Academy Musicians Please Radio Fans

One of the most delightful radio programs heard over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Vision station, recently, was the hour of music furnished by the Academy of Music Friday night from 9 to 10, through the courtesy of Larry Schade, local jeweler. Little June Adams, whose sweet soprano voice has charmed local audiences who have attended the academy recitals the past year, Betty Stennett, 11-year-old harpist, Betty Evanson and Helen Jonas, wonderful piano soloists, and Mary Hayes, in clever monologues, were outstanding features of the program.

The 11-piece orchestra composed of eight violins, piano, drums and cello, was well trained, and handled the difficult selections, which began and ended the program, with a definite stroke that elicited enthusiastic applause from the part of the audience throughout the valley. This was the first boy of the young academy musicians over the local station.

Delphin Study Club Has Interesting Meeting

The Delphin Chapter met Thursday, April 19, in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Mrs. Myron Root, president of the club, in her capable manner, presided in the French manner, "Athalie," by Racine. Mrs. Jonas Wolf followed with a very able discussion of Racine as a dramatist, comparing Athalie, a play on the same subject, with Shakespeare's Julius Caesar and the Greek tragedy, "Oedipus."

Mrs. Bert Lowry reviewed in a most interesting manner "The Road to the Temple," by Susan Glaspell, a biography of George Creator, a pioneer of the Little Theater movement in America.

Miss Margaret told the club in an entertaining way of her return trip from Europe through the Panama canal.

Mrs. Rose Scheffelin, the chapter's parliamentary, gave the club instructions on the manner of presidential elections. The Medford chapter has accepted an invitation to be guests of the Klamath Falls chapter in September.

There will be group meetings on May 3, and the next chapter meeting will be held May 17.

Mrs. L. Humphrys Presents Interesting Subject

"The River of Doubt, the River of Fact," was the subject of an interesting paper read by Mrs. L. Humphrys at the last meeting of the Wednesday Study club on April 18th. The records of the Dyott expedition which, in 1925, followed the Roosevelt-Rondon expedition of 1914, through the Amazon basin and down the Roosevelt river, furnished the material for this thrilling story of exploration.

Mrs. L. E. Williams' paper on "Central America" gave a brief survey of the industrial and economic conditions in the different states and the outstanding characteristics of their people. An enlightening view of the stabilizing influence of the United States in central America and the part our country has taken in the industrial development of these states, was also presented. Mrs. M. L. Alford's concise review of Constantine Mayfield Bonrke's delightful book of biographies, "Fragments of Jubilee," was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. L. E. Williams, Cal., was a guest of the club.

Next meeting of the club will be held May 2.

Wason Club Has Meeting

The club announced a card party to be given April 25 at the Redden hall and a large crowd is promised as there will be some attractive prizes.

Next club meeting in the form of a business meeting will be held at the home of Bernice Wilcox, at 309 West Jackson street, on May 3.

The Leap Year dance sponsored by the Pecoschontas lodge Friday evening was a real success. The idea of the ladies asking for the dances seemed to be a very popular one and men enjoyed it immensely, as they were about evenly numbered. Some and get 'em" came from the banquet hall about 11:30. Another such dance is being looked forward to about the first of May.
