CHRYSLER ABSORBS DODGE IN GIANT AUTO EXPANSION

NEW YORK, May 29.—A new colossus of the automobile industry, second only to the Ford company and General Motors, has been formed with the merger of Dodge Brothers, Inc., and the Chrysler Corporation. The new combination has a present market valuation of $450,000,000, approximately double that of Dodge Brothers, Inc., and a production capacity of about 700,000 automobiles annually. The acquisition of the Dodge company is only a step in the expansion program of the Chrysler organization, Wall street understands. Negotiations are said to be going forward for the inclusion of other units. The deal is another milestone in the sensational rise of Walter P. Chrysler. From a common laborer he has risen to the place where he ranks with Ford and John J. Baskob of General Motors as the giants of the industry. The announcement of the Chrysler-Dodge deal and the manner of its consummation came as a surprise. Mr. Chrysler and Lawrence Dillmore, head of Dillon, Read and company, which purchased the Dodge Motor company from the widow of its founder in May, 1925, met two weeks ago at an informal luncheon. They agreed that each company had something that the other needed. Engineers were sent into the two plants for a survey. These engineers and accountants met last week in Detroit and exchanged statistics. Mr. Chrysler and Mr. Dillon, engaging adjoining hotel suites Friday, remained locked in their rooms until Monday night, carrying on their conference. The merger plans were submitted to the directors of the two companies yesterday and adopted. Neither organization is to lose its physical identity. Dodge Brothers, Inc., will retain its plants, distribution forces and other elements of organization. Mr. Chrysler becomes chairman of the new board with Mr. Dillon as chairman of the finance committee of the reorganized corporation. H. G. Wilner will remain as president of Dodge. The Dodge Brothers Motor company was formed in 1914 by John F. and Horace E. Dodge, engineers who had grown up in the factory of Henry Ford. For years they were second only to Ford in the low priced, four-cylinder field. Other mergers rumored as pending in the industry include the names of Pierce-Arrow and Jordan and the Packard and the companies, M. E. Forbes of Buffalo and Edward S. Jordan of Cleveland, president of the Pierce-Arrow and Jordan companies respectively admitted negotiations were under way. Five grandsons and a great grandson were pallbearers at the Omaha funeral of Mrs. Anna McCoy, 89, Nebraska pioneer. A Sheldahl power owned by Jeff Kelo of Grant, Neb., shows off by running in circles as long as anybody will watch it.

TWO-CROP LAND
When you can cut a good crop of hay or grain and then follow with hood crop, cabbage or cauliflower, and get within reach of buying the land with one year's production, you are doing justice to yourself.

WE OFFER THAT KIND OF INVESTMENT IN SIX ACRES AND, LIKE THE MODEL HOUSE, IT IS "READY FOR INSPECTION." IT IS CLOSE TO TOWN, AND BY HAVING THE PLANTS READY FOR JULY PLANTING, A FINE CROP OF CABBAGE OR BROCCOLI WILL BE READY FOR CHRISTMAS SALE. WHERE CAN YOU EQUAL IT? NO CUMBERSOME WATER RIGHTS, BUT WATER AVAILABLE FOR IRRIGATION.
