NORMAL TO SEND TENNIS TEAM TO STATE TOURNEY

SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL, May 15.—The men's tennis team of the Southern Oregon Normal will go north to the best of this week to McMinnville to play for state honors. Due to the perfect weather conditions of late the boys' tennis tournament is being hotly contested, as the first three men leading the tournament now going on at the school will make the trip. It was thought at first that a tournament would be played by the first eight men at the head of the list and the three men were to be chosen from them. The weather conditions made this impossible for every one did not have a fair chance to challenge opponents in order to get to the top of the list in the short time that remained. It has been left entirely up to the men playing to carry on their matches and excellent sportsmanship has been displayed throughout the season. Those men who seem to be the most consistent players at present in winning are: "T-Bone" Caldwell, A. Gossnell, M. Cathan, R. Dartnell, Don Smith, Warren Doremus and Don Hinthorne. All of these men have won at least one match and have shown promise of being among the first eight. The remaining seven, although having been defeated once, still have a good chance of pulling a last minute rally, and displacing some of the present leaders. Much talent has been displayed by all the contestants and the representatives chosen from these men will represent the Normal in a worthy fashion. The Gypsy Fair, held Friday evening, May 11, in the Normal auditorium, was one of the most successful mixers of the school year. Everyone entered into the festive Gypsy spirit and the affair was made more realistic by gypsies in multicolored gypsy costumes and by a group of young society people and a few country yokels on their annual trip to the fair. Two gypsy fortune tellers were kept busy foretelling the future, recalling the past and stating the present to the skeptic, as well as the gullible. The Gypsy Fair was sponsored by the Eastern Oregon club, whose natural pep and originality was greatly supplemented by their faculty advisors, Miss Ruth Yoder and Loren Messenger. Miss Evelyn Mangold gave a solo dance, which was greatly enjoyed, as was the reading given by Jack Lemons. Miss Yoder dressed as a gypsy, gave three violin selections, which added to the gala atmosphere of the Gypsy Fair. Lincoln training school will have a field day, May 18, which will be a demonstration of the work done in the physical education department, under the direction of Miss Helen Weiss, and Miss Virginia Hales. The program will begin at 2:00 p. m. and will continue for two hours and a half. During the afternoon, ice cream cones are to be sold. The Parent-Teacher association will serve a cafeteria supper immediately after the program. The proceeds from the supper will go to the play-shed fund. The following program will be given: Pageant—Third grade. Folk Dances—Girls and boys of primary and intermediate departments. Stunts—Primary boys. Field events—Dash, running broad jump and high jump. Boys. Volley ball game—Girls. Baseball game—Boys. Humorous relays. The pageant, which will be given by the children of Miss L. Wilson's room will be a correlation of all their school work. It will be representative of the four months—April, May, June and July. Helen Dunn was chosen May Queen and will be attended by four children. Several donations have been made recently to the Normal school library: From the Portland public library, 102 bound volumes of magazines; Atlantic, complete years 1887, 1888, Century, 1882-1895, volumes 3, 4, 1859; Harper's magazine, 1875-1885, volumes 49-51; Scribner's magazine, 1887-1902, vol. 1-32. Other gifts: Mrs. Cordelia Stiles of Portland, files of Oregon Teachers' monthly and National Education association journals. Mrs. D. Resner, wife of the late Dean Resner of O. A. C. files from Dean Resner's library of educational magazines, School Review, School and Society, Teachers' College Magazine, Education, Oregon Historical Society Quarterly, which now gives the Normal library a complete file since A. C. Strange donated the current numbers. Back files of Literary Digest, from Mrs. F. W. Wagner. Atlantic Monthly from J. H. Fuller. National Geographic Magazine, from Mrs. Sam McNair. Gift books from R. Rupert of Ashland, Mrs. N. Newland of Ashland and Lester Beck, student.

Southern Oregon Normal is exhibiting this week a collection of works by Oregon artists. The exhibit of the Oregon State Federation collection and is sponsored by Women's clubs for the purpose of bringing to the attention of the public the work of leading painters and sculptors. The collection, which includes water colors, oil paintings, photographs of original modeling will be displayed in the art rooms at the Normal all week. Artists whose work will be found in the exhibit are C. J. Fulton, Eugene; Clyde Leon Keller, Portland; N. W. Land, Zane, Dept. of Int., Eugene; Melvin F. Wire, Pendleton; Florence Appleby, LaGrande; Calista Dowling, Portland; Sidney Hill, Portland;

Elaine Howard, Portland; C. C. McKelvie, Portland; Charlotte Mish Portland; Anthony Eawer, Portland; Alfred Schrobb, Fine Arts Dept. of U. of O.; Alice Sewell, Portland; Florenz Clark, Portland; Avard Fairbanks, Dept. of Sculpture, U. of O.; J. Lee Fairbanks, Art Dept., O. A. C.; Percy Munson, Hood River; Emil Jacques, Portland.

REDDING CUT-OFF TO IDAHO IS LAUNCHED

REDDING, Cal., May 15.—(AP)—Members of the Yellowstone Cut-off caravan which is to leave here today for Boise, Idaho, were guests last night at a banquet where they heard George C. Mansfield, personal representative of Governor C. C. Young, on the tour, declare that the proposed cut-off from Redding to the Boise outlet to the Victory highway would be the "first non-political road ever constructed in these parts." W. T. Lockwood, secretary of the Boise chamber of commerce, Ralph Benedict of San Francisco, R. H. Shoemaker, engineer for the Idaho state department of public works, and E. A. Crowley, assistant secretary of the Oakland chamber of commerce were among the speakers.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

A large number of Antioch people attended the Sams Valley high school play last Friday evening. The Sams Valley pupils presented an excellent program. H. S. Needy has been offered the principalship of the Sherwood school near Portland for next year. Mr. Needy was selected by the Antioch board some time ago, but has resigned to accept the Sherwood position. A large crowd attended the Antioch field meet last Saturday. A total of 54 pupils from the Table Rock, Sams Valley, Agate, Laurelhurst and Antioch schools took part in the events. We are informed by our county superintendent that this is the first Athletic Test Badge meet to be held in Jackson county. G. W. Milam of Rogue River, candidate for the republican nomination for county superintendent, was a visitor in our section last Saturday. Mr. Carter, candidate for county clerk, was visiting friends last Friday. The Antioch school has been chosen as the polling place in this precinct by the county court. The primary election will be held Friday, May 18. Lois Glass has been awarded the attendance certificate for perfect attendance in school during the year. Lois is the only pupil to gain this honor. Eighth grade pupils are: Erna Glass, Leo Martin, Loring Martin.

Cannot Vote Fair Tax Levy Covering Period of Years

In reply to a question why the vote this year on the fair tax was not distributed over a period of two years. The law explicitly forbids voting a tax for fair purposes spread over a period of years and requires a vote each year a levy is made. This would necessitate holding an election again next year to create the tax for that year and would cost about $3,000. The vote being held at the primary this year does not cost anything for judges and clerks as the same officers will act as primary judges.

Vaudeville

There is no end of variety to the vaudeville at Hunt's Craterian tomorrow evening. Comedy, singing, dancing and novelty numbers make up the offerings. Jerry Flanagan is "The Golf Champ," and with the aid of a company of four, including three New York dancing girls, "puts" over an exceedingly clever and amusing comedy skit. Corinne Villa and Bill Strigo are instrumentalists and singers. Bill Strigo specializes on the Hawaiian guitar. Their program is well chosen and nicely executed. Unicycles are mere playthings to Jack and Jessie Gibson. They mix a lot of comedy chatter with some difficult feats on the single wheels. An offering that snatches of youth personality will be the contribution of Jimmy Flood and Venus McNew. Both have excellent voices which are used effectively in several harmony numbers. Jimmy accompanies at the piano. "The Gumps" may well be termed a family institution; the zany on and life of Andy, Min, Uncle Ben and the Widow Zander are well known to the average person. Everyone will be glad to learn that Don Austin, the artist who draws Andy and Min for the movies, is included on the bill.

News of the SCREEN

Sizzling Romance of Seas "A Girl in Every Port," one of the unique and most original sea stories ever filmed, is now showing at the Rialto theater. Besides carrying with it all of the glamour and romance of the average sea tale, it is filled with thrills and comedy situations, and has the unusual distinction of eight leading women, one for each part. Victor McLaglen, of "What Price Glory" fame, is featured in the leading role, with Robert Armstrong as his chief support physically and artistically throughout the picture.

CALIFORNIA TO SEND DELEGATES TO LEGION MEET

"We are looking forward to the largest gathering of legionnaires in the history of this state's legion activities at the convention to be held at Medford in August," said George Love of Eugene, state commander of the American Legion, who was in Portland yesterday and registered at the Heathman hotel. "There will be from 3000 to 5000 of the boys in attendance from every part of Oregon and from many places outside of the state. In the drum corps contest, for instance, there will be competing teams from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California. It will mark the first time that delegates will come up from California in large numbers, proximity of Medford to the California state line making it possible this year. I have received reports from Medford that the city has already raised a large fund for the entertainment of the legionnaires, and that the business men of the city are busy shaping plans to make the convention an outstanding event." Oregon's percentage of its membership quota for the American Legion in the department of Oregon is 104.18, according to the official report of the finance division of the national headquarters. State Commander Love said. The only state in the union to exceed this record is Texas, with 110.7 per cent. One of the reasons Texas made the mark it did is that it is to be host of the national convention of the American Legion and is consequently more than usually enthusiastic.—Oregonian.

Especially for the simple salads

For your salads—something crisp, green, simple—and always French Dressing. So runs the dictum of style. A sensible suggestion, too. For, truly there is nothing quite so delicious as French Dressing. Or, indeed no French Dressing more delicious than one made with Wesson Oil. It's not in the least astonishing that Wesson Oil should enjoy the widespread favor that it does. Did you ever notice how amazingly light and crystal clear it is—the lovely, pale straw color of it? That tells how pure and wholesome it is. And withal, it has that exquisite delicacy of flavor that everyone likes and which gives it so much of the distinction it enjoys. As a base for any salad dressing—in fact, to eat plain all by itself on salads or vegetables—you could hardly ask for anything more perfect. Also—have you ever used Wesson Oil for frying or for cake making? It's fast becoming the modern way of cooking.
