CRUELTY TO DOG BY DOCTOR GETS AIRING IN COURT

By F. H. Cowles.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., May 25.—(Special)—Legislation governing the care of animals used for vivisection will be the probable outcome of the trial of the people against Wilbur Selle, a member of the state teacher's college before Judge George in the court of extra session here today. Selle represented by Attorney Butcher, presented a sheik-like demeanor in the crowded court room, where an entire venire of 60 jurymen was exhausted without filling the jury box.

Unusual interest is manifested in the case, due to the pitiful condition of the animal, a small fox terrier, found secured by a large chain in a garage here on April 19, by members of the Santa Barbara humane society. Suspension of Selle from the faculty was requested through Governor C. C. Young, pending disposition of the case.

That the experiments were conducted without needless suffering and under the authority of Doctor W. D. Sansum and the college hospital is the defense offered.

Dr. Sansum, well-known diabetic specialist, will be called as a witness, it is stated.

Photographs of the dog indicate terrible emaciation, with wounds infested with vermin. That the animal was without water and neglected, is charged in the prosecution, substantiated it is said, by Doctor Massey, who is quoted as declaring the condition of the dog to be the worst on record at his hospital, where it was chloroformed to relieve its misery.

Amundsen Ready to Help.

OSLO, Norway, May 26.—(AP)—Roald Amundsen, famous Norwegian polar explorer is reported to have been called into conference with Norwegian government authorities concerning the possibility of sending a relief expedition to search for and give assistance to the missing Italia.

In reply to a request for assistance from the Italian minister, the Norwegian government stated that the question of help for General Nobile would be taken up immediately and that the ministry of defense would consult experts concerning the best course to pursue.

LONDON May 26.—(AP)—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today said that reports received during the night failed to better the outlook regarding the dirigible Italia, missing on her return flight from the North Pole.

A message from King's Bay stated that the base ship Citta di Milano has been unable to establish communication with the Italia since 9 a. m. yesterday.

Reports from Oslo at 3 a. m. said the Norwegian wireless stations were without news.

USED LIGHT TO LURE KNOWLEDGE, NOT LURE FISH

AURORA, Ill., May 26.—(AP)—The premise of this item is that the Illinois law forbids the use of a light to lure fish.

Frank Cross was charged with violating that law. He admitted the light, but denied the lure.

"The lantern," he told Judge Gorham, was to read by.

"Ah, yes," nodded the court. "And what, may I ask, were you reading?"

"The fish and game laws," replied Cross.

"I suppose," said the court, "you found some interesting sections?"

"Yes, your honor. I recall one section saying it is illegal to use a light to lure fish, although there was no rule against using it to read by."

"The pursuit of knowledge," said the court, "is highly commendable. There is no disposition of this court to interfere with study. The case is dismissed."

Arthur Hammerstein, who brought the film and two others from Russia to this country, wired the state department protesting against the action of the censors. "I will open with this picture on Monday night and you can take whatever action you please," he said in his message.

Those who have seen the picture say it shows the outbreak of the world war, the Kerensky revolt, bolshevist revolution and the storming of St. Petersburg.

SHAVING RACE TO BE PARIS STUNT

PARIS, May 26.—(AP)—The barbers of Paris are going to perform in their favorite indoor sport, a shaving race.

Crews from different shops will scrape off stubble in a well regulated contest conducted by the leading sporting newspaper. A large supply of men with substantial growths of whiskers will be furnished by the supervising officials and each crew will be rated on the number of shaves administered "without suffering," so presumably there will be penalties imposed on the hurried barber who takes off the hide with the hair.

N. Y. YANKEES ARE TOO STRONG FOR ANY BALL TEAM

(By the Associated Press)

It appears that the team that can stop the New York Yankees has not yet been assembled.

The Philadelphia Athletics, widely heralded as the only team in the American league capable of giving Huggins' murderous hitters a run for their money, fell twice before the champions' bats at Philadelphia yesterday.

Lou Gehrig's eighth home run of the season with two on in the sixth enabled the champions to turn back Howard Ehmke and the Athletics in the opener, 4 to 2. Herb Pennock, southpaw ace, held the tribe of McGillicuddy to seven a rout for the Philadelphians who a rout for the Philadelphians who suffered a 9 to 2 beating. Babe Ruth hit his fifteenth and sixteenth home runs while "Jumping Joe" Dugan, also smashed out two.

Ruffing was supreme in the pinches and the Red Sox blanked the Washington Senators at Boston 5 to 0. Phil Todt smacked out a home run off Lisenbee.

Four runs in the eighth inning gave the Cleveland Indians an 8 to 4 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Urban Faber was in form and the Chicago White Sox blanked Detroit, 1 to 0.

The Cincinnati Reds clung to their hold on first place in the National league race by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 2 to 0.

The Chicago Cubs came out of their four-game losing streak by pounding out a 10 to 3 verdict over the Pirates at Pittsburg.

Circuit Drives by Harvey Hendrick and Rube Bressler gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a decision over the Boston Braves, 4 to 1. It was the Braves' first game under the management of Rogers Hornsby. The "rajah" got two of the eight hits the Braves could collect off Watson Clark and scored their one run.

Russell Miller and Vic Aldridge tangled in a hurling duel at the Polo grounds as the New York Giants eked out a 4 to 3 win over the lowly Phils. Home runs by Mel Ott and Eddie Roush, each with a man on base, sent Miller down to defeat. Each team made but six hits.

BABE RUTH NOW 7 GAMES AHEAD FORMER RECORD

NEW YORK, May 26.—(AP)—The month of May is proving to be one of the most prolific Babe Ruth has ever experienced in all his years of campaigning after bigger and better home run records.

Slashing out two home runs in the second game of yesterday's double header with the Philadelphia Athletics, the mainspring of the Yanks' attack brought his season's total to 16, all but four of which have been hit this month.

Since 1919 when he set a new record of 29 home runs in a single season, the Babe has hit more than 12 home runs in a month on only four occasions. He hit 17 in September last year; 14 in July, 1924; 13 in June, 1921; and 13 in July, 1920.

On three other occasions he has collected an even dozen in a month. He has six more games this month.

His two circuit drives yesterday put him seven games and six days ahead of his schedule last year when he hit 60.

Kill Both Worms and Eggs

Wide experience has shown that oil-lead combination gives most effective codling moth control, and at the same time cuts down the amount of lead on the fruit.

The oil kills the eggs before they hatch out, and the lead protects the fruit against worms hatching from any eggs not reached by the oil spray.
