

Events of the Week in Pictures

DESIRES TO LIVE NOW FOR LOVE

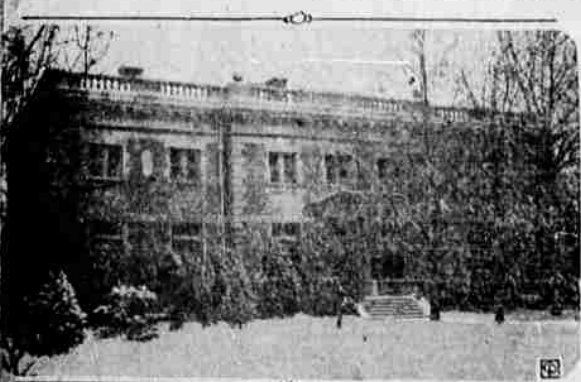

"Beautiful life, sunshine, love," are words whispered over and over by Miss Helen B. Owens, University of Chicago medical co-ed, and daughter of Professor Frederick Owens, of State College, Pennsylvania, who tried suicide with a potion of mysterious acid when she was unable to decide between a career and marriage. As the poison slowly began working, her parents told her to try to live and choose both—and she began a valiant fight for life with students giving blood transfusions.

PLEDGE FRIENDSHIP TO THE LIMIT

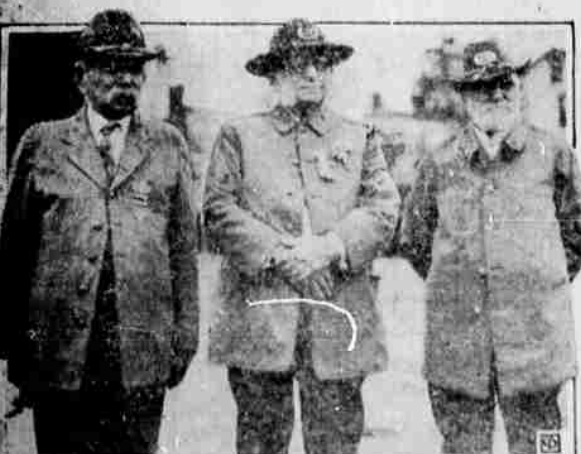

William F. Kenny, left, New York contractor, and William Todd, right, wealthy shipbuilder, backers of Governor Al Smith's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination, snapped at New York with the governor, center, as he saw them off on a trip to Europe. The two, in testifying before the senate campaign funds committee, declared that every penny of their wealth would go to Governor Smith if it were necessary, because of their friendship for him, in backing him for the presidency.

NEUTRAL SPOT IN WARRING CHINA

Recent disturbances in China have increased the importance of the American legation in Peking. Above, the minister's quarters.

RANKS OF GRAY THIN RAPIDLY

Back in '61 Portsmouth, Va., sent nearly 1,500 men to the battlefields in the uniform of the Confederacy—more soldiers than she had voters. Only three were able to attend Confederate memorial services there this year, and less than a dozen of them are alive. Above, the trio present at the exercises are, Capt. Cary R. Warren, Col. Joseph T. Duke and William A. Fiske.

Boys' Tragedy

Alvin Hess, 16, above, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been convicted of, and Robert Stevens, 14, his companion, goes on trial charged with the murder of an unidentified man on the banks of the Monongahela river last September. Hess has been given life imprisonment. He is said to be the youngest person ever convicted of first degree murder in Allegheny county.

Mystery Wheat

Above, is a sample of the strange wheat grown on the farm of Mrs. J. J. Miller, of Baker, British Columbia. Several of the heads attain a length of six inches and are eight rowed to the top. It is difficult to be sure of its variety and even experts admit themselves baffled.

Hair Pays Price

When Georgia Strief broke her engagement her hair paid the price of a boy's wrath, she says. Her angry ex-lover cut off most of her hair and left her looking this way, she told the police in a complaint which caused his arrest.

Gopher Trapper

Robert Beebe, of Wichita, Kas., holds the gopher trapping championship of his state. He averages $30 a week in bounties, his largest haul this season being 612 of the pests in a period of four days.

Junior League Head

Mrs. Allmand M. Blow, daughter of U. S. Senator Charles S. Deneen, of Illinois, society leader and past president of the Tulsa, Okla., Junior League, has been elected regional president of the southwest district of the National Junior League.

Sixty Years a Man

Mary "George" Miller, 78, has posed as a man and done a man's work since she was 18. Mary worked as a farm hand near Iowa City, Ia., until recently when, taken sick, her sex was discovered.

To Pilot Actress

Another transatlantic east to west flight, with Johann Ristic, above, German flyer, as pilot, and Lilli Dillenz, Viennese actress and owner of the plane, is expected to start soon from Rudolstadt, Germany.

Set for Dem Meet

Two former national political characters are members of Oklahoma's delegation-at-large to the Democratic national convention at Houston, Tex., in June. They are Thomas Pryor Gore, above, former U. S. senator, and Charles N. Haskell, below, the state's first governor. Haskell is for Al Smith for the Democratic nomination, while Gore stands for Senator James Reed.

Flapper Justice

Law violators don't mind being caught in Harmon county, Oklahoma, for they are hailed before Alma Short, 21, new justice of the peace at Hollis. The first eleven violators to face her have pleaded guilty.

U. of O. Go-ed Honored

Edith Dodge, of Ashland, was this year awarded the Gerlinger cup, presented annually to the woman student of the junior class at the University of Oregon who has shown the greatest development in character, scholarship and personality during her college career. Miss Dodge has been active in many campus affairs, and has just been elected president of the Women's league. She was also chosen a member of Mortar Board, senior honor society.

Miss Hickman Held

Miss Mary Hickman, 18, sister of Edward Hickman, sentenced to die in California for the murder of Marion Parker, has been held in Kansas City, Mo., for investigation and examination for sanity. Police said she admitted obtaining clothing from stores under false pretenses and added they feared she was developing kleptomaniac tendencies. Hickman's prosecutors fear his lawyers will use the incident in an insanity plea to save him.

Miss Mother Goose

Miss Bernice Kent, of Mount Morris, N. Y., snapped arriving at San Francisco from the Orient, is credited with having popularized Mother Goose tales in Japan. Miss Kent was in charge of kindergarten work in Tokyo for five years.

Pastor Police Chief

The city council of Marion, Ill., has named a pastor as chief of police for the city. He is the Rev. Clyde Bailey, above, serving his eighth year as minister of a Marion church. He has run for mayor of Marion and for state senator from the Fiftieth district.

Physician Honored

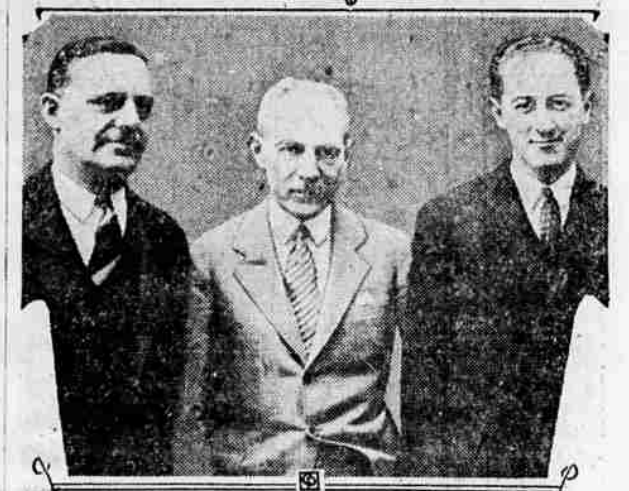

Dr. John H. Musser, of New Orleans, has been named president-elect of the American College of Physicians, taking office in 1929. A professor of medicine at Tulane university, he was a major in the army medical corps and is the editor of medical text books.

KANSAS CITY-BOUND BOOZE SEIZED

Bound for Kansas City, Mo., apparently for use during the G. O. P. convention, this carload of liquor, valued at $10,000, was seized by dry agents in the railroad yards at Birmingham, Ala. The shipment originated at Lakeland, Fla., and was concealed in drums bearing the label, "phosphate."

REPUBLICAN "OFFICIAL BOUNCERS"

Making preparations for the opening of the Republican national convention at Kansas City, Mo., the "official bouncers" are shown here on arrival at the convention city. They are Lee Nixon, center, sergeant-at-arms; Richard Paul, of Boston, left, his first assistant, and James S. Stanley, of New York, right, second assistant.

A veteran campaigner, Maj. Gen. John A. LeJeune, commandant of the marine corps, and Brig. Gen. Logan Feland, once more taking command of the marine corps in Nicaragua, are seen studying maps in Washington, preparatory to sailing for Nicaragua.

Liquor Czarina

A woman reigns as the "czarina of liquor permits" in northern and western New York. She is Mrs. Ednah McKinley Lee, holding the title of revocation judge of the third prohibition enforcement district and is one of the few women "dry" judges in the country. Mrs. Lee conducts hearings in various federal districts on evidence presented against drug stores by dry agents.

To Wed Doorman

Miss Eunice Swetman, daughter of a bank president of Biloxi, Miss., is engaged to wed Arch Bonge, college graduate and doorman for a New York City movie palace. But Bonge is more than a doorman—or at least he's only a doorman by night. Daytime he's an artist, and he acts as a doorman to enable him to continue his art career. Miss Swetman has appeared on the stage.