

MOTHER'S DAY WELL OBSERVED AT CENT. POINT

CENTRAL POINT, May 17.—Mother's Day was well observed at the Union church Sunday morning when the auditorium was decorated with a profusion of beautiful roses and peonies, and an appropriate sermon and songs were given to a large audience.

There were one hundred ninety-five at Sunday school and flowers were furnished so each one could have a flower to wear in honor of "Mother."

Part of the church service was given over to the people and was a testimony of many to pay a tribute of remembrance and gratitude to their mother.

Among the special musical numbers was a song given by the ladies' quartet and one by the Young Men's Glee club in which one verse was sung by each of the boys. Therum Brown, George Johnson, Lester Scott and Donald Faber and the chorus was joined in by all the Glee club.

In the evening the Young People's Christian Endeavor had charge of the services under the direction of Mrs. Chas. Hezmalhalch and included short addresses given by Miss Edith Inman, Miss Lorina Davidson, Miss Mildred Burger and Miss Lynette Hezmalhalch.

Special music had been prepared by the young people's choir and the solo, "He Knows the Way," was given by Miss Lynette Hezmalhalch and also a solo, "That Little Mother of Mine," by George Johnson and a duet by Carol Boswell and Mr. Hezmalhalch.

Several of the Central Point people, including Mr. and Mrs. Casad and a number of young people attended the Buch Sunday school, Sunday afternoon.

The ladies of the Bible class took beautiful bouquets of flowers to the sick and shut-ins on Mother's Day.

Mrs. C. L. Wilson spent Sunday in town and was a dinner guest at the home of her father, Mr. Hall, who is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herford of San Francisco were visiting at the Joe Boswell home Sunday. They have been enjoying a trip through Arizona and California and are now on their way to Canada, but expect to stop again in the valley on their return trip and visit Crater Lake. Mrs. Herford is a sister to Joe Boswell and will be remembered as Miss Fay Pleasants, a former Central Point girl.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson and Mr. Shely drove over to Buch Friday evening and attended a meeting which the men of the Central Point Brotherhood conducted in the school house of that place.

E. A. Meyers of Medford was visiting at the J. L. Burger home Friday before taking a trip to Vancouver where he is going to remain while under a Portland doctor's care.

Last week was picnic week in the high school. The sophomore class and freshman class each held their annual picnic Thursday afternoon and evening. The sophomore class went to Jackson Hot Springs for a swim and then drove to the Lithia park in Ashland where they enjoyed a picnic lunch and the freshmen took their outing at Helman baths in Ashland and followed by a picnic supper.

The Junior class enjoyed their picnic Friday afternoon.

Don't forget the senior class play comes off this Friday evening at the school house. Don't miss it. It is going to be good.

Mr. and Mrs. John McJinney drove over to Sams Valley Sunday afternoon to the Van Hoozening ranch and visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore. They report Mr. Moore slightly improving but not able to be around yet. Mr. and Mrs. Russ Moore of Dead Indian were also guests at the Moore home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Pankey and daughter Roberta and Johnnie Hesselgrave drove up to Ashland Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracey spent the day Friday in a trip to Winona on Jump Off Joe creek, returning in the evening.

Bob Merritt and Miss Grace Merritt and Helen Croft were among the Buch visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Sardinia creek were business callers at the John Hesselgrave ranch one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton drove down to the Grants Pass district last Monday and brought home some of the beautiful azalias for which that country is noted, and they distributed them over town to their friends including several shut-ins.

Mrs. Myrtle Wilson, son Marsh and daughters Helen and Kathleen of Medford were visitors at the Boswell home Monday evening.

Mrs. Croft, Helen Croft and Eunice Mundy were Medford callers Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin were dinner guests at the Jim Burger home on Mother's Day.

James Harris drove over Monday from Klamath Falls for a visit with home folks.

Misses Louise and Emma Rohner and Johnnie Bohner, were among the Jackson Hot Springs swimmers Sunday afternoon.

Lou Swartz enjoyed a fishing trip to Rogue River Tuesday.

At the regular P. T. A. meeting last Friday afternoon the annual election of officers was in order as this was the last meeting during this school year, but as it seemed impossible to get any one to take the responsibility of being president, election was postponed until the September meeting.

A few of the young people motored to the Gold Ray dam Monday evening loaded with good things to eat and determined to have a good time in which a weekly feast figured largely. They included the Misses Edith Inman, Beatrice Seabrook, Mildred Burger, and Linet Hezmalhalch.

Messrs. Earl Beall, James Harris Carl Boswell, Johnnie Bohner, Rafael Benson.

Miss Betty Hanson attended the Medford Junior prom Friday night. Several of our local people have

LAKE C. SCHOOLS ENJOY A PICNIC

LAKE CREEK, May 17.—The four schools of this creek are going to have a combined picnic dinner Friday the 18th. A short program will be given at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon a clinic for children of pre-school age will be held for those interested.

There will be a big dance Friday night. Music will be furnished by a six-piece orchestra from Boise, Idaho.

Everybody is expected to come and vote Friday if they are registered.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Calhoun were in Medford Tuesday on business. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Moore were also in town Tuesday.

W. Y. Marshall was in Lake Creek on business Tuesday.

Loren Farlow is busy getting out logs so he can start sawing lumber before long.

A. J. Grissom of Climax was out with his car Sunday for the first time this spring.

Mrs. Frank Klinge has her mother of Butte Falls as her guest this week.

Wm. Farlow is home again after spending several months at Union Creek.

There was a good attendance at the Grange meeting last Friday. The next meeting will be Thursday, the 24th.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grissom of Climax is spending a few days with her son, L. J. Grissom, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Moore spent Sunday in Sams Valley, visiting Mr. Moore's brother, who is slowly recovering from a serious illness.

Rodney Ragsdale, who is very ill with diabetes, was moved last Friday from the Rogue River sanitarium at Jacksonville to the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford. His mother, Mrs. E. E. Jones, is staying in Medford so she can be with him as much as possible.

Mrs. M. D. Bowles was the guest of Mrs. H. L. Tonn Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Meyer were callers at the A. L. Peck home Sunday.

Harry Tonn spent Sunday in Medford, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Roy Grissom, and family.

JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. H. K. Hanna, Mrs. Fred Fick, Mrs. Alice Ulrich, Mrs. F. S. Tou Velle and Mrs. Frank Saulsberry motored to the home of Mrs. Victor Bursell on Tuesday afternoon where they attended an interesting meeting of the Jackson County Health association, the entire assemblage later going to the McCasky home for dinner.

Mrs. Joe McMahon, a former resident of this city now living in Portland was calling on old friends here Monday afternoon and had lunch at the home of Miss Alice Hoels, who motored to Ashland with her.

Mrs. G. R. Chapman of Gold Hill was a recent visitor in our city at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Ulrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckett of Riverside, Calif., visited Jacksonville Thursday. Jacksonville is the home town of Mrs. Beckett's parents, Chas. and Minnie (McCasky) Hanna, who were residents of Jacksonville about 49 years ago and will be remembered by many of the old timers.

George Merritt attended the funeral of Mr. Miksche at Medford Sunday, which was held at the Catholic church, Rev. Father Black officiating.

Mrs. Chester Wendt and Miss Gwendolyn White were hostesses to the Bridge club at the home of the former on Monday evening. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. Maxwell receiving the prize for high score and Mrs. Crump the consolation. A dainty lunch of ices, cake and coffee was served. Those attending the party were Misses Golda Houne, Violet Voltmer, Thelma Ganaway, Mesdames Fred Fick, O. C. Lewis, G. N. McKay, G. I. Maxwell, Frank Saulsberry, Henry Conger, Ernest Neidermeyer, Harold Crump, Howard Bare, Vivian Beach, Ray Coleman and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnett visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson near Grants Pass Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knox visited Mr. Knox's daughter, Mrs. Brown and family near Medford Sunday.

Frank Wooten and sister, Mrs. Ed Smith and sons Macum and Lawrence motored to Mt. Shasta Sunday and spent the day, returning in the evening.

Miss Rose Backley attended the funeral of Mr. Miksche at Medford Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Woolf of Forest Creek and her daughter, Mrs. Emma Iverson of Longview, Wash. were callers at the S. E. Dunnington home Tuesday.

The pupils of the third and fourth grades and their teacher, Mrs. Daisy Lewis, were out picnicking Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crawford and two children of Medford were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Wilson Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Fairking and Mrs. F. L. Waterman motored to camp 1 of the Owen-Oregon Lumber Co. above Butte Falls, Wednesday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ulrich moved Wednesday to the ranch above Ashland which they purchased recently. Helen and Frank Ulrich spent the remainder of the school week here at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Alice Ulrich. The many friends of the Ulrich family are very sorry to have them move away.

The pupils of the first and second grades and their teacher, Mrs. Irene Crump, had a party at the school house Thursday afternoon. After an enjoyable time of playing games, ice cream was served. Mrs. Crump's pupils recently gave her a very nice electric lamp.

Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville
Regular services will be held next Sunday when all will be made welcome. Last Sunday the services were well attended, 113 being present at Sunday school.

May all give their influence to the religious life of our town by their moral support in faithful attendance at each service.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Roy Martin, superintendent.

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Christian Endeavor 7:15 p. m. Bible study Tuesday 7:30 p. m. led by the pastor.

Sr. choir practice Tuesday 8:15 p. m., director Mrs. H. K. Hanna. Jr. choir practice Wednesday 7 p. m., director Mrs. Roy Martin. All will be made welcome.

Elmer E. McVicker, pastor.

Mellon is Quered.
WASHINGTON, May 18.—(AP)—The senate today adopted a resolution asking Secretary Mellon to report what additional taxes have been collected as a result of distillate Trading company of Canada. The committee as profits of the distillate Trading company of Canada.

REDDY & CO.

Main and Central :: Medford, Oregon

Quitting Business

.....

AUCTION

Last Chance TOMORROW

2 P. M. and 7:30 P. M.

Some of the Finest Diamonds, Silverware, Jewelry and Art Pieces are still left. You can still buy High Grade Jewellery at Your Own Price

POSITIVELY NO RESERVE

Everything Goes to the Last Article.

COME EARLY

STANLEY THORNE, Auctioneer

FRESH TO YOU

Frye's Delicious BRAND ham

AFTER doing everything that careful selection, rigid inspection, and specially developed methods of curing can do to make it "Everything the Name Implies" — Frye's "Delicious" Brand Ham is then brought to your table at its very best.

WITH the great Frye curing plant within a few hours of all of the markets it serves, and with the daily production carefully regulated by daily demand, this popular table delicacy loses none of that wonderful, deep, ripe flavor with which it comes from the smokehouse.

3c to cover postage will bring Frye's "Meat Guide" on request from Frye & Co., Portland U. S. Government Inspected and Passed

"Everything the Name Implies"