ASHLAND

ASHLAND, May 1.—Misses Marie and Leta Walker entertained the Girls' club on Friday evening. Sewing and conversation filled the evening and at the close the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Those who enjoyed the pleasant event were the Misses Gorgie Coffey, Ethel Shrum, Gladys Applegate, Celia Biegle, Gertrude Biede, Helen Biede, Ruth Gorman and Elsie Alexander, Mrs. Dan Kay, Mrs. Guy Applewhite and Mrs. W. G. Sanders of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Doffi Hanna of Crescent City is visiting in Ashland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Madden on Pine street, and expects to remain in Ashland for about three weeks.

Irving E. Vining, E. G. Harlan, Bud Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Hansen of Ashland accompanied the Redwood highway caravan to Grants Pass and Crescent City. Mr. Vining delivered the dedicatory address at the opening of Hotel Lauff at Crescent City. The speech has been commented on most favorably by those who heard it.

Misses Vining, Harlan and Zimmerman returned to Ashland on Sunday night. Mr. Hansen returned on Monday, and Mrs. Hansen extended her journey to Salem where she will visit for a time with friends.

Oscar Franklin, Jr., and Miss Marie Hoyt were married on Monday, April 30th, at the Methodist church in Medford at a 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The young people were attended by the brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Franklin of Ashland. Both Mr. and Mrs. Franklin are well known in Ashland, where they attended high school. Mrs. Franklin has made her home in Ashland with her mother, Mrs. S. H. Bailey. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Franklin of the Franklin bakery in Ashland. Last year he graduated from the American institute of baking at Chicago, and has had the management of the local bakery. After a four days' honeymoon trip to Marshfield, the young couple will return to Ashland and will reside at 131 Fourth street.

Mrs. Slack and daughter, Miss Dorothy, moved to Dunsuir on Thursday to join Mr. Slack, who is employed there with the Southern Pacific company.

William G. Sander returned on Tuesday from a business trip to Portland.</
