Presbyterian Bible Class Has Enjoyable Time
 On Wednesday afternoon, the Bible class of the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Charles A. Wing is president and Mrs. E. N. Warner teacher, met at the church parlors to be entertained by Miss G. A. Field of Cottage street, who once each year is hostess to her class and serves a delectable feast of strawberry shortcake. Now, as everybody suspects, the sure way to people's hearts is via the strawberry shortcake route. Mrs. G. A. Field certainly knows this and it has become a time-honored custom among the Presbyterian ladies for Mrs. Field to be hostess in strawberry time. Each member of this big class looks forward to Mrs. Field's month as hostess.

Miss Ruth McCallum, who last week closed a successful school year at Griffin creek, left Saturday evening for Blitzenville, Wash., where she will visit a few days before entering the state normal at Cheney, Wash., for the summer.

The Pythian club, which met at the home of Mrs. Emma Jeschke, on North Front St., Tuesday evening, proved a very pleasant social event; 600 was enjoyed by those present and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Hermine Klein.

Next Friday, June 1, there will be a regular cafeteria luncheon for the members of St. Mark's Guild.

Father and Mrs. Hamilton are building a cottage at Crescent City and at this meeting they will be given a shower of things for their cottage.

The Ladies Aid society of the First M. E. church met in regular home coming Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. J. M. Corlies presiding. Miss May Phillips led the devotions and offered prayer. Song, "Jesus is All the World to Me."

Mrs. J. A. Poran in behalf of the E. Side circle presented Mrs. Edward H. Hendrick and her son Richard, "The Little Minister," who entertained with music and stories, a special feature being a violin solo, "Sing Me to Sleep," by the Little Minister. Mrs. Hendrick accompanied. During the social hour the E. Side circle served strawberry shortcake.

Anyone having quarterlies which they are through with, please turn them in to Mrs. Warner.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS
 Reporters: Laella Corn, Betty Culy, Donald Barnello, Dorothy Ferris, Ruth Hancam, Madge Kuzman, Carol Reames, and Allan Rogers.

Examinations
 Examinations are drawing nearer every minute, but we are all sure we can pass through them with high averages. Monday and Tuesday of this coming week will be given over to examinations.

Bank Report
 The Junior high banked 93.4 per cent Tuesday morning, which was the last bank day for this year. Every room banked 100 percent except room 6, which banked 95 percent. Last start next year with 100 percent the first bank day.

Student Body Election
 The student body of Junior high elected their new officers Thursday, May 24th. The new officers elected are: Altra Edwards, president; Carol Doolittle, girl's vice-president; Billy Cummings, boy's vice-president; Deah Higdon, secretary; Ruby Stone, pianist; Nelle Green, song leader. These officers will take up their duties in the fall.

Library is Busy Place
 The Junior high library has been a busy place this past week, for all the library books were returned from the grade schools. Nearly every period a group of girls came in to help Miss Andrews, the librarian. Mrs. Thompson has also been helping to get the books in shape, by re-binding those which needed it.

More Penmanship Certificates Are Awarded
 More Rice penmanship certificates have been awarded recently accordingly to Miss Lillian Wise, instructor. The winners of the final certificates are: Clifford Cave, Velma Smith, Anna Fuson, Donald Cooksey, Helen Edmiston, Jack Boyd, Lloyd Hammack, Olivia Todd, Sam Dressler, Ralph Prater, Will don Colbaugh, Luella Corn, Ruth Hancam, and Shirley Ouff. There is only one more week for the other students to get certificates, and we all should try very hard to earn one.

Weekly Spelling Report
 After averaging the spelling reports, it is found that the classes that have the highest averages are the 7th and 7A1 classes with an average of 99.8 percent each, the 7H1 class with an average of 99.1 percent, and the 8B1 group with 98.7 percent. All four classes are taught by Mr. Keese.

Science Classes Finish Work
 The science classes have finished their work for the year. Three books were made in these classes: One of leaves, one of birds, and one of flowers. The more advanced classes made two of flowers, some of the books containing as many as sixty specimens. The students enjoyed their work in the science classes very much.

Last Assembly of the Year Held
 An unusually fine program was given at the last assembly Friday afternoon. The following musical numbers were given: "Keep Sweeping the Cobwebs off of the Moon," Melba Williams and Alma Lawrence, accompanied by Maude Barrigar. Trio, "Among My Sovereigns," Melba Williams, Alma Lawrence, and Maude Barrigar. Violin, "Liebesfreud," by Kriessler, "Hungarian Dance No. 5," by Brahms; Mrs. Moldren, accompanied by Dorothy Reynolds. Piano solo, "The Dragon Fly," Graelle Lon Ivanhove. Harmonica band, "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," "Holy Night," "Red Wing," "Show Me the Way to Go Home," "Initiation of a S. P. Train," Fred Noncheater on his harmonica. Solo, "Sing Me to Sleep," Beth Cummings. Liano trio, "Thief of Baghdad," Peggy and Justine Miller, Dorothy Paley. Solo, "My Lover is a Fisherman," "Didn't It Rain," Melba Williams.

Following the musical program, Miss Barrigar awarded a cup to the seventh and eighth grade girls in a spelling contest held. As both grades tied for honors, the names of both classes will be engraved on the cup. Goldie Higdon received the trophy.

FIFTH AND LAST OF 'MADAME Q' SERIES TUESDAY

The fifth and last installment of the serial radio comedy, "Madame Q," which has entertained southern Oregon radio fans periodically for the past three months, will be presented over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, Tuesday night from nine to 10 thru the courtesy of The California Oregon Power company.

With each play of the series, presented, interest in the plot and the principal characters has grown more tense, and suggestions and wagers as to what the final outcome will be have become frequent and extravagant in keeping with the farcical spirit of the major theme.

The same capable cast of players who have been responsible for the success of the past productions, will be heard again in the "Madame Q—part five" which promises many surprises and a generous amount of hearty laughs. In addition to Miss Jo Murray, Harold Corliss, James Stevens, Earl Davis and Mary Greiner, who have heretofore been heard in these plays, the cast for the final production will include such celebrities as Mayot Almdorfer, Fletcher Fish, Ted Baker, George Prescott and a list of others, who will also figure prominently in the plot of the play.

Local residents who happen not to have radios in their homes are invited to attend the public radio party to be held in the Palmer Music House on Tuesday night to hear the last of the "Madame Q" plays. The local store will be converted into a theatre as it was upon the occasion of a former radio party staged during the Madame Q series. Tuesday night, the cast of players will make their personal appearance at the Palmer Music House after the show.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

The Gold Hill high school held its commencement exercises on Friday evening, May 25. Those who were present enjoyed an excellent program. The four graduating seniors this year are Ethel Smith, Barbara McQuat, Burnet Davidson and Asil Walker. The program was as follows:

Song, Senior quartet—Melody in F.
 Solo, Senior—Asil Walker.
 Song, Senior quartet—"Down in Sunshine Valley."
 Address, Dean Powell of the University of Oregon Extension Division.
 Presentation of diplomas, Earl Moore, chairman of the school board.

Mr. Bluet, the high school principal, was very fortunate in securing Dean Powell to give the commencement address. Mr. Powell gave a very interesting talk on personality. "Some people believe if a man combs his hair one way," he said, "he has one type of personality; if he combs his hair another way, he has a different personality; if he has no hair, what about his personality?" Several other examples of "personality" were given by Dean Powell.

An exceptionally large crowd was in attendance. All of the four seniors intend to enter college next year. May their ambitions be realized.

Corvallis—Alfalfa is proving to be profitable soil builder here.
