TALENT, Apr. 26. — The older young people's class, "The Faith Builders" of the Methodist Sunday school of Talent, were entertained at a party Friday, April 26th, at the home of Miss Lucille Holdridge. Besides the class members, there were several other guests and prospective members. Miss Anna Evans, student at the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland and a former resident of Talent, was a guest from out of town. A very pleasant time was had and all are looking forward with pleasure to the next class party to be held on May 4th with keen anticipation. Those eligible for membership in this class are young people past high school age, including young married people. All are cordially invited to come to class on Sunday morning at 9:45. Anyone wishing to attend the Sunday school will find just as interesting a class in the old ladies' bible class. Come and see for yourself.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Andrews of Medford were guests Monday evening at the Wesley Vogel home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed were dinner guests of F. L. Holdridge and family Sunday. Kenneth Dibley of Rainier, Wash., accompanied by Waverly Holdridge and Miss Hazel Sloan, students at the O. S.
