

BOND ELECTIONS TO BE HELD HERE THIS SEPTEMBER

At a meeting of the finance and street committees of the city council, and other city officials, last night, the matter of considering a date for the holding of two special bond elections, one to raise $75,000 for street improvements and repairs, and the other to raise $110,000 for a new airport, was discussed, and it was decided to hold the election sometime between the first and middle of next September.

The gathering instructed City Attorney John H. Carkin to get in touch with leading bond attorneys, and also with those in charge of the Roseburg test suit, which will be taken up to the state supreme court for a decision as to whether a city can legally bond itself for making airport improvements, in order to see whether it will be necessary for Medford to change its charter before holding such an election.

John Carkin Will Be Governor of State Next Week

Tomorrow morning Medford will begin temporarily to share with Salem in being the seat of government of Oregon, until June 20, because of Governor Patterson's sojourn in the east, and the fact that Henry Corbett, president of the state senate, will depart tomorrow from the state en route for Europe, which automatically makes Medford's city attorney, John H. Carkin, governor during that time by virtue of his being speaker of the Oregon house of the legislature.

It developed today that, contrary to general opinion, Acting Governor Carkin will not have to remain in Salem during this time, as by arrangement with Beatrice Walton, secretary of Governor Patterson, he will only be called to Salem when necessary, which will enable him to remain most of the time in Medford.

Mr. Carkin has already begun to receive telegraphic messages in relation to his becoming acting governor, as this forenoon he received a telegraphic message from Miss Walton, notifying him to make arrangements to be in Salem next Tuesday, because of a meeting there on that day of the state home commission, and of his presence being needed to make a quorum. Her telegram said that she would further advise him Monday if there was change in the arrangements for this meeting.

Of course, whenever the acting governor goes to Salem for a specific purpose, other matters may come up after he arrives there, which may hold him at the state capital for several days.

'Fortune Hunter' Is Vitaphone Special

Most heart-warming and mirthful of all small town comedies is the Vitaphone picture, "The Fortune Hunter," coming to Huppin's Craterian tomorrow. Sid Chaplin is the star, assisted by Helene Costello as leading lady. "The Fortune Hunter" recounts the adventures of a likeable young roughneck, who staked by a friend with whom he had bobbed, goes to a Vermont village with the full intention of capturing the richest girl—and her bankroll. The course of true love runs plain and easy, and in the rearranging of things causes some of the most exciting, laughable sequences ever screened. On the same program with "The Fortune Hunter" are two splendid acts of Vitaphone vaudeville. The first is Eddie Peabody, well known banjo king, in his great act "Banjo Jamboree." The other act is a comedy entitled "Tuning In," which is a radio mirthquake for fun and music combined. Another feature on the bill that will be classed by many as the most marvelous of all is the first showing of the Movietone news reel. You will now hear as well as see all the news.

Tom Mix Thrills Rialto Audience

"Hello, Cheyenne!" current attraction at the Huppin theater, with Tom Mix in the leading role, is not "just another western." The ability of Mix to extricate himself from the precarious situations in which he finds himself tends to disprove such a statement. Mix thrills and chills his audience with his daring riding and smashing fights. The modern Buffalo Bill disengages at the law of gravity as he runs, jumps and falls through unbelievable obstacles to aid his boss with a telephone monopoly. It is safe to say that Tom has never been seen to better advantage as he seems to throw himself into the part with a zest that is bound to keep everyone on the edge of his seat.
