

WEATHER MAN HALTS 13 GAMES IN BIG LEAGUE

(By the Associated Press) Thirteen postponements have been made into the major league calendar in the last two days. After halting six of the eight games scheduled on Monday, the weather prevented seven contests.

In the only big league game of the day, the Washington Senators, aided by home runs by Gosselin and Reeves, beat the Browns at St. Louis, 4 to 3. Garland Braxton was touched for three hits and the Browns' one run in the first inning, but allowed only four safeties thereafter.

At Lysburg, Pa., leaders of the national game gathered to pay tribute to one of its most famous satellites. Presentation was made to Bucknell university of the Christy Mathewson memorial gateway to the college stadium, while Commissioner Landis declared the "Big Six" was the man who made baseball truly the national game it is today.

Mathewson, who died in 1925, was graduated from Bucknell before he gained fame as one of the big league's greatest pitchers. Max Carey, who was playing center field for Pittsburgh when Mathewson was a great pitcher, found himself under a three-day suspension for his vigorous protests against a decision at Brooklyn on Sunday when the Pirates defeated the Robins in a 14-inning game. Carey, who is captain of the Robins, was charged with inciting Flatbush fans to riot.

A Powerful Minority. GENEVA, June 6.—(AP)—A resolution in the league council demanding quick settlement of the Polish-Lithuanian dispute, was defeated this afternoon. Premier Waidemarus of Lithuania, alone, voted against it, but unanimity is required, including the parties in dispute.

ANGELS FLY HIGH OVER PORTLAND; OF JOCKEYS, PLANS TO GIVE UP TURF SEATTLE, CLIMBS TO GIVE UP TURF

(By the Associated Press) Fred Ortman made his first start in several weeks, but he was no puzzle to the Angels, who sent him to the showers under a barrage of hits before the fourth inning was over. Meanwhile Plitt topped with the Beavers and the Angels finished on the long end of a 2-1 count. Batteries: Plitt and Hannah; Ortman, Couch and Almsmith, Saunders.

A pair of home runs by McDaniels and superlative relief of twisting by Bill Hughes carried the Missions to a 5-2 win over the Senators in the initial clash of the week. McDaniels' second homer came with two men on in the sixth and sewed up the game. Hughes came to Holting's rescue in the fourth with no outs and whitewashed the Senators, with one hit the rest of the way. Batteries: Rabin, Gould and Severin; Holting, Hughes and Baldwin.

Hollywood went into a try for second place as the Utah season. Gordon Rhodes, outplayed George Bohler of the Oaks in an 11-inning duel, 2-2. Each hurler whiffed eight batters. Batteries: Bohler and Reed; Rhodes and Rhoads.

Johnny Mitchell's long sacrifice fly in the tenth, sent Sullivan home from third and gave Seattle a 4-3 victory over San Francisco. The victory also lifted the Indians from the cellar. Batteries: Jacobs and Sprunt; Wilson and Parker.

TILDEN PREPARES NET COMEBACK FOR DAVIS CUP

(By Alan J. Gould, Associated Press Sports Editor.)

NEW YORK, June 6.—(AP)—In the same week that Little Bill Johnston's definite retirement from competitive tennis is made known, the Californian's serious rival and comrade in arms, Bill Tilden, is to set forth as the guide of youth in a new Davis cup quest.

The domain of tennis or any sport has had few stranger turns than this. Eight years ago Little Bill and Big Bill youths themselves then, in the competitive sense, although also champions, made the last American Davis cup pilgrimage to Europe together.

After eight years, Tilden and Johnston each figured in only three Davis cup matches. There has not been and may never be an international record to match this, great though the present French combination of Leduc and Cochet looms.

Big Bill, despite seven defeats in two years at the hands of the Leduc-Cochet combination, is not yet through. In fact Tilden, in defeat last year, was close in as great as he ever has been. This year he not only has mastered the best available youth and put new life in the Davis cup campaign, but set himself for another big comeback attempt. It may have the same fate as last year's attempt, but not for lack of a gallant effort.

"I have taken my lickings before this and I will take a good many more before I get through, but I will still be playing the game," so asserts Tilden.

Nine years ago Tilden and Johnston met in the final for the Leduc-Cochet championship. Little Bill won, but it was the last time, because for months afterward Tilden, devoted hours daily to perfection of a backhand stroke, his weakness against Johnston.

He developed probably the greatest offensive backhand shot tennis has ever known. "In the American final that year, Johnston set out to pound my backhand as he had done the year before, but it would not be pounded the time. It is just this difference in backhand strokes which I believe provided the margin of my victory over Johnston." Johnston's whiplash forehand and Tilden's lightning backhand stand out as the greatest individual strokes produced in this country or perhaps in any other. Every corner of Little Bill's lanky frame was behind his murderous forehanders. When he had them under control in his prime they were potent enough to break down any defense but Tilden's.

Johnston's defeats by Tilden certainly were the most heart-breaking of his career, for in several of their matches for national championships in honor, it seemed that Little Bill would come through. Perhaps the Californian's most dramatic stand was in 1922.

"Tilden seemed to grow bigger as the match went along," Johnston said afterward. "I couldn't get out of my head the idea that he was like a balloon expanding out. I could not get the ball past him."

MICKEY WALKER AND HUDKINS WIN

(By the Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 6.—(AP)—Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, and Ace Hudkins, who will seek to win that title when the two meet here June 21, won their last "fining up" fights last night. Walker by decision, Hudkins by knockout.

At St. Paul, Minn., Walker devoted 19 rounds to giving Jack Mahone a boxing lesson. Hudkins ended his fight quickly, winning by a technical knockout in the second round from Buck Holley of Oakland, at Lincoln.

Both fighters will start immediately intensive training here, they announced. The championship will be decided at Comiskey park, the home of the White Sox.

EX-GOV. PIERCE IS BEATEN BY LADY DEBATER

(By the Associated Press) HAINES, Ore., June 6.—(AP)—Mrs. Wayne Henry and Mrs. Elmer Cook, members of the Debate League of the Hines College Grange, Polk county, won the final debate in the Oregon State Grange state-wide contest here last night, defeating Walter M. Pierce, former governor, and L. R. Shumway, member of the legislative committee of the grange.

Mrs. Wayne and Mrs. Cook had the negative side of the question: "Resolved, that the principle of the debenture plan of solving the agricultural surplus problems advocated by the National Grange should be adopted by the United States government."

The question has been debated by Grange teams all over the state this year and the teams meeting last night were chosen for the finale.

The winners last night were presented with a silver loving cup by Paul V. Maris, director of extension of Oregon State college. The judges were George H. Harrison, master of the California Grange; Dr. B. Poling, of Albany, Oregon; and Professor Dahlberg of the public speaking department of Oregon State college.

RED GRANGE NEAR BREAK WITH PYLE

WHEATON, Ill., June 6.—(AP)—A pairing of the w's for C. C. Pyle and Harold (Red) Grange, the former University of Illinois "gallop" ghost, was seen today by Grange's father.

Possibilities of a break between the two have been current in sport circles. Grange's father said he knew something about the case and that here "probably was something to it."

Red was expected to arrive in Wheaton today. But as to his future plans, other than that he will make two more motion pictures, the father knows nothing. Failure of Pyle's recent cross-country foot race in which Grange was interested, was thought to have been the last straw. "Red said last fall that a break might come any time," said his father.
