ASHLAND NORMAL MAKES PLANS FOR COMMENCEMENT

SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL, April 27.—A May festival, May 25, in Lillitha park, will inaugurate commencement activities at Southern Oregon Normal.

The May queen will be voted out by the student body in the near future and the runners-up in the contest will be ladies-in-waiting to the queen.

The origin of May day will be traced in dance and song, the dance of spring, Egyptian worship of the sun, Druidical worship of the mistletoe, village men, Morris dancers, Maypole, winding with Robin Hood and his merry men dancing under the greenwood trees, and finally the crowning of May Queen as Queen of May.

Miss D. Virginia Hales will be in charge of the dances, special choiceness being under the direction of Miss Viola Marston.

Monday, April 23, a meeting of all seniors at Southern Oregon Normal was called by Miss Katherine Vincent, registrar, and J. A. Churchill, president, for the purpose of discussing plans for commencement.

Miss Vincent talked of plans for alumni day, which is given for all graduates and graduating students of the old Southern Oregon Normal and the reorganized school.

The faculty is eager and willing to help place students in positions, it was stated and applications made should be reported, that the faculty may help the students to secure positions.

Dresses for senior women were discussed. Miss Vincent announced that one dress would be suitable for all occasions—the faculty reception for seniors, the baccalaureate services and the commencement exercises.

Miss Vincent also stated that the diplomas will be ordered about May 12, and that it is necessary for all seniors to pay the fee of $4.00 immediately, so that a diploma will be ordered for each graduate.

Miss Vincent told of the plan that was used last year by the senior class. According to the plan, each senior donates at least one text book to the rental department for the purpose of increasing the student book fund.

Members of the Medford School of Music in conjunction with Eve Benson's Dancing Academy will give a program in honor of National Music Week, May 3, at 8 p. m., at the U. S. Hotel under the auspices of the Jacksonville P. T. A. and the chamber of commerce.
