THEY MERELY HELP AL SMITH

FOR the first time in five months, Oregon, we see, gets on the front page of the San Francisco newspapers.

This is the sort of publicity California likes to give its northern. It gives the impression that Oregon is a semi-civilized backwoods commonwealth.

Thanks to Mayor Baker's sensible refusal to accede to this absurd request, the damage to Oregon's reputation will not be serious.

Moreover, such exhibitions of moronistic spleen can only injure the cause they are designed to aid.

FEDERATED CLUBS NAME OFFICERS CLOSE SESSIONS

The final act of the two days convention of the first district federation women's clubs, which closed here yesterday, was the installation of officers for a two-year period.

The afternoon session was taken up principally in three-minute speeches, on topics of interest to the various clubs, and to the federation.

A no hostess luncheon was held at Hotel Medford yesterday noon, in which the federation honored the past presidents of the organization.

A number of helpful suggestions for club activity and management were carried home by the 50 or more delegates who gathered in Medford and represented their respective clubs from the cities throughout southern Oregon.

THIRD EPISODE OF 'MADAME Q' OVER K M E D TUESDAY

The third episode in the life of "Madame Q" and her honer pulling secretary, Jack Merryweather, who for the past two months have kept Medford radio audiences guessing, will be heard over KMEM, the Mail Tribune-Virgin radio station, Tuesday night from nine to 10, through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company.

The plot is thickening considerably and with the blame madame and her four-flushing companion in the midst of Oriental intrigue in India, the third play promises to be even more interesting than the two that have gone before it.

Suggestions and predictions have been many and varied on the part of radio listeners throughout the valley, who have their own ideas as to how they want the plot to develop in the Madame Q series.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas, who left several weeks ago on an extended tour of the nation are now in Washington, D. C., according to a letter received yesterday from Mr. Thomas who wrote that he sat with congress last week and listened to a "long winded" oration by Senator Heflin.

Phil Byles of Salem arrived in Medford last evening to make his headquarters until next Friday evening when he will fight Pat Padelford of this city in a ten-round main event bout at the Hilarity hall sporting arena.

Mr. Wagner has a host of invaluable ideas, which, through the courtesy of the Standard Oil company will be given the interested public.

Interesting facts developed and discovered by the research department of the Standard Oil company of California, will be presented in a talk to be given by L. T. Wagner, noted automotive and lubricating engineer, in the lower banquet hall of Hotel Medford Wednesday night beginning at eight o'clock.

The Christian Workers Training School closed with the meeting of the M. E. church last Friday night. Over seventy-five leaders in the Sunday School work of Medford and Central Point have been in attendance at the four classes of this school.
