

ASHLAND NORMAL TEACHER CALLED TO UNIVERSITY

SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL, June 7.—(Special)—Arthur S. Taylor, who has been head of the history and sociology departments of the Normal School for the past two years, has accepted a position as associate professor of the school of education of the University of Texas and will be granted a leave of absence from the local school for one year.

The southern college, which is located at Austin, Texas, claims an enrollment of 2000 students. As the staff is usually chosen from the eastern colleges, the Normal school is especially proud of the honor that has been conferred upon Mr. Taylor.

Although students and faculty alike regret to see Mr. Taylor leave, it is gratifying to know that he will return to Ashland in the future. It is not known at present who will be his successor in the social science department at the Normal.

Scholarships to the summer school of art to be conducted in Ashland by the Pratt Institute of New York City have been announced by J. H. Fuller, member of the board of regents of the Normal.

Marie Davies of Ashland has received the scholarship donated by the local Elks organization; Etta Mathers of Klamath Falls, that given by the commercial club; and Isabel Silver and Florence Smith of Ashland have each received scholarships from the Ashland Civic club. The institute will open July 9 and continue until August 11.

The students honored were selected by Miss Marion Ady, head of the Normal school art department on account of their previous work in art, general scholarship and personality.

Several high school students have also been awarded scholarships through the generosity of the Ashland organizations.

The following students were nominated at the student meeting last Tuesday: Editor-in-Chief of Siskiyou, Mary Galey; Helen Wise, Vernon Trimble; manager of Siskiyou, Orla Brown; Kenneth Anderson, Dick Marple; student body president, Mary Agnes Hunt; Harry May, Isabelle Silver; vice-president, Katherine Langworthy; Roland Parks, Audra Wagner; secretary, Nell Mahone; Wilma Howard, Cora G. Glines; treasurer, Verne Spiers; Carter Boggs, Lucille Wilson.

Election will be held all day Thursday.

"The Hat," a clever three-act comedy, by Maud Fulton will be presented Friday evening, June 8, in the Normal school auditorium by the Alpha Tau drama organization of the school at 8.15 o'clock.

The play, which is an annual commencement event, is directed by Margaret Turner, and Fay Arthur of the Alpha Tau and Miss Florence Buck as faculty supervisor. The following compose the cast: Eleanor Brown, "The Hat"; McMillan Forester, a novelist; John Churchman, and Stephen Forester, his younger brother; Harry May; Mrs. Forester, Elizabeth Moore; Timon, the butler; Riley Pittenger; Margaret the housekeeper; Fay Arthur; Bishop Ware and Mrs. Ware; Bill Tucker and Florence Stewart; Dot, their small daughter; Marie Davies; Angela Smythe, Lucille Calkins and Jane Depew, Helen Lyons.

A toy orchestra, composed of members of a methods music class, entertained the assembly Monday. Rhythm sticks, bass drums, triangles, sand boxes, tambourines, Chinese wooden box, symbols and other instruments were played.

Mary Galey gave three beautiful piano solos, "Romance in D flat, Hungarian Etude and Fire Fly, by Rogers at Wednesday's assembly.

The faculty reception of the Southern Oregon Normal, in honor of the senior class, will be given Saturday evening, June 9, in the school auditorium.

It is hoped by Miss Clara A. Trotter, supervisor in intermediate methods, who is in charge of the affair, that the out-of-town members of the board of regents of the normal and their wives will be present to stand in the receiving line. Others who will stand in the receiving line are: President and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Strange, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Miss Helen C. Anderson, dean of women, Lester Beck, president of the senior class and Miss Lillian Graves, advisor for the senior class.

Harry May, Fruit Cantrill, Paul Kincaid, Jack McArthur, Carl Besswell and Vern Trimble, all junior men, will act as ushers to present the seniors to the receiving line.

The hours of the reception will be from 8:15 until 11:30 o'clock. The seniors will be received from 8:15 until 9:30 and the remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing. Punch will be served during the evening.

The faculty reception is one of the foremost events of the year and one to which all seniors look forward.

The Southern Oregon Normal alumni reunion, held on the old Normal grounds Monday, June 11, will be one of the most interesting events of commencement week. According to Miss Beatrice Hall, chairman of the affair and her assistants, Mrs. A. H. Pracht and Mrs. A. C. Joy, all plans are complete for the day. Plans are being made for over 200 guests.

Registration of old students and now will start at 10:30 a. m. Miss Eva White will preside over the registration department. A short business meeting will be held at 11 o'clock, which will be followed by a luncheon in the old gymnasium. All alumni members will bring well filled picnic baskets. Coffee, cream and sugar and ice cream will be furnished by the alumni association. Three minute talks will be made during the noon hour with Percy Wells, of Klamath Falls, former county school superintendent, acting as toast master for the occasion. The afternoon program will include: March, by Normal school orchestra; address of welcome, Fred Homes, president of the alumni association; response, Lester Beck, president of the senior class of 1928; violin solo, "From the Cane Brake," Ruth Louise Yoder, instructor in music at the Normal, accompanied by Mary Galey; alumni address by B. F. Mulkey, Portland, former president of the old Normal; Normal school songs led by Miss Leona G. Marsters, supervisor of music at the Normal.
