The measure carried in all precincts except Ashland, which turned in the largest majority against, with a vote of 29 no, and 5 yes. On the republican ballot, the following were nominated for constables: Ashland district, George Inlow; Medford district, George Prescott; Gold Hill district, Charles Barge; Jacksonville district, K. O. Merrifield. Inlow and Prescott also received the nomination on the democratic ticket in the Medford and Ashland districts. On the democratic ticket for Jacksonville district, C. W. Chase was named; in the Gold Hill district W. A. Cook.

The democratic ballot shows the following nominations: For circuit judge, H. D. Norton of Grants Pass; for sheriff, Ralph Jennings; for district attorney, George Coddling; for commissioner, Wilbur Ashpole; for coroner, Dr. C. T. Swenney. There were no contests for the offices.

A NEW GASOLINE AUTO CLEANER IS PERFECTED HERE

A new gasoline motor cleaner has been patented by N. A. Mead and W. G. Kindred of the Highway Motor company and will be on the market soon, according to Mr. Mead, who with his partner, labored over three months on the machine which is expected to take the place of the well known motor cleaning device.

The new cleaner is guaranteed by its builders to remove all grease from any type of motor in a remarkably short time. The principle of the device lies in the fact that gasoline from a gallon tank attached near the lower end of a 42-inch nozzle, mixes with the water which is forced from a small opening at high speed. The nozzle can be attached to any city water connection as easily as a garden sprinkler.

It is built in such a manner that it can be easily handled, and for a time will be handled here. Two salesmen, who will cover the state, will probably go on the road before the end of the month, according to present plans. Several of the cleaners have been completed and can be seen at the Highway Motor company garage.

SLASH BURNING NOW PROHIBITED

During the past two or three days the lookouts on the Crater national forest and state forest land have reported several fires which proved to be slash or brush piles. The local forest office calls attention to the fact that the state law prohibits burning on any forest land, grass, grain or stubble, during the period of May 15 to October 1, without first securing a permit. Permits may be obtained from the state fire warden, whose office is in the post office building, or from the local wardens who are located in the outlying districts. Section 9 of the Oregon forest laws provides a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $250, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 nor more than 60 days for the violation of this requirement.

LOCAL MAIL CLERK MAKES A PERFECT THROWING RECORD

A remarkable record in throwing of mail was made by H. W. Morrow, mailing clerk in the Medford post office, this morning. Incidental to the inspection work of W. C. Ott, of Seattle, chief clerk at large in charge of the eleventh railway mailing division, comprising the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Alaska. Mr. Morrow threw a perfect score, the first time that has ever happened in the Medford post office, which means that he threw 525 cards, each one of which represented an Oregon post office location, without a single error.

HOOD RIVER APPLES ARE DISCOVERED IN THE KING'S KITCHEN

(By James P. Howe, Associated Press Staff Writer.)

LONDON, May 25.—(AP)—The kitchen of Buckingham palace, London home of the king and queen, is as interesting as any part of the huge establishment. I was able to inspect the kitchen at first hand, as preparations were being completed for a banquet to visiting royalty.

The visit to the kitchen followed an interesting and leisurely stroll through the palace. In an adjoining room the dessert fruit was being arranged in great golden baskets.

There were plums, fresh pineapples, apples, grapes and peaches, all from British possessions—excepting the apples.

Somehow the apples looked familiar and I took another look. On the box in which they had been shipped were the labels identifying them as from Hood River, Oregon.

VINCENT DOLP IS LEADING RUDIE

PORTLAND, Ore., May 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Kenneth Reed won an easy victory today in the semi-finals of the Oregon women's golf championship, defeating Mrs. Jerry Post, seven up and six to go. Mrs. Reed will meet Miss Margaret Murphy tomorrow in the finals, Miss Murphy winning by default from Miss Flora Jane McBride, who found it imperative to go to Seattle, where she is to ride in the horse show.

Don Moss, playing opposite Russell Smith, in the semi-finals today made 18 holes in par 72. Smith turned in 77. Vincent Dolp gave Dudy Wilhelm, state champion, a hard fight, each making 75.

Wilhelm was one down to Vincent Dolp at the end of the first 18 holes.
