GUEST DAY AT TALENT CLUB IS GREAT SUCCESS

TALENT, June 8.—The Community club gave their annual "Guest Day" party Wednesday afternoon, which was attended by about one hundred guests. Among the guests from out of town were: Mrs. A. L. Howard and daughter, Gwendolyn, of Riddle, Oregon, Mrs. John Fuller, Mrs. George Briscoe and Mrs. McCrab from Ashland, Mrs. E. A. Perry and Mrs. L. R. Ames of Medford, and Mrs. Sula Dean from Phoenix. The afternoon was much enjoyed by those present by the introduction of several community songs which were led by Mrs. Fuller. Mrs. Briscoe presiding at the piano. A quartet consisting of Mesdames Terrill, Beeson, Riner and Williams rendered two selections which were also greatly enjoyed. Another feature of the afternoon's entertainment was an Hungarian folk dance rendered by Miss Anna Evans, accompanied at the piano by Miss Doris Applegate. This was so much enjoyed that the applause took the form of an encore which was gracefully responded to by the young ladies. A recitation, "Old Glory," was well rendered by Miss Tris Long. A select reading was given by Mrs. Charles Holdridge which was also greatly enjoyed. After the program a delicious lunch of ice cream, cake and coffee was served in the banquet room, after which a social half hour brought the afternoon to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Terrill, Mrs. O. A. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Long, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Miller, Lovella Long, Jean Spiers and Tris Long were among the Talent folks shopping in Medford Saturday afternoon.

REESE CREEK RIPLETS

The Reese Creek school closed last Thursday with a short but good program. One could not help but recognize the ability of the teacher, Mrs. Miller, in training the children to sing, they kept such good time. The following is the program: Recitation by Mildred Shearin; the boys' orchestra of the primary room, "The Muffin Man" and "Gypsy Peddler"; girls' orchestra of the primary room, "Row, Row, Your Boat" and "Lady Bug"; both boys and girls, "Good Morning to You," "Whip-Poor-Will," "Fido and His Master," "Cherries Are Ripe," and without the orchestra they sang "Postman, Postman" and "America"; a duet, "Dressing Up," by two girls, a recitation by Alice Walker; the upper grades sang the following songs, "Goldenrod Is Yellow," "Star Daisies," "Good Night," "Star of the Summer Night," "Elves Dance at the Wedding," "Horse and the Cock," Morning Prayer," "A Merry Life," "Polly Wolly Doodle." They were all well rendered. The parents and patrons turned out quite well and brought their dinners and enjoyed a picnic dinner out under the trees. The pupils work which was displayed was wonderful; one could spend hours looking at the sewing, carpentering, drawing, painting, writing and many other things that were displayed around in the building.

There were 74 at Sunday school last Sunday. The lesson was, "Jesus Facing Betrayal and Death." The golden text, "Not what I will, but what thou wilt," Mark 14:36. Some valuable lessons were presented to the class. After the Sunday school Rev. Stille preached a short sermon, taking for his text Mark 4:19, "And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering it, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful." One should be careful and take time to study the Word and to pray, and not let the cares of the home, farm, or any other work crowd out Gord's word or prayer, for it is by such the Christian grows.

Mrs. J. L. Robertson will lead the prayer meeting this coming Thursday evening. The prayer meetings as a rule are quite well attended.

The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, June 10. After Sunday school they expect to take their dinners and visit the Brownsboro Sunday school. On the last Sunday of June there will be an all-day meeting at Reese Creek. Everyone is invited.

LOGGERS BUSY AT GOLD HILL

GOLD HILL, June 7.—(Special)—Logging activities are now in full swing in Gold Hill. The logs are being brought here by truck from the head of Sardine creek. Several of them are nearly three feet in thickness and are cut in 16-foot lengths. After being loaded onto cars, they are sent to Medford to the Owen-Oregon mill. This is one of the proofs of our resources. This timber will make an excellent grade of lumber from our "great country."

Vernice Radtke left for Chiloquin Sunday morning.

Mrs. Althers is able to be out a little, by the use of crutches.

Several men have been busy cleaning the city reservoir, so as to insure the best of drinking water.
