contestant will be announced by the manager of the Junior class hi-jinks. It will be announced from the dance floor at midnight.

The queen and the DeMolay patrol will compete with the other chapters for honors at the state convocation in Salem, May 4th and 5th.

The patrol has been working diligently during the past months. They hope to duplicate their record made by the 1926 team, when they won first place. The patrol was unable to compete last year because of various obstacles. This year the patrol is very fortunate in having an excellent leader in the person of William E. Lewis.

One of the chief obstacles of the DeMolays this year is obtaining transportation to the convocation. Some of the loyal supporters of the boys have pledged cars for the trip. They are: Higgins & Robinson, Pierce-Allen, Chrysler Agency, Graham-Paige and Glenn Fabric.

The largest senior class in the history of Medford high, will receive their diplomas this year, the present list numbering 98 members. That the next six weeks of examinations will probably diminish the list slightly, was the prediction of Superintendent Hedrick, who said that three or four of the present enrollment would have to make up work missed, through the summer school session.

DISTRICT MEET OF YEOMAN FRIDAY

On Friday evening of this week there will be a big joint meeting of Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford homeosteds in this city, at the W. O. W. hall, for the purpose of greeting two officials from the supreme office at Des Moines, Geo. P. Wall, supreme secretary, and Mr. Page, personal representative of the supreme president, will be present to extend greetings from the home office to all southern Oregon Yeomen.

These gentlemen were so impressed with the drilling of the Medford Bloomers Girls at the Salem meeting last Friday that they re-arranged their itinerary so as to attend a meeting of the homeosted that could produce such a team.

The membership should show their appreciation of this visit by attending this meeting and making it the outstanding meeting of the year.

There will be a big class adoption as well as drills by the Bloomer Girls.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL AT CENTRAL POINT

A May day festival, surpassing anything ever before attempted in the Central Point schools, is being planned for the evening of May 1st. All the children of the grades, appropriately costumed, will take part in the processional and choruses. Following the crowning of the May queen there will be songs, folk dancing and pageantry. The setting will be an outdoor scene under the beautiful oaks at the southwest corner of the school grounds. A professional orchestra under the direction of Mr. Croft of Ashland will play for all numbers.

A contest for the election of May queen is now under way. Miss Flora Collins is leading with 1499 votes, Miss Irene Lampert is second with 1399 votes and Miss Louise Bohmert is third with 1166 votes. The purchase of a ticket for the festival carries with it 100 votes for the candidate of your choice. Adults may purchase tickets for any high school students for 25 cents. Children will be admitted free.

The whole program is being prepared under the direction of Margaret Hinton Williamson, assisted by the grade teachers. The folk dances are under the direction of Miss Leah Parker, a graduate of the Columbia school of physical education of Chicago.

INQUEST TONIGHT INTO ACCIDENT

An inquest is to be held tonight by Deputy Coroner Joe Walker into the death of John Billings, well known Medford resident, who died yesterday as the result of being struck by an automobile on West Main street driven by Jack Rockwell, a local baker. The inquest will be very short, inasmuch as very few eye witnesses saw the accident, which occurred over two weeks ago in the evening. Rockwell thus far has not been charged with any carelessness, and was exonerated by the police.

SALVATION ARMY REVIVAL GROWS

In the revival campaign in progress at the Salvation Army, Evangelist Nelson Morris will speak at 8 o'clock upon an important subject. Come and find out for yourselves what this is. The meetings are very beneficial and have the seal of God's approval upon them. The special music and singing is inspiring. The people of Medford can be sure of a blessing every time they attend the services. The evangelist believes and preaches the whole Bible. Everybody welcome.

Former Kansan Visits in Medford

Emma Carey-Johnson and Muffitt Montgomery of Pueblo, Calif., who spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. S. Sumpter Smith, enroute from Portland to California, left today for San Francisco. They formerly lived in El Dorado, Kansas, and are immensely enjoying their short visit.

The guests have spent several weeks on the coast and were more impressed with Medford and the scenery surrounding than at any other place.

Their visit to the summer home of the Smiths in Edgewood park was especially enjoyed.

Blindfolded . . . in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, W. T. Benda selects Old Gold

Only the best leaves of the tobacco plant are good enough for Old Gold. That's why you can pick them in the dark.

"I have been an inveterate cigarette smoker for years and my interest in cigarettes not only induced me to make this blindfold test, but to make it three times in succession.

"Each time I selected the same cigarette—OLD GOLD.

"However, there was no other choice that I could honestly make. OLD GOLD was so superior and its delicacy of aroma, its rich, full flavor so entirely free from any hint of sting or burn that it immediately appealed to my taste.

"Since the test I have been smoking OLD GOLDS steadily and I find that they are the most satisfying cigarettes I have ever smoked."

W. T. Benda

How Test Was Made

Mr. Benda was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette. Mr. Benda was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, he was asked to designate by number his choice. He replied, "Number 4," which was OLD GOLD

BIG PACIFIC COAST ADV. CAMPAIGN

One of the biggest advertising campaigns that has broken in Pacific coast manufacturing circles for some time was launched last week by the Pioneer Paper company, Inc., of Los Angeles. Utilizing newspapers exclusively the company, which is the oldest and largest of its kind in southern California, founded in Los Angeles by Willis G. Hunt 40 years ago, announced its 1928 spring sales campaign simultaneously in the Mail Tribune and 73 other newspapers throughout the 11 western states. The primary objective of the campaign is to acquaint the public with the solidity and the convenience of the Pioneer sales organization, dealers and shingle companies possessing exclusive franchises for the sale of the company's 40 products being located in every town and city of any size in every state in the west, from Canada to Mexico.

"Due to the firm's consistent policy of high quality, consumer satisfaction and dealer support, the demand for its products, especially its various types of Yosemite rock-surfaced shingles, has grown tremendously during the past few years, both in the Pacific coast region and abroad," declared J. H. Plunkett, general manager. "From the modest concern established in 1888 by Mr. Hunt, to the $5,000,000 organization of today, with an output of several million dollars worth of merchandise a year, is a long step, but in all that time the company has never deviated an inch from the original policy of 'quality and service first.'"

The advertising campaign just launched will reflect to the benefit of every dealer in the west and to every community in which a dealer is located, every Pioneer dealer and shingle company being local concerns, locally financed and spending their earnings locally. Newspapers were chosen as being the only medium capable of getting the required message over to the largest number of persons in the shortest possible time, it was stated. The Southern Oregon Pioneer

Shingle & Roofing Co., at the corner of Third and Fir, are the Medford dealers.
