KANAKA CHAMPION QUILTS FOR MOVIES

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—(AP)—So enamored has Duke Kahana-moku become with motion picture acting that the United States, in its 1928 quest for Olympic games laurels will have to do without the services of the Hawaiian whose Olympic record stands unequalled in swimming annals. To Stockholm, to Antwerp and to Paris, in the games of 1912, 1920 and 1924, the "Duke" went, and this year he Olympic team berth. Yesterday, however, there came an announcement from the 25-year-old swimmer that he had given up his chances for a trip to Amsterdam in order to accept a motion picture contract. He said: "I hate to give up swimming, and I certainly shall miss the Olympic tryouts and finals, but I like movies and as this is my first real chance there really was no choice."

SPORT BRIEFS

CHICAGO, June 7.—(AP)—Twelve or 15 of the prize three-year-old stake winners of the nation, including several participants in the recent Kentucky derby, are expected to start in the $25,000 American derby at Arlington Park Saturday. Missup, runner-up in the Kentucky derby and winner of the Fairmount derby last week, is a general favorite, while Teigh Oka, Jack Higgins, Toro and Strolling Player also have a large field of backers. The distance will be a mile and a quarter. Strolling Player, owned by Admiral Carey T. Grayson's Salsubra stable, is the latest entry. Nearly 100,000 fans are expected to watch the derby.

JURY ACQUITS TEACHER IN DOG CRUELTY TRIAL

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 7.—(Special)—Terminating the longest misdemeanor trial in the history of Santa Barbara county, a jury today brought in a verdict of not guilty in the trial of Wilbur A. Sells, teacher in the State Teachers college here. Sells was charged with mutilation and neglect of a small fox terrier and was defended by Attorney Ira Butcher. In meeting the charge that the dog was obliged to lie in a garage amidst filth and without food or water, Butcher replied: "Jesus Christ was born in a stable." Undue hilarity which followed among student friends, spectators and jurymen, brought adjournment from Justice George, who cautioned "Act Your Age." The trial consumed twelve days and exhausted a number of one hundred and twenty six veniremen.

Pre-Convention Sparks by Wire

KANSAS CITY, June 7.—(AP)—Jubilant gentlemen from who's who seeking work as doorkeepers; favorite son lieutenants with state-ments; women delegates; committee members and hostesses everywhere; miles of bunting, hundreds of flags and the local "corps of hospitality," functioning today added to the rush of the national convention preliminaries. Among the scores ready to serve as a doorkeeper, or perhaps as an assistant sergeant-at-arms—just to get inside convention hall—was Jones Parker, St. Louis millionaire. But only forty odd doors have been discovered.

PORTLAND POWER OFFICER DEFENDS PUBLICITY PLAN

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 7.—(AP) The right of a utility to place its story before the public was upheld today at the convention of the National Electric Light association, by Franklin T. Griffith, president of the Portland, Oregon Power company. Discussing recent charges that the industry had been spending large sums to create public approval of private ownership, he said: "We don't object to dissemination of views differing from ours, but we most strenuously object when the different views are distorted and supported by plain mis-statements of fact. I insist that when I challenge misstatements of fact made by those who would plunge the nation, the states and the municipalities into the dark pool of political operation, we are doing that which is not only our right, but our duty as citizens as well as representatives of the industry of which we are a part."

ROGUE RIVER

(By Mrs. Myrtle E. Whipple.) ROGUE RIVER, June 6. The funeral for George Badley was held Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. Rev. Wilson officiating. Interment was in Rogue River cemetery. George Walter Badley was born at Sweet, Idaho, July 30, 1862, and was 25 years 10 months old at the time of his death. He lived at Sweet, Idaho, until May, 1920, then came with his parents to Rogue River, where he met and married Miss Nora Beck. To this union were born two sons, Robert, aged five, and Kenneth, aged 2. The deceased was living at Battle Falls at the time he received the injury which caused his death. He was always a good, cheerful boy, loved and respected by all whom he met. He is survived by his wife, two sons, father, mother, two brothers, Henry of Rogue River and Fred of Salmon River, Idaho, also one sister, Estella, who lives with her parents here. All these, with a large number of friends, mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, a loving son and brother and an all-around friend who was well thought of. Rev. and Mrs. Wilson went to Portland last Monday and the doctors pronounced Mrs. Wilson completely cured of the trouble for which she was operated on last summer. Mr. Lake is giving the old bank building a coat of paint, which greatly improves its looks. Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wiley and daughter Marian were Sunday visitors at the Wiley-Carter ranch from McCloud, Calif. Thinning has started in most of the orchards around here this week. A crew is employed at the Meadowbrook farm and another crew is busy at the C. E. Sams orchard. Mrs. Wilson and Miss Lila Martin are visiting at Walls Walls, Wash. at the home of Mrs. Wiley's father and sister, who have a large dairy farm. Rev. Wilson returned home but Mrs. Wilson will be gone about a month. John Cole, who has been working at the dredge, returned to his home at Vancouver, Wash. Tuesday evening.

She Was Not a Hara Avis

A curate, who was also a keen naturalist, went to see a sick woman in his parish. She had been expecting him for some days, and said with a sigh: "Had I been a rare toothfish, you would have come to see me long, long ago."

Study of Killer

Character study of Charles J. Hoppe, 26, of Toledo, O., who has signed a confession given to police that he abducted and murdered Dorothy Sielagowski, 7, cousin of his wife, at Toledo, O. A missing tooth led to his capture—responding to bites on the girl's body. Hoppe has been charged with first degree murder.

ANOTHER AIRPLANE EXPEDITION TO SOUTH PLANNED

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP) A busy summer in the Antarctic was promised today with announcement of plans for a third aerial expedition to explore that region. Douglas George Jeffrey, retired British naval commander and veteran of one of the south polar expeditions of the late Sir Ernest Shackleton, announced he would head an expedition of about 25 men and two planes leaving for the Antarctic in September and spending the south polar summer in exploration, returning in May. Commander Jeffrey said the expedition would in no way conflict with the expeditions of Commander Richard E. Byrd and Captain George Wilkins but would complement them. The expedition is being financed by Americans whose names are withheld. The commander has been in this country since March.

Prince Carol to Be Divorced by His Spurned Wife

BUCHAREST, Romania, June 7.—The newspaper Lumina says former Crown Prince Carol's recent escapades in England have led Princess Helen, whom he married in March, 1914, in Athens, to seek a divorce from her errant husband. The decree is expected to be pronounced shortly because General Condoucau, Carol's legal representative, has returned from Belgium, where he obtained the prince's consent.

Taught the Fish a Lesson

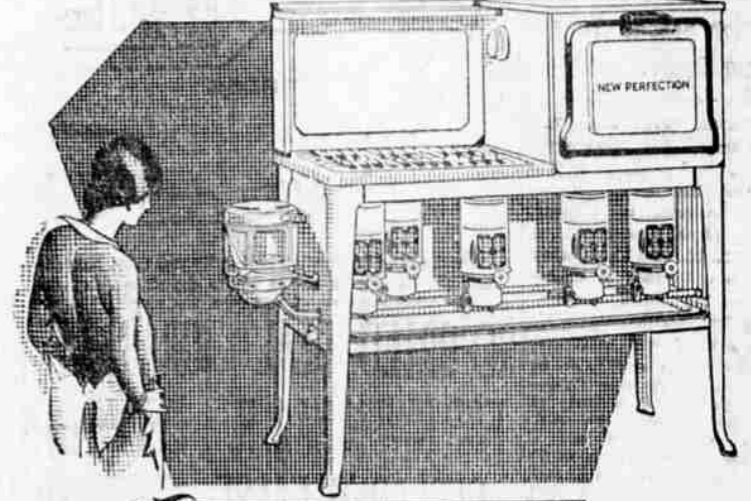

"Johnny," said the minister, reprovingly, as he met anurchin carrying a string of fish one Sunday afternoon. "did you catch those today?" "Yes, sir," answered Johnny. "That's what they get for chasing worms on Sunday."

Another Wanted

The night was stormy, and the captain's son stood watching his father steering the little vessel.

Wishing to consult his chart, the that star and you will be all right." of the stern instead of ahead, he captain said to the boy. The boy began to steer the vessel, shouldered proudly to his father: "Here, take the wheel, I'll be safe, and soon got her out of her. Come and find me another star, back in a few minutes. Stay, in charge. When the star appeared and, I've passed that one!"
