

THANK YOU!

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation of the loyal support afforded our Company by the merchants of Southern Oregon. We feel that our fine showing to date has been due entirely to the cooperation shown by the buyers in the territory we serve.

At this time, we would like to impress our customers with the following:

We are not going to merge with any concern.

We intend continuing to try and render the very best service possible.

We will attempt to keep prices on a parity with Portland and San Francisco.

We hope to grow and prosper in proportion to our merits and the growth and prosperity of Southern Oregon.

AGAIN WE THANK YOU!

PIONEER WOMAN OF TALENT CALLED TO LAST REWARD

PHOENIX, May 10. — Mrs. Amanda Bell passed away at her home Wednesday morning at 6 a. m. Deceased was born in Platt county, Missouri, in 1848, and was 79 years old at the time of her death. She was married to Jefferson Bell in 1873, moving to Talent soon after, where she has resided ever since. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Pete Barneburg of Medford, one son, W. T. Henry of Sacramento, Calif., two brothers, J. T. Lewis of Eagle Point and T. M. Lewis of Little Applegate, two grandsons, H. W. and F. E. Barneburg of Medford, and one great-grandson, Kenneth Barneburg, also two step-sons, Tom Bell of Talent and Bert Bell of Klamath Falls. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church Friday at 2 p. m. Rev. Mel Burial in the Phoenix cemetery. Mrs. Bell was a daughter of the late John Lewis, who died in Medford at the age of 87 in 1904. He was born in Kentucky April 30, 1816, married to Polly Turner in 1834. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Missouri where they remained until 1853 when they crossed the plains and settled in the Willamette valley and made themselves a lovely home. When the flood of '61 and '62 came all that was left of their beautiful home was a tract of land covered with debris. During the flood the house washed down the river and lodged for a short time against some halter trees. Mr. Lewis broke a hole through the roof, took a cord from a bedstead and wove a net among the branches of the trees, tore up the upper floor of the house and built a platform in the trees where his family, consisting at that time of himself, wife and five children, of which Mrs. Bell was one, and his aged mother-in-law, Mrs. Turner, with the smaller children tied in the branches of the trees to prevent them falling into the water, they remained for 24 hours before being rescued from their perilous position. Just as they were all safely on the platform the house broke up and floated down the river. Grandma Turner never fully recovered and remained an invalid for years. As soon as Mr. Lewis got enough together to move his family he came to Jackson county where he lived until his death in 1904. Mrs. Bell, his daughter, has also spent the most of her life in Jackson county.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buerkle of Hollywood, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Garis Flynn of Santa Monica were recent house guests at the Frank Holdridge home.

Mrs. Wesley Vogell spent last Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Callie Briscoe in Ashland.

Mrs. Byron Works gave a birthday party in honor of her small daughter, Saturday afternoon. About 12 guests were present. The small folks thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon.

Catherine and Pauline Estes left Saturday morning for Oakland, Calif., to be with their father, who recently underwent an operation in the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco.

Mrs. Marion Tryer spent the day Wednesday at Central Point, canvassing for the California Perfume company.

Walter Russell and Mr. Brooks and his brother-in-law moved the first of the week to the Lockwood cabin up Wagner creek, where they are falling timber for the Tomlin sawmill.

Kenneth Mithoon, who has been working at Orange Grove, Calif., returned home last week and is now employed at the Sunroc.

Frank Combs, who made his home with his brother, Fred Combs on Wagner creek, suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday and passed away Monday evening.

Some of the fruit in this vicinity has been quite badly frosted, the apricot crop suffering the most.

One of the Deuzer brothers, who are hauling logs out of Anderson creek, met with what might have been a very serious accident Tuesday afternoon. In coming down the mountain with their loaded truck, one of the brothers ahead stooped to tighten his load of logs. The load being on a turn of the road was not seen by the other brother until he was too close to stop his truck, and in trying to pass the first truck went over the bank, the driver suffering two fractured ribs and badly lacerating the side of his face, and tore a part of his ear lobe from his head. Dr. Malmgren was called and took him to town for treatment. The truck was not badly wrecked.

Funeral services for Frank Combs were held at the Sterns cemetery on Wagner creek Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Wagoner officiating.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Frank Holdridge Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Susanne Homes Carter, school superintendent, spent a few hours Wednesday afternoon visiting the seventh and eighth grade rooms.

Mrs. Robert Terrill and son arrived from Crescent City by motor Tuesday and spent the night at the home of her brother, Wiley Jones, leaving Wednesday morning for Idaho where they will visit with a daughter and her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holdridge were Medford visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. G. Frink was hostess at a "Super-made aluminum" cooked dinner at her home Monday. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carmon of Medford, Mrs. Carmon drawing the prize, a small skillet, and Mrs. Earl Withrow the hostess prize. Mrs. Guy Phillips will assist Mrs. Withrow with the next dinner, to be held at the Phillips home.

Mrs. William Davidson spent Tuesday afternoon a guest of Mrs. Earl Withrow.

Mr. Dicks has moved to Gold Hill, vacating the pool hall Tuesday. Mrs. Cochran, who owns the building, is remodeling the building preparatory to opening a cafe in the near future.

Clarence Homes, who has been working in Weed, Calif., returned home last week and is now employed on the state road work near Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dopp and daughter Florence of Phoenix were guests Sunday at the C. W. Long home.

The senior play "Deacon Dubs," will be presented Friday night, May 11th, in the school auditorium. This play promises to be something good, so everyone should make an effort to see it.

Miss Ruby Hart and a friend from Oakland, Calif., visited with Mrs. W. W. Estes Saturday night and Sunday went to Ashland to spend a few days with Grandma Norman, grandmother of Miss Hart.

Prayer meeting for the young people will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30. Regular prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Choir practice, 8:30 to 9 p. m. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Epworth league 7 p. m.; Lester Newbury, adviser.

W. Petri and his son Charley, and Steve Lunak motored over to Fort Klamath Saturday to visit his son, Richard Petri, returning Sunday.

There will be another of the Community club's popular dancing parties Saturday night. Melody Makers will furnish the music and there will be good eats.

The "Faith Builders" class of the Methodist church Sunday school were delightfully entertained at a party given at the home of Mrs. R. Logan Friday evening, May 4th. Every member of the class was present, testifying to the good times enjoyed at these gatherings, which occur twice each month. Especially interesting entertainment was provided at this party by the committee composed of Ben Webster, Mrs. Wagoner and Earl Newbury. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour, and everyone is looking forward with pleasure to the next party which will take place on May 18th. The place where the next party will be held has not been announced.

Mrs. Katie Mason and daughter Velma and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Homes motored over to the Holcomb springs Sunday afternoon.

The school board held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening.

Mrs. Pete Barneburg of Medford is spending this week at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Jeff Bell, who is gradually getting weaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mathes and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Strahan and family picked at the summit of the Siskiyou Sunday afternoon.

The pupils of the Talent school did not enter the annual field meet this year, being too busy erecting their playground to take the time for practice. The walls will be nearly completed by the time school closes and the roof shortly after.

Robert Purvis left by motor the first of last week for Weed, Calif., where he expects to secure employment.

The services next Sunday morning, Mother's day will be observed with a fitting program, and in the evening the telepharasts will be preached for the high school graduating class, at Talent.

The Community club will meet Wednesday afternoon at their room at the Community hall. Mrs. Stachwell of Medford will meet with the club and read a paper from the early days in Oregon, taken from her father's diary.

A chicken and rabbit dinner was given by the Ladies' Aid Wednesday evening.

Don't let any one tell you Kelly Tires are not quality tires. Ask the man who runs them; not the man selling cheaper tires for more money.

We can sell quality tires cheap as any one. We have no heavy expense; buy and sell for cash.

Does your tire money travel full distance? Or does it stop half way? Buy Kelly's and get real joy on that vacation.

Never before has the quality in Kelly's been so high and the price so low.

There has been lots of talk about Kelly's running 35,000 miles. Well, that's true and we can prove it.

All the stock on sale is absolutely fresh and carries the tire manufacturer's warranty.
