PORTLAND HANDS DEFEAT TO SEALS BY HARD HITTING

(By the Associated Press)

Portland pounded Elmer Jacobs hard for five innings, and added another run off May in the sixth, giving them the necessary margin, with which to stave off the Seals' ninth inning rally, which fell one run short. The score was 6-2, Bert Cole receiving credit for the victory. Batteries: Jacobs, May, Ferguson and Sprinz; Vargas, Cole, Tomlin and Amoseth.

Gordon Rhodes had the Senators well tamed, limiting them to six hits as the Stars again dropped them for a loss, 6-1. The losers contributed four errors to help swell the Stars' run total. Batteries: Kallio, Singleton and Kosher; Rhodes and Basler.

Splendid relief work by Clyde Nance, who stepped in to blank Los Angeles from the third to the tenth, enabled Seattle to nose out the Angels in extra frames, 5-4. Cunningham and Pitt allowed the Indians but six hits, but they came at opportune moments. Batteries: Cunningham, Pitt and Thumath; Bryan, Nance and Park.

Despite the fact that Bill Hughes whiffed nine Oaks in six innings, the champions had no trouble bouncing hits off him in several frames and the Bells bowed once more to the Oaks, 7-5. Boehler on the hill for the winners, disposed of seven Bells on strikes. Batteries: Boehler and Lombardi; Hughes, Martin, Nelson and Baldwin.

LOUGHRAN-LATZO BATTLE TONIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

Weather permitting, Tommy Loughran will put his light-heavyweight crown on his head at 12-15-15 field tonight and let Pete Latzo, Scranton local minor, try to knock it off in 15 rounds. The battle originally was scheduled for Wednesday, but rain knocked those plans into a cocked hat.

Forced to weigh in again today, Loughran and Latzo went back to their training stunts yesterday in an effort to keep down to the class limit of 175 pounds. Loughran worked out at a local gymnasium. The champion barely made the limit at the first weighing in Wednesday afternoon, just scaling 174 pounds. Latzo weighed 148 1/2.

What little betting there was came on a 3 to 1 basis, with the champion the favorite.

PITTSBURG CHECKS BUNION CREW TO ITS LOSING SPELL; GET PRIZE MONEY YANKS WIN AGAIN TONIGHT, IS CLAIM

(By the Associated Press)

The Pittsburgh Pirates, National League champions last year, have checked their losing streak at least temporarily.

With their infield still a makeshift affair, the floundering Corsairs, harrassed at every turn, pulled themselves together at Forbes field yesterday and nosed out the St. Louis Cards, 3 to 2. That victory checked the Pirates' run of defeats at six in a row and sent the Cards into fourth place in the standings.

George Sisler hit his first National League home run as the Braves made it four in a row from the downtown Phillies, 9 to 4. All-star Sisler contributed three of the Braves' 13 hits of three Philadelphia hurlers.

The news along the American League front was much as usual. The New York Yanks played with four utility men in the lineup, but shut out the Washington Senators, anyway, 4 to 0. Babe Ruth hit his 19th homer of the season.

Cleveland took its third straight beating from the on-coming Detroit Tigers, 9 to 4. Shantz and Buckeye were pounded for 16 hits, while Gibson pitched effectively for the Tigers.

The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox ended all square in their double-header at St. Louis, the Sox galloping away with an easy 7 to 2 victory in the first. In the nightcap Schulte's home run gave the Browns an even break on the day, 2 to 1.

RUTh 10 GAMES AHEAD OLD MARK

(By the Associated Press)

Babe Ruth has closed his books for May with 19 home runs to his credit, more than he ever has had at this stage of the season.

Homer 19—a high fly that dropped just inside the right field barrier—was propelled at the Yankee stadium yesterday, with Hadley of Washington as the victim. The drive put Ruth 10 games and 12 days ahead of his 1927 pace when he hit 60 for a new record. He did not smash his 19th homer last year until June 11 in his 52nd game. Yesterday's was his 42nd contest of the season.

DIPLOMAS GIVEN TO 75 GRADUATES OF ASHLAND HIGH

ASHLAND, June 1.—Seventy-five representative young people of Ashland received their diplomas from the Ashland high school on Thursday evening. Graduation exercises were held in the gymnasium of the Junior high school. The gymnasium had been made most attractive for the event by the erection of a stage at the north end of the room, where quantities of greens and an abundance of yellow flowers completed a charming decoration scheme which gave prominence to the class colors. The 75 young people marched in procession the length of the hall and were seated on the platform with members of the board of education and with the speaker of the evening, Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University of Oregon.

President Hall in his address to the class, emphasized the homely virtues and the character building forces that make for fine accomplishment in life. The address was frequently punctuated with personal anecdotes and humorous bits that kept the audience in the happiest possible frame of mind and prepared a way for the splendid plan of the address. Diplomas were presented by Mrs. Louise Bennett, president of the board of education. The following program was given: Music, "Chinese Patrol, Orchestra; Invocation, Rev. Charles R. Dunham, First Baptist church; music, (a) "Spring Comes Laughing," (b) "The Voice of West Winds," Girls' Glee Club, "Class Sentiments" music, "Grand American Fantasia," Orchestra; address, "Preparedness for Life," President Arnold R. Hall, University of Oregon; presentation of diplomas, Louise Bennett, president of school board; benediction, Rev. Charles R. Dunham; music, "War of the Nations," Orchestra.

Bernard E. Spencer of Los Angeles, arrived in Ashland this week to visit with his daughter, Miss Esther Spencer, and to attend her graduation. Mr. Spencer is a brother of D. M. Spencer, Miss Mary Spencer and James Spencer, and is visiting at the old Spencer home, east of town. Since the war Mr. Spencer has been connected with the work of the veterans' bureau.

EASY HOUSEKEEPING

By MRS. MEG MACGREGOR, Director of Household Science

Drainboards snow white

-yet unscrubbed

One of my correspondents writes me that she is having a most disconcerting time with a dingy, gray drainboard in a renthouse. She says she has scrubbed 'til she is exhausted, and the stains and discolorations are still there. I've written her to stop scrubbing at once! There is positively no need for it in these days of "easy housekeeping."

The necessity for "elbow grease" vanished when Clorox appeared. No rub, no scrub, no worry. Just apply Clorox in the correct solution—the directions are on the label—and presto! shining, bright cleanliness every where.

Stained white porcelain

White porcelain, tile or enameled drainboards can be kept spotless in the same easy way. Always rinse well as soon as the spots have disappeared.

Bleaching hardwood floors

A woman wrote me from Denver to tell me what wonderful results she got with Clorox for bleaching her floors. She says: "First I washed the floors with soap and water. Then I applied a Clorox solution with a mop as directed. This I let stand for half an hour. I could see my floors growing lighter every minute. The Clorox and bleached the floors underneath. Then I rinsed them with clear water. When they were thoroughly dry my husband varnished, waxed and polished them. We were so proud of our work and all our friends thought we had new floors!"

Let me help you

If you have a problem of better, easier cleaning, do write to me. I can help I will. My laboratory is always at your service. And if you have found better and easier housekeeping ways, won't you pass the good word along? Thousands of other women will be interested and I can tell them here—just as I can tell you.
