Y. W. C. A. Directors Will Present Play
 The board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. will present their play, "Clubbing a Husband," at the Junior high school Tuesday evening, May 15th at 8 p. m.
 This play is given for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. and the proceeds will be used to establish a much needed department for the care of transients and girls who are traveling thru the city, who look to the "Y" as a place of comfort and protection.
 Miss Melba Williams and George Maddox have consented to assist with vocal solos and the Junior High Harmonica band will also perform during the intermissions. Tickets are on sale at the A. J. Anderson Studio, 128 East Main St., or can be secured from any of the board of directors who are very anxious to have the people of Medford respond, and help to enlarge and equip the "Y," so it may become one of the city's assets.
 The cast includes the following: Mrs. Blanche Newman, a bride, Mrs. Walters.
 Mrs. Henrietta Ashton, her sister from Boston, Mrs. E. Iverson.

Madame Q Again Visits Medford Friends.
 "Madame Q" and her secretary Jack Merryweather, will again visit Medford Tuesday night of this week, over KMEM on the coast radio. Madame Q and her secretary will be accompanied by many radio parties have been planned in their honor. So popular have these two become with society folks of Medford and the valley, that their presence is demanded in every radio equipped home at one time.
 Tuesday's program will delight the large number of local radio fans with the escapades of the languid widow, her enterprising secretary, and J. A. in the little Indian girl in China. This will be the second to last play of the series, and, although it continues the thread of the main theme, is a complete story in itself. The cast of this play will include Miss J. Murray, who continues in her delightful characterization of Madame Q, Earl Davis, who has created the role of Jack Merryweather, James Stevens, Harold Corless and Mary Greiner who have played different roles each time. In this play, Stevens will be heard in the humorous characterization of the Chinese

Legion Auxiliary Notes

On Monday evening, at the Armory, at 8 o'clock the American Legion Auxiliary will meet for a social gathering and program in honor of Oregon's birthday, Mother's Day, and Charter Member Day. There will be refreshments and a good time. Let each member do her best to bring with her an eligible prospect for membership.

Social Events of Church Societies

The East Side circle of the First M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon, with Miss May Phillips, 923 East Main street. Visitors always welcome.
 The H. M. L. Bible Study club, will meet with Mrs. Mary Down, 107 Portland avenue Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Riley D. Benson will lead the study.

The pictures to be shown at the Presbyterian church this Sunday evening follow Paul in his second missionary journey. They depict the stirring scenes of his Macedonian call, the thrill of the great city of Thessalonica, now Salonica, the wonders of ancient Greece as seen in Athens and Corinth with its magnificent temples and its shrines, relics of a greatness once theirs. The famous Acropolis, Mars Hill, Temple of Jupiter, prison of Socrates, and other scenes connected with the life of such men as Socrates, Plato, Demosthenes, Aristotle as well as the great Apostle Paul. One will appreciate the value of Paul's famous speech on Mars Hill better with a knowledge of the ancient setting.
 This morning mothers and grandmothers will be honored, in song and message. Wear a flower for your mother and find your place in the house of worship, in her memory.

The Federated Churches of Central Point

J. M. Johnson, pastor, "Jesus Enters Jerusalem," is the title of the lesson we study in the Bible school tomorrow. The text is in Mark 11:1-18.
 The word for our memory verse is: righteousness. School opens at 9:45.
 Mother's Day service at the morning preaching hour. In song, sermon and tribute we will honor the memory of mother. The ladies quartet and the young men's glee club will give us the special numbers.
 The young people will have charge of the evening service, and will present the local work of the Christian Endeavor in the different departments of the work. Good music will be a special feature. The undesignated offering will go to the young people's work.

Presbyterian Primary Department Very Active

A very active part of the Sunday school is the primary department of the Presbyterian church, which has a membership of over 60 with nine teachers and classes.
 Miss Helen Bullis, who has been superintendent of the department for a number of years, has her work thoroughly organized and with the help of the class teachers is doing very efficient work.
 The classes are graded according to the pupil's rank in school, first, second, and third grades being included.
 The primary room is especially adapted for the work and adds a great deal to the spirit of reverence prevailing. The children are now taking especially interest in saving their pennies to finish decorating the room.
 Miss Bullis will be very glad to welcome children not going of any other Sunday school.
