DETROIT, Mich., May 18.—Self-confidence usually means success. When John L. Sullivan met the Prince of Wales, grandfather of today's prince, Jem Smith, heavyweight champion of England, was present, and in training to fight Kilrain. Sullivan, who was to box for the prince's delectation with his sparring partner, Jack Ashton, said to the prince:

"Your English champion is here, trained to fight. I'm just off the boat and fat. Tell your champion to get into that ring with me. If I don't knock him out in two rounds, I'll go back to America."

The prince was delighted, but Jem Smith's manager said "No."

A fight with no gate money, and with Sullivan, had no appeal. So Sullivan boxed with Ashton, Jem Smith boxed with old Alf Greenfield. The prince, and this writer, only newspaper man there, were disappointed.

Detroit feels about Detroit as Sullivan felt about himself. Joseph Muleahy, who was born in New York, and now edits the Detroit Times, says (with perfect seriousness):

"Detroit, today, is what New York was 25 years ago. Fifty years from now, men will be saying: 'New York is what Detroit was 25 years ago.'"

Every day is Henry Ford's busy day, but today was unusually busy. He arrived from Philadelphia in the morning to greet the Bremen fliers, who saw his plant, and had luncheon with Edsel Ford, head of the committee to receive them.

Then Ford welcomed Junkers, who built the Bremen, and talked engineering with him. "A fine product of Germany's thorough training methods," Ford called Junkers.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon Ford was talking with General Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad. Perhaps they discussed the combination sleeping car and airplane transcontinental service, announced by the Pennsylvania and Santa Fe.

Just beyond Ford's Dearborn office, General Atterbury might have seen actual air transportation on the Ford flying field.

A neat, new station has been built for arriving and departing air passengers, and a big Ford plane, having just brought a full load from Cleveland, was waiting to carry another load in the other direction.

If you ask Ford about his flying plans, he says, "Ask Edsel, he is looking after that."

But Ford is deeply interested in flying and sells his tri-motored planes for about $30,000 less than each one costs to build. Profits with volume will come later.

Ford says that for the moment, "flying has come up against a stone wall, and some big things need to be done." He may undertake to do one or two of them, although he does not say so.

All Detroit cheered the Bremen fliers today, and nobody except Ford paid much attention to Junkers, who built the Bremen and made the flight possible.

Asked if that did not seem unusual, Ford replied, "Well, somebody

LOVE AND STACY LEAD CLOSE RACES

BURSELL IS BEHIND 175 ALDEN 158

Climax Only Missing Precinct—Official Count To Decide Winner—Chaney Keeps On Gaining—Women Candidates Win By Handsome Majority.

Unofficial returns from 56 of the 57 precincts in Jackson county, show such a close race for sheriff and county commissioner nominations, that it will take the official count to definitely decide the winner.

With Climax, with less than a dozen votes missing, J. G. Love of Central Point was leading Victor Bursell, incumbent, for commissioner by 175 votes, the count being:

Love 8211
Bursell 8386
For sheriff, George Stacy holds a slightly higher lead over Geo. H. Allen. The count is as follows:

Stacy 1936
Allen 1778
Stacy's lead 158

On the face of the count, Stacy has won the nomination for sheriff in the republican ticket, and will oppose Sheriff Jennings, democratic choice, in the fall. Love, if opposed at all, will contend with C. W. (Wig) Ashpole, democratic choice, whose name was written in widely.

In the belated returns from the rural districts, District Attorney Chaney continued to gain over his nearest opponent, Allison Moulton.

The vote stands:

Chaney 2210
Moulton 1199
Trill 755

Chaney's lead over Moulton 1011. The latest figures on the race for county school superintendent are:

Mrs. Sussane Carter 1980
Milam 1233
Davis 1019

Dellah Stevens Meyers, in the four-cornered county clerk contest won with ease, netting a majority of 483 votes over her nearest opponent, George Carter finished second, and A. J. Crose came in a poor third. The vote was:

Meyers 1692
Carter 1299
Crose 896
Parker 322

The county fair measure carried by a large majority. Owing to the failure of the election officials at several Medford precincts to properly post the result, the present figures will be substantially increased, by the final count. The measure was defeated by two votes in Ashland, and by the same number in Eagle Point. Jacksonville rolled up a majority of 64 against the measure.

The closest race of the primary was between Commissioner Bursell and Love. Bursell failed to carry Medford precincts, losing them by slim margins. The contest developed into a horse race from the first ballots, and maintained the closeness till the finish. The race for the sheriff nomination was just as nip and tuck. Stacy taking a slight lead Saturday afternoon.

Though no tabulation has been made, George J. Prescott has been elected constable for the Medford district. A rather large vote was cast for George M. Roberts. There was the usual writing in of names, and casting complimentary votes for well known local citizens.

About ten per cent of the registered voters of the county were cast. In state contests there was little interest. Congressman Hawley scored a decisive local victory, rolling up a majority of 1157. He received 2494 votes, and Mott polled 1327.

Floyd J. Cook went out of this county with 2531 votes. The vote for secretary of state was:

Hoss 1615
Cory 1217
Handley 704

For supreme court justice:

Hand 2766
Rosenman 2458
McMahon 1219

LEADERS IN JAP-CHINESE CRISIS

Requests that America or the League of Nations intervene in the crisis in China caused by the clash of Japanese forces with those of the Nationalist armics at Tsinan, have been made by officials of the Nationalist government. Leaders of the conflicting forces are shown above. Left, Marshal Chang Tso-lin, commander of the Northern Chinese forces; right, above, General Chiang Kai-shek, Nationalist leader; and, right, below, Baron Tanaka, Japanese premier, who ordered Japanese troops into the troubled region. Below is a view of some of Japan's troops dispatched to the region around Tsinan.

RURAL VOTE OF COUNTY TO AL; WALSH SECOND

Judge Canon Ahead in 17 Precincts For District—New York Governor Wins In Medford—Returns Very Incomplete.

Available returns from democratic voting in the primary Friday, confined exclusively to rural precincts attest the popularity of Governor Alfred E. Smith. 17 precincts complete in Jackson county, all in country districts give:

Smith 125
Walsh 105
Reed 75
Workman 47

Walsh, his nearest opponent had withdrawn from the race. For district delegate to the democratic national convention, in the same 17 rural precincts, Judge Canon of this city, lead the field. The figures are as follows:

Canon 135
Fry 131
Harris 132
Oleen 132

The vote for state delegates to the national convention, in the same 17 precincts stood:

Curry 119
DeZell 92
Dickson 88
Haney 104
Manning 89
McLain 87
Shehan 82
Starkweather 102
Tichenor 61
Turner 72
Watkins 86
Webster 83
Wright 80

The counting of the Bourbon votes in this city was confused. In three precincts the counting board, carefully wrote in the names on the tally sheet, but forgot to put down any figures. In the city hall precinct somebody tore down the tally sheets. It is estimated that Smith polled between 150 and 200 more votes than his closest opponent, Walsh.

There were no contests on the democratic county ticket.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—Brigadier General Fechet, heading the Bremen relief expedition, has telegraphed from St. George's, Newfoundland, saying that fog is holding the two army amphibian planes there.

FIRST SESSION MONDAY STATE MUSIC TUTORS

13th Annual Convention Assembles Here—Children Chorus and Program By Visiting Artists Tuesday—Interesting Features Arranged.

The thirteenth annual convention of the Oregon Music Teacher's association will open officially in Medford tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, when Mrs. Clifford Moore, president, will deliver her opening address. A response will be given by Mayor O. O. Alenderfer, who will welcome the large number of delegates, from various sections of the state, and extend the greetings of the city.

This will be followed by a business meeting and a no host luncheon under the auspices of the Medford-Ashland association at the Presbyterian church. Elsie Carlson Strang of Roseburg, with Frances Lintott at the piano, will sing selected vocal numbers. On the same program Carleton James, local violinist will play "Hymn to the Sun" by Rimsky Korsakow, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. W. C. James.

At 1:30 a "vocal discussion" will be led by Mr. P. A. Ten Haaf, chairman, who will also give a practical talk on voice production with demonstrations. He will be followed by Mr. Ted Bacon, chairman of a "violin discussion" and a practical view of ensemble playing by Mr. Egeon "Teaching of Fine Art" will be the subject of Miss Clara A. Trotter, supervisor of intermediate grades and instructor of psychology at the Southern Oregon Normal at Ashland.

At 6:30 a no host dinner is to be held at the Hotel Medford and the public is invited to attend, also to attend the concert which will follow the dinner, at the Presbyterian church, in which a group of well known Portland artists will appear. These include: Mrs. Sylvia Weinstein Marzells, violin; Mrs. Henry W. Metzger, soprano; Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, piano; David Campbell, piano; Frederick W. Goodrich, organ; Portland String Quartet; Frank Eichenlaub, violin; Ted Bacon, viola and Ferdinand Konrad, violoncello.

TAX SLASH VOTE AGAIN HELD UP

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—A final vote on the tax reduction bill in the senate went over until next week when a recess was taken tonight on arrival of the Sabbath after a session lasting from 11 a. m. to 11:50 p. m.

During the long meeting, the senate voted down a series of amendments including proposals for repeal and for modification of the inheritance tax and tariff riders on agricultural products.

Likewise it rejected all duties to limit debate or to fix a definite hour for a vote on Monday and finally witnessed a dramatic clash between two of its foremost fighters, Johnson, republican of California, and Reed of Missouri, democrat.

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—"Again the construction industry ranks among those where accidents are on the increase, according to reports of Industrial Bulletins of New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois," states the Workers' Health Bureau of America, in emphasizing the need for trade union action to remedy this condition.

"DEATH VALLEY SCOTTY" RETURNS

When Walter Scott, better known as "Death Valley Scotty," the west's most typical desert character, who rose to world fame 25 years ago with a money-spending orgy in the east, heard his old-time friend, "Little Eva" Mudge, was having difficulty in getting a Los Angeles divorce, he packed his store clothes, "put up" at a $30 a day hotel and announced he would see her through. Witnesses for miles around have counted on hearing his testimony. Above, left, "Little Eva," right, Scott; below, Hans H. W. Jorgenson, husband of Eva Mudge.

PENDELTON, Ore., May 19.—(AP) Mrs. Katherine Timmerman, 55, of Helix, suffered concussion of the brain and a fractured skull early this morning when she leaped from the second floor of a local hotel to the concrete walk 22 feet below. A delusion that someone wished to poison her is thought to have been the cause of her leap. At a local hospital her condition was reported favorable.

BAPTISTS VOW TO KNIFE ANY WET SELECTION

Southern Conference Will Not Hold to Party Lines If 'Friend of Liquor Interests' Gets Nomination—Smith and Hoover Gain Delegates.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 19.—(AP)—The voting constituency of the southern Baptist conference included in a membership of 3,700, 000 tonight stood pledged to break party lines rather than see any candidate as one who was termed as "unmanned friend of the liquor interests" become president of the United States.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—Challenged in several states by political rivals but in others baying rather smooth sailing, Hoover and Smith won some more convention delegates this week as their supporters confidently claimed they were headed straight for the presidential nominations and their opponents contended they still have a long, hard road, with plenty of pitfalls, to travel.

Conceded even by his foes to have picked up a batch of delegates from Alabama, New Jersey and Oregon, the conference secretary ran his estimated strength, including claims that are disputed stoutly by his opposition, up close to the 545 majority required for nomination at Kansas City.

His lieutenants put out the claim that he actually had passed the 500 mark, but in this grouping were slightly more than 200 delegates which rival field marshals insist cannot be listed with fairness in the Hoover column.

Smith, faced with the necessity of lining up 723 1/2 convention votes if he is to be nominated at Houston, increased his claimed total to around 600 on the basis of actual selections to date, with his control over 74 of those delegates, challenged by the opposition. During the week delegations from Montana, Vermont and Wyoming were instructed to support the New York governor, and he landed the 28 New Jersey delegates, selected in a primary.

LONGVIEW, Wash., May 19.—(AP)—Better merchandising rather than crowding production is the answer to the ills of the lumber industry of the Pacific northwest, according to Col. W. B. Greeley, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, who arrives here Tuesday from Washington, D. C. Col. Greeley was formerly chief forester of the United States, resigning to become head of the lumbermen's body.

Portland—New System Laundry will build $20,000 plant addition.

RANGE FEED IN STATE EXCELLENT

SALEM, Ore., May 19.—(AP)—Oregon range feed conditions are the best in thirty years, Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, said today.

"Not since the days of the early settlers have the range hills and deserts waved with grass like this year," said Dr. Lytle.

CLUES FOUND TO G. HILL BURGLARS

Clues to the whereabouts of the two burglars, who broke into two Gold Hill establishments early yesterday morning, were found last evening when a glove and an empty morphine box were found along the Toque river two miles this side of Gold Hill. Authorities were watching the roads and highways closely last night for the possible arrival of the two men. They were believed to have done fiends and to have taken drugs from the Bowers Drug store at Gold Hill.
