BELLVIEW GIRLS TO HAVE SEWING EXHIBIT AT FAIR

BELLVIEW, May 24.—The Bellview school closed on Friday, May 18th, after a very successful year. Mrs. McKinney and Norma Reeder were the teachers for this term. A community dinner was one of the main features of the day; at noon the people of the neighborhood gathered with well filled baskets and spread their lunch. After dinner a splendid program given by the sewing club girls and other pupils in the school was enjoyed by those present. During the afternoon the sewing club girls had their work on display and some very fine things the girls had to show for their year's work. The sewing will be entered with the rest of the school exhibits at the county fair this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Thornton were callers in the Bellview district on Wednesday evening.

A jolly crowd composed of the following named spent Sunday picnicking on Wagner creek: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beck, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Mark True, Miss Erma Beck, Miss Helen Wise, Tom Bell and Albie Beck. After enjoying a wonderful dinner, the afternoon was spent exploring the old mine in the canyon and in gathering wild flowers.

L. Wilson of Shale City was in this vicinity on Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chastain of Central Point spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Chastain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bryant of Bellview.

Mrs. Moffat and her daughter Helen of Petaluma, Calif., spent Tuesday visiting at the home of Mrs. Mina Bayles.

Mrs. O. L. Long and Mrs. Susie Deryude of Ashland spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. J. Bryant. Miss Helen Shelditeer attended a party Saturday night given at the home of Miss Bernice Carter of Ashland.

Mrs. Freed and Mrs. Nord and children of Oakland, Calif., are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keaton, who have been making their home with their daughter on Oak street since their home was destroyed by fire. The Keatons expect to rebuild within a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Owens of Twin Falls, Ida., were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark True on Monday. Mrs. Owens is the niece of Mrs. True's and he several months vacation, having disposed of their large farm in Idaho. They expect to leave southern Oregon some time this week for Eugene, Portland and points in Washington, before returning to Twin Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nordwick of Medford were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Merriman on Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. C. Joy returned from Pendleton, Ore., Friday, where she went with her son and daughter, Richard and Adena, who were in the state debating contest, and who won the state honors for the Ashland high school of which they are graduates this year.

Mrs. S. K. Barnes and daughter Frances were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atwood of Medford on Friday.

Mrs. Bessie Smith and family have moved from their place in Bellview to the Ritzinger place on Eighth street. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Williams are moving into the place just vacated by the Smith family. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lambkin of Ashland just recently purchased the Briggs place in Bellview and will take possession as soon as the Williams family move to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hessemer, Mrs. S. K. Barnes and daughter Frances went to Hill on Sunday. While there they called at the hospital to see Buster Owens, who is a patient there. They report that he is making a rapid recovery but will be confined there for a couple of weeks yet.

The Rowena circle of the Yeoman lodge gave an apron and over-all dance at their hall on Tuesday night and a large crowd was present and a good time reported. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Miles and daughters, Letha and Thais, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Barnes and daughter from this district were in attendance at this affair.

The Merley circle of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Metcalf on East Main street road, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A very interesting program was given during the afternoon and at the close delicious refreshments were served by the following named hostesses: Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. R. C. Metcalf.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Randall left Wednesday morning for Roseburg to attend the grand lodge meeting of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges, which will be in session the remainder of this week.

SCHOOL PICNIC AT LAKE CREEK MUCH ENJOYED

LAKE CREEK, May 24.—The four schools of this district enjoyed the joint picnic and get-together Friday and were pleased to have the county superintendent, Mrs. Carter, county supervisor, Mrs. Burr, and Mrs. Chaney, head of the Parent-Teachers' association, with us. Several students received awards for perfect attendance for two years.

H. L. Tonn was in Medford Tuesday.

Mrs. Nancy Schmittling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. H. Jones, for several weeks, left for her home in Portland Tuesday. There were about 29 cars at Dead Indians soda springs Sunday. Everyone thinks the road better than it has ever been and speaks well of the part the forest service had in fixing their part.

Mrs. C. E. Wilkison, who runs the hotel, says she expects to open the hotel for business earlier this season than usual and has already had the cottages opened.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rowden, who have been occupying one of the cottages, have come to Big Elk, where they will be stationed this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones of Talent and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Moore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilkison at Dead Indian soda springs Sunday.

There were lots of picnic and fishing parties all along the creek and several at Lake Creek also.

Carl Nygren killed a big rattlesnake on the sill of his barn Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Terrill have gone to Diamond lake, where they expect to remain during the summer.

The Grange meeting will be held Thursday night this week instead of Friday.

The ladies of the Lost Creek Community club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. A. Peck. Miss Yeick was present and gave an interesting talk on frozen desserts. She also demonstrated the making of fruit sherbets. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Nussbaum.

A number of friends met at Henry Peck's new barn last Sunday and spent the day in fishing, picnicking and a general good time. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Peck, Henry and Emil Peck, also Mrs. R. A. Peck, Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. J. Dow, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Smith and two daughters of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grigsby and son Donald spent the week end with Mrs. H. L. Tonn. Saturday being Mrs. Grigsby's birthday, they celebrated with a birthday dinner on Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tonn, Harry Tonn, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grigsby and son of Medford, the Misses Venita Anderson and Fern Harbaugh of Medford and Gerald Ward of Eagle Point.

Mrs. Emma Walters of the Dry creek section and Miss Vera Ker-sha wof Antelope were calling on Mrs. Walter's father, L. Tonn, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoeft and children, who have spent the winter in Medford, were out to the ranch Sunday. They expect to move back to the ranch in about a week, as soon as school closes.
