

WAGNER CREEK BRIDE AND GROOM GIVEN A RIDE

WAGNER CREEK, May 17.—A number of Wagner creek young people took part in the big charivari at Talent last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Green moved to Talent last Saturday where they will make their residence.

The dance given by the Talent Community club last Saturday evening was again well attended by Wagner Creek residents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith left daughters, Della and Margaret, spent last Sunday at the home of Mrs. R. B. Purves.

Ralph Skoog, just returned from a business trip to Klamath Falls.

SHADY COVE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winkle have moved out of one of Mr. Peck's houses to the Oxn place near Trail.

Ralph Bender and Madge Able, who were married a short time ago have gone to house-keeping in the home recently vacated by Charles Winkle.

Our school will close the second day of June with a picnic in the park near Jesse Miller's.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Geary on May 9th, an eight and one-half pound boy. Mother and child doing well.

Have Able gone to Pineville, over near Klamath Falls, to head sheep. He expects to be gone most of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butler, who were living in Medford and recently visited at the home of Mrs.

able's mother, Mrs. Butler, have gone to Eureka, Calif., to reside.

H. L. Todd is having considerable trouble with his eyes, due to hay fever, and Mrs. Todd was quite ill this week.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, who has been very ill, is quite a lot better now.

There were quite a few visitors at Shady Cove park the last week. It is reported that fishing is getting good and the water has cleared up again in the river.

Mrs. John Liden, who has been ill for some time, is improving and hopes to soon be able to get out again.

Mr. Peck likes company and says the best way to have some is to provide a place for them, so he is building another cabin, making four in all for rent.

The highway is taking on a very different look since they began oiling it and a good thing it will be not to have to contend with the dust this year. We will be glad when it is finished.

the Nickel Plate, Reading and New York Central sizzled as they moved up. The recovery in volatile specialties was even more violent.

Wright and Curtis Aero selling a dozen points or more above their earlier lows and Radio and International more than five points each.

The governing committee of the stock exchange decided today to close the exchange at 2 p. m. instead of 3 p. m.

May 21, in order to afford relief to the employees of the member firms from the strain imposed upon them by the extraordinary activity of recent sessions.
