

RECORD CROWD TO KLAMATH GUNNERS SEE OPENING GAME TAKE FIRST IN OF LEAGUE TODAY TELEGRAPH SHOOT

A record crowd is forecast today at the fair grounds for the opening game of the Oregon-California league, with Klamath Falls offering the resistance to the Medford Merchants. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock. A big crowd of Klamath rooters will accompany the team here. The victory of Ashland, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls and Medford will take part in the opening formalities, and there will be special music.

BEAVERS BLANKED BY SACS TO WIN THIRD TRAIT

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 19.—(AP)—Sacramento took undisputed leadership of the Pacific Coast Baseball league today by winning its third straight game and the series from Portland, 8 to 0. Sheeley and Severid hit homers.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 19.—(AP)—The Oaks took the lead in their series with the Seattle Indians by scoring a four to one victory here today. George Fowler was in rare form for the Oaks.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—(AP)—The Seals blanked the Hollywood Stars here today, and collected three scattered runs along the way, two of them on circuit swats by Welsh and Jolly.

13 STRAIGHT FOR CUBS; CARDINALS LOSE TO GIANTS

CHICAGO, May 19.—(AP)—With Charlie Root on the mound and Hack Wilson hitting his sixth home run of the season, the Cubs won their thirteenth consecutive game defeating Boston, 3 to 2 today.

ST. LOUIS, May 19.—(AP)—The Giants routed Flint Rhem here today to win the second game of the series 4 to 2. Dutch Henry pitched for the visitors.

CINCINNATI, May 19.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Robins closed their western invasion with a 2 to 0 victory over the Reds here today. McWeeny was invincible in the box for Brooklyn.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—Continuing their assault on Washington pitchers, the Cleveland Indians took today's rain-delayed game 9 to 7.

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—(AP)—The combination of Robert Moses Grove and Tristram Speaker alone was sufficient to subdue the Chicago White Sox this afternoon as the Athletics won by 2 to 0 and gained half a game on the flying Yankees.

EUGENE, Ore., May 19.—(AP)—Singing tonight to an audience of 5000 people, one of the largest to hear any singer in Eugene, Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Hinke, world famous contralto will fill the last engagement on her golden jubilee tour.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 19.—(AP)—Klamath gun club won the 1928 shoot-off of the Oregon State Telegraph trapshoot tournament today at the Portland Gun-Club traps when its five man squad topped a field of nine entries by three targets. The Klamath five man team marked up a fine total of 481, birds just three more than the Heppner Rod and Gun club and Lane county sportsmen's association of Eugene which finished in a tie for second place with totals of 478.

Klamath, which receives the Oregonian trophy along with the Church title, faced the traps with a well-balanced squad. R. E. DeWese was high man on the team with 98 out of 100. E. Hardbrook and W. B. Boyd turned in counts of 97; J. H. Martin finished with 95 and W. E. Lamm, president of the club, broke 94.

REIGH COUNT IS DERBY WINNER

CHURCHILL DOWNS, LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 19.—(AP)—Reigh Count, the heavily played favorite won the fifty-fourth Kentucky derby with its 156,000 prize today while eighty thousand persons cheered their tribute. Mistep was second and Tora was third. The race over a mile and a quarter route, was run on a drizzling rain and over a track sloping with mud.

Wedding Bells

Helen Haynes A beautiful wedding was celebrated at the Free Methodist parsonage, 237 West Tenth street, on Saturday evening at eight o'clock when Miss Gladys Dole, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Dole and William H. Haynes, both of Medford, were united in marriage by Rev. J. E. McDonald. The bride was very attractively attired in white silk, trimmed with lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Nettie Dole, sisters of the bride, were her attendants, and William Dole, acted as best man. After congratulations from relatives and friends, the bride and groom departed on a wedding trip. They will reside on South 1st street.

OPENING OF NEW CREAMERY WEDS.

Wednesday evening between the hours of 7:30 p. m. and 11 p. m. at the Jackson County Creamery will have open house and Mr. Kroschel invites the public to his glass at this time. The new name selected for the Jackson County Creamery will be announced during the evening and the $50.00 in prize money will be awarded the winners who suggested the three best names for the creamery. All the farmers holding stock in the organization will receive their annual dividend checks Wednesday evening. J. D. Mielke, state dairy and food commissioner; Professor P. M. Brandt, professor of animal husbandry of Oregon State college; Porter J. Neff, Medford lawyer and R. W. Fowler, county agriculture agent will all give interesting talks. A good musical program has been arranged by Mr. Kroschel during the evening. The Jackson County Creamery's new plant is one of the most modern in the state and it will be an education to come in and inspect it during this night.
