

Local and Personal

Acting Governor John H. Carlin left last evening for the state capital at Salem to attend a meeting of the state bonus commission and look after other matters there today pertaining to the governor's office. He planned when he left to arrive home tomorrow forenoon.

Would you like to take advantage of a credit of $142.50 on a Laffargue piano sold about a year ago for $475? You may take care of this contract over a period of 24 months. Palmer Music House.

Mrs. Walter Bowne and daughter Ruth left Sunday for Plainfield, N. J., where they expect to make their permanent home.

All the mineral water you want for 50c from those famous Hotcomb health giving springs. 85c car charge.

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Dr. and Mrs. Fred J. Jarvis of Oskaloosa, Ia., Fred J. Jarvis, Jr., of Clinton, Mo., and Mrs. Harold Miley of Winnemucca, Nev., and A. M. Funk of Chicago.

Need a spare? We have some good buys in used tires and tubes. Jennings Tire Co., 127 N. Riverside.

Home H. Harvey and his sister, Mrs. Sylvia H. Harvey, returned yesterday evening from Cottage Grove where they had been visiting their parents and brother for several days.

Vacation time and free lessons with every piano sold during the summer months. We will arrange for ten free lessons with the teacher you wish. If you are not acquainted we will gladly suggest a teacher for you. Palmer Music House.

Examinations for state teachers' certificates will be conducted in the Junior high school building by the county superintendent's office, commencing at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow and continuing until Saturday at 4 p. m.

Merchants, do you need storage space? Have drive-in space for rent. One block from Main. Call Sam Jennings, phone 223.

Miss Laura Mitchell of Palo Alto, Calif., is the guest of Miss Frances Sparrow, and Miss Eleanor Glasgow of Ashland in the guest of Miss Roxanna Huhl, all being students at the Katherine Branson school, Ross, Calif.

You can save $20 on your grocery bill. Underwood Company.

Fair weather and normal temperature and humidity is the outlook for the weather of tonight and tomorrow, according to the weather forecast. The maximum of yesterday was 72.

Drums Bros., Harmony Kings at Hilarity Hall Wednesday night, 8:30. Assistant Postmaster R. O. and Beach began a five days' vacation last Sunday when he and Mrs. Beach left on an auto trip to Crescent City and other places on the coast, from which they will return the last of this week.

The new reinforced steel and concrete Pacific highway bridge spanning Foothills creek six miles below Cold Hill is completed. The delay was caused by the flood on the stream last winter which carried away the falsework on the structure, and the damages following. The old steel structure will be dismantled and re-erected on Warden's creek, out from Rogue River.

Grange dance, Lake Creek, Saturday night. Everybody welcome.

Among the hotel guests in Medford from the state of Washington are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dimovon of Tacoma, C. Kessler and Mrs. W. F. Kessler of Spokane, Mrs. Emma Knight of Centralia and J. A. Devine, Mrs. A. K. Smith, Margy Alan, Frances Smith, C. F. VanWinkle, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bruen and Mrs. Mable Steves, G. A. Glasford, D. C. Leavens, W. C. Snyder and Frank White, of Seattle.

The bands and orchestras of our city schools will show considerable growth by opening of the fall term. Five new students of band instruments were started this week at the Palmer Music House. Four free lessons are given with each instrument sold. Used instruments are loaned to those who are in doubt of their ability to learn. If your son or daughter would like to play a musical instrument, make arrangements to start them now. Palmer Music House.

Piano for sale, $50. Phone 1181 evenings.

There's a Difference in breads. Don't just ask for "A loaf of Bread." Say "A loaf of Fluhrer's Bread." It will assure you of the same unvarying quality product day after day.

A building permit was issued yesterday by the city of Clem Childers for the construction of a dwelling at 419 Arcadia Court at a cost of $2000.

Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers $25 set of four. Will sure make your car ride smooth forever. Elwood's Auto Shop, 82 Central.

Paul G. Allen and his "Oregon State Rhythm" one of the popular orchestras on the O. S. C. campus for the past year, passed through Medford Monday, en route to Yosemite Lake resort, near Merced, Calif., where they have a contract to play for the entire vacation period. Allen has been a student in chemical engineering at O. S. C. for the past two years, and is a son of Beverly Allen of this city.

Band and orchestra instruments repaired. Reduced rates for the summer months. Have your instrument ready for the coming season's use and busy school months. Palmer Music House, 85c car charge.

Have special bargain in brand new grand piano shipped to Medford in error. Factory has authorized 25% reduction for quick sale. Terms may be arranged. Palmer Music House.

Temporary auto licenses were issued today at the sheriff's office to Thomas Smith of Central Point, William Jones, American Railway Express company, O. V. Hodgson, Walter H. Hines and Arthur Hawkins of Medford, James Davies and C. P. Ryves of Jacksonville and C. M. Slagle of Phoenix.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pine Lbr. Co. 781c.

Gilbert Duncan, an ex-army aviator who was found on Eighth street Saturday night in an unconscious condition as the result of a heart attack, is reported to have suffered another similar attack at the St. Mary's hospital today, and County Physician E. D. Inskip this forenoon feared for his recovery. Duncan is a traveler and as yet no information has been obtained in regard to his relatives or home.

Dance, Hilarity Hall, with Dyane Bros., orchestra Wednesday, 8:30. Included among the Oregonians registered at Medford hotels, other than those from Portland, are E. Edwards of Salem, F. E. Price of Corvallis, Lillian Smith of Albany, Edna Dippel, H. J. Kallinsky, C. L. Goff and E. C. Gilstrop of Eugene.

Mrs. C. C. VanScyoc, Home baking. Phone 693-J.

Marking his third marriage, a marriage license was issued yesterday at the county clerk's office to Perry Wyncoop, 74, and Vest Johnson, 35, both of this city. A license also was issued yesterday to Norris Goldard, 32, and Hildred Pace, 19, both of Ashland.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pine Lbr. Co. 781c.

Medford property owners interested in the sewer improvement work completed last year are reminded by City Treasurer H. J. Berrian that assessments for such work are due July 1. A list of sewer improvements and assessments is to be published this month at the same time that assessments for the Bear creek channel improvement work is also scheduled to be published. The Bear creek work was completed last fall for flood protection for property owners of the east side.

Used piano for sale at a sacrifice. Easy terms. Phone 934-N.

Rotarians in Oregon, Washington, northern Idaho, British Columbia and Alaska will go in a special train to the 18th annual Rotary convention to be held at Minneapolis, June 18-22. Cars bearing Oregon delegates will leave Portland June 15 and cars bearing other northwest delegates west of the Cascades will leave Seattle the same day. The special train will be made up at Spokane and will pick up Montana delegates. It is expected that nearly 10,000 Rotarians will attend the convention. Storage space for rent. Drive in with car or truck. Call Sam Jennings, phone 223.

Harry Skymann, former assistant city attorney of Medford, who recently entered into private practice, underwent a major operation for appendicitis yesterday at the Community hospital, where today his condition was reported to be showing improvement.

Have your furniture repaired by A. N. Thibault, Phone 969-R.

The will of W. A. Cowley, former well known Central Point resident and mayor, who died in Dumsmuir, Calif., a short time ago, was on file today at the county clerk's office. The will provided for bequests of $500 each to Henry Hiley and Irvin Hamilton, who were former clerks in a store Mr. Cowley formerly operated in Central Point. The remainder of the estate, which has not been appraised, was left to Mrs. Cowley and four children, John, Doris, Charles and William. The will was dated August 13, 1917.

The Crosley Ice-Ball, cheapest mechanical refrigerator sold. Tel. 423.

Jack Hurston professional at the Medford Golf club, left last night for Portland where he will take part in the northwest open golf championship tournament which starts Friday. Local golf fans are boasting for Jack and believe he has a good chance to get in the money.

A special type of tree props at Big Pine Lbr. Co. 781c.

Howard Spalding, who has just completed his freshman year at Stanford university, left for his home here today, according to a wire received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spalding. He will resume his duties as bookkeeper at the Medford National bank during the summer months.

Grange dance, Lake Creek, Saturday night. Everybody welcome.

Among the Medford visitors at Crescent City Sunday were the Misses Pearl Timmons and Rachel Eads, Ben Hiltzer, Lewis Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Phillips and son Estill, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elliott.

Over 1000 of the new Medford booklets illustrating the most attractive scenes and features of the Rogue River valley, were mailed to chambers of commerce headquarters in Oregon from the chambers of commerce here. A number were also sent out to travel bureaus which had requested them.

Mrs. C. C. VanScyoc, Home baking. Phone 693-J.

Six hundred pounds of horse power are contained in one creek by the million and a half fish at the Butte Falls fish hatchery. Everett Moore, superintendent, who was here on business this morning, reported that this has been an exceptionally good year, very few fish having died. Most of the fish are about five inches long and 300,000 of the last year's hatch will soon be liberated in Big Butte creek.

Mr. Moore, who is employed by the game commission, has been at the hatchery two years. During that time there have been several epidemics of ailments which killed many fish.

Steinway grand piano sold to radio broadcasting station KQOR is to be resold; liberal discount. For particulars write or phone Sherman, Clay & Co., Eugene, Ore. Phone 862.

A. B. Cunningham and son William attend a convention of northwest electrotechnicians at Eugene last Friday. They drove to Seattle Saturday where they will be joined by H. E. Hines, father-in-law of Mr. Cunningham, who expects to spend several months here.

Dressmaking and remodeling. Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg.

Klamath Falls business visitors from Medford include Albert Lenox and H. L. Roberts, who will return to Klamath tonight.

Miss Joyce Maddox, who arrived here Friday after completing her junior year at the University of Oregon, will spend the summer at Crater. A group of 15 friends from Eugene will leave for the resort June 23 where they expect to work at the lodge.

You don't need electricity to operate a Crosley Ice-Ball refrigerator. 88c.

William Wollman, representative of the Ely-Lilly company of Indianapolis, was a business visitor here yesterday afternoon.

Expecting to spend two weeks traveling by car with stops of several days at Los Angeles, San Francisco and Yosemite national park, Misses Grace Andrews of Medford, Miss Helen Mairs, Mr. and Mrs. C. Close of Portland, left here early this morning.

Mrs. Clarabel Elliott, who returned Monday morning from a week at Marshfield where her husband attended the State Fire Chiefs' convention, reports that a large number of women are planning to attend the American Legion celebration here in August.

When they appeared in court yesterday on charges of moonshine and moonshine, Archie Cook and William Drumm were each sentenced to the state penitentiary for one year on their pleas of guilty. The two young men were arrested last week by officers in the Griffin creek country, where the pair are alleged to have been operating a still, which was seized by the officers along with 350 gallons of mash and 17 gallons of moonshine.

Guests from Portland registered at Medford hotels include the following: H. G. Findlay, W. E. Saxe, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Miller, R. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Greene, J. O'Neil, E. R. Williston, B. L. Deaton, T. E. Lyle, W. H. McGuire, R. Sowers, Paul Wandrey, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Close, E. H. Dush, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Fisher, Chet Hewitt and T. Tumley.

The majority of valley farmers who attended the Oregon State Grange convention at Rainier, Ore., last week returned to their homes yesterday, reporting one of the best sessions in years.

To begin a nurse's training course in the Good Samaritan hospital, Miss Katherine Patrick is leaving today for Portland.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Eugene Thomas, local real estate man, who, accompanied by his wife, left several months ago for an extended tour of the United States, is now in Philadelphia and has been in that city over a fortnight, looking over the sights that the big city has to offer. Mr. Thomas has already visited a long list of middle western, southern and eastern cities and is expected to return here sometime this summer.

The heavy rainstorm of early Sunday morning did considerable damage to wheat crops in certain sections of the valley, according to reports yesterday and today. A wheat field owned by William Bohner, northwest of Medford, suffered considerable damage as a result of the rain which beat the high stalks to the ground, and along with some wind, the stalks in certain sections of the field were badly twisted. Other fields in the Central Point section suffered likewise, making the harvesting of the wheat next month very difficult.

Two divorce complaints were on file today at the county clerk's office. One was filed by Evelyn Germany against George Germany, on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married in Medford June 17, 1921. The other suit was filed by James Lockie against Elizabeth Lockie, on grounds of desertion. The suit was filed in Medford, Wash., in December, 1925.

Mart Burns, who was arrested Saturday night for the possession of home brew and moonshine at his home on Stewart avenue near the fairgrounds, was fined $250 and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail when he entered a plea of guilty in Judge Taylor's court yesterday. Burns is alleged to have been selling home brew for a short time past.

Mrs. E. C. Jerome is nicely on the road to recovery from the major operation she underwent last Saturday in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland.

Californians registered at Medford hotels include Mrs. F. W. Wentworth, M. Cortella Pond and Mr. and Mrs. L. Greene of Berkeley, A. E. Sotter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Glen and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hevener of Sacramento, J. J. Maehlen and F. C. Marshburn of San Dimas, Walter H. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. F. Swearingen of Watsonville, P. B. Bennett of San Diego, Edith Hillard, Mrs. P. E. Tomblom, Mrs. E. S. Poppoff, Carrie Cummings and Mertie Fowler of Yreka, Rebecca Burrows of Sausalito, Mr. and Mrs. William White of Los Angeles and J. N. Waterhouse, J. E. Gibson, L. W. Nuttman, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Young and Rudolf Ottaic of San Francisco.

Earl Leever, who is employed by the Medford Electric company, moved his household goods from Central Point this week to his new dwelling at 25 South Peach street.

Frank Farrell, attorney of Medford, and family had a narrow escape Sunday afternoon when their automobile turned over while they were driving down Strawberry line. Although posted around the car considerably and endangered by the broken window glass, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell and three children were rescued from this overturned car by passing motorists, without anyone suffering injuries. The brakes became ineffective and Mr. Farrell was forced to turn his car into the bank, which overturned it. A towing car was called from the Automotive shop and in a short time the car was righted and the family returned to Medford—Ashland Tidings.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

Miss Winnifred Walker returned home with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders of Klamath Falls, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Walker in this city.

The seven janitors of the public school buildings are making a survey of the school buildings in order to make repairs wherever needed.

For a visit with relatives at St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. George Horner of the Table Rock section left Sunday.

WHITLATCH—Funeral services for Maude L. Whitlatch, wife of Jacob L. Whitlatch, of Fort Klamath, will be conducted at the Conger funeral parlors, Wednesday, June 13th, at 2 p. m. Rev. C. E. Meil will have charge of services at the chapel and at the Medford cemetery.

DEWS—James M. Dews passed away at the home in Jacksonville Tuesday morning, aged 75 years. Deceased was the husband of Teresa A. Dews. Mr. and Mrs. Dews have been residents of Jacksonville for the past eighteen years and those who knew him will mourn the loss of a dear friend.

BYRD—Rosa Ann Byrd passed away at the Community hospital in this city Monday night, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, George Byrd of Coquille, Marvin Byrd of San Francisco, Chas. E. and Mary Byrd of Butte Falls. Deceased is also survived by two brothers and one sister, Mrs. Clara Eycourt.

The remains will be forwarded to Coquille, Ore., Thursday evening by the Conger funeral parlors, for funeral services and interment.

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

MEMORIAL PROGRAM GIVEN HERE LAST NIGHT BY K. OF P.

Tollman lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias held a short business session last night in their hall on West Main street, followed by their annual Memorial exercises. Past Chancellor W. R. Gaylord presided in the absence of Chancellor Commander Charles E. Jagna who is away on his vacation. Vice Chancellor Chas. G. Good had had to go back to the Veterans' hospital in Portland again.

A letter was read from R. B. Ebel, a former well known Medford knight, who is now with the Andes Copper Mining company at Potrerillos, Chile, South America. He writes that he expects to visit Medford next fall, which is good news to his many local friends.

The following memorial program was fittingly rendered: Memorial address by James Stewart; roll call of the departed by E. F. Robinson as follows:

George W. Schmidt, James G. Hirshey, Frank E. Moray, Eugene Orr, John G. Van Dyke, W. H. Poinette, A. E. Ray, S. J. Richardson, John C. Dorey, Dr. W. S. Jones, Charles W. Wolters, Dr. L. E. Black, W. A. Effer, S. J. Sinnerlin, W. L. Chappell, Wm. L. Vanter, Edward E. Hull, J. J. Seal, Robert L. Verbaek, G. L. Ferguson, George P. Mims, E. L. Tunnell, J. S. Vilas, Ben J. Trowbridge, Amos R. Willette, Lee Dean, L. P. Meigs, A. H. Nelson, Luke W. Henderson, G. A. Gardner, Ben Raymond, Donald Robinson, C. W. Whitlock, George E. Rankin, Elmer E. Vroman, John A. Westerland.

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly

These exercises were held jointly with the Pythian Sisters with Past and continuing for approximately ten days. PAUL R. RYNSING, Co. Engineer. Stated Assembly Table Rock Co. No. 15, June 12th, 7:30 p. m. Work in R. & S. M. degrees. P. E. NICHOLS, Recorder.

HUNT'S CRATERIAN TOMORROW Night Only—7 and 9. FEATURING 'THE BLUE BONNET REVUE' in FAST, SNAPPY SURPRISES GILBERT and HELSTON in 'OH, AGGIE' CHAS. BRUGGE in a COMEDY, MUSICAL NOVELTY THE VOLTAIRE DUO in ART OF THRILLS EVANS and HOEY in SWEDISH NONSENSE Also FEATURE PICTURE Coming—Thur., Fri., Sat. NORMA TALMADGE in 'THE DOVE' EVENING ONLY 7 & 9 P. M. Admission Children 25c Adults 50c

'Why sit on your cow's tail to keep it quiet?' Cow-Ease Fly Spray Does the Work Better Apply Cow-Ease morning and evening and you'll have contented cows. Fly postered cows give less milk and are restless at milking time. Cow-Ease Saves You a World of Worry SOLD EXCLUSIVELY BY MONARCH SEED & FEED CO. 323 East Main Phone 260

Frank & King IN The Big Tent LOCATION FOURTH AND FIR STREETS Two Big Weeks OPENING Wed. June 13 VAUDEVILLE, ORCHESTRA Wednesday-Thursday The Riot of Comedy 'Nearly a Bride' Sunday and Monday 'WHY